FOREWORD

The Postal Service is one of the largest public service institutions in the country and although it is conducted by the Government, its relation to the citizens—its patrons—is of a business rather than a Governmental nature. There are few households and probably no business establishments which do not in some measure depend upon the service rendered by the Post Office. Its work is performed through an extensive and highly complex and integrated organization the magnitude of which is indicated by the fact that its operating costs average in round numbers five and one-half million dollars each day.

The purpose of the United States Official Postal Guide, Part I, is to acquaint the public with the numerous and varied services rendered by the Post Office, the conditions under which these services are available and the organization which has been established to carry on the work.

CHAPTER III

DOMESTIC MAIL MATTER

Classification And Rates Of Postage

1. Domestic mail matter includes matter deposited in the mails for local delivery, or for transmission from one place to another within the United States, or to or from or between the possessions of the United States, and is divided into four classes:

First class, written matter, matter sealed against inspection, postal cards, and private mailing cards.

Second class, newspapers and periodical publications.

Third class, merchandise, printed matter, and other mailable matter not exceeding 8 ounces in weight, not in first and second classes.

Fourth class (parcel post), merchandise, printed matter, and other mailable matter exceeding 8 ounces in weight, not in first and second classes.

2. What is included in terms "United States" and "Possessions of United States."—Hawaii and Alaska are included in the term "United States." Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands of the United States, Canton Island, Guam, Tutuila and Manua and other islands of the Samoan group east of longitude 171° west of Greenwich, Wake Island, and the Canal Zone are included in the term "Possessions of the United States." Domestic rates and conditions also apply to matter sent to or from post offices in the Caroline, Marshall, and Mariana Islands of the Trust Territory.

3. Domestic rates and conditions apply to mail matter to or from members of the armed forces of the United States stationed outside the continental United States; whose address includes an Army-Air Force post office number or a fleet post office designation; also to or from civilian personnel authorized to receive mail through such Army-Air Force or Navy post offices.

4. Two classes of matter in one parcel.—Matter of a higher class enclosed with matter of a lower class subjects the whole to the higher rate. Persons knowingly concealing or enclosing matter of a higher class in that of a lower class, for the purpose of evading payment of the proper postage, are liable to a fine of not more than $100.

5. Private Express—Government monopoly.—The Post Office Department has an absolute monopoly over the transportation and delivery of letters and packets of letters by regular trips or at stated periods on all post routes, and such matter may not be transported and delivered on a contract or piece-work basis without violating the law unless enclosed in envelopes with embossed postage thereon, or with postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, by the sender, or with the metered indicia showing that the postage has been prepaid as prescribed by section 91.3 of the Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948. "Post routes" includes any letter-carrier route in a city, and all public roads and highways while kept up and maintained as such. The term "letter" includes matter which conveys information between the writer and the recipient upon which the recipient relies, acts, or refrains from acting, such as gas, electric, water and tax bills or other statements of account, orders for merchandise, etc. The Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948, sections 91.1 to 91.15 inclusive, should be consulted for information in this respect. If in doubt whether matter comes within the classification of letters or whether it may be lawfully transported and delivered other than by the Post Office Department unless postage is affixed, samples should be submitted to the postmaster for advice. Violations of the Private Express statutes should be reported to the Chief Post Office Inspector.

6. Secrecy of the mails.—Sealed mail while in the custody of the Post Office Department is accorded absolute secrecy. No person in the postal service (except those employed for that purpose in dead letter branches) is permitted to break or may permit to be broken the seal of any letter or other matter. (See secs. 36.8 and 41.13, P. L. & R., 1948.)

Postmasters and other postal employees shall not surrender mail matter upon the service of process of attachment, warrant, garnishment, or other legal process. A postmaster or other employee served with such process shall make answer to the court from which it issues, setting forth his official character and the fact that the matter in dispute came into his hands by virtue of his official authority. If, after such answer, the court directs the delivery, the postmaster shall request the suspension of the order until he can communicate with the Solicitor, in the case of ordinary domestic mail, the Bureau of Post Office Operations, Division of Registered, Insured and C. O. D. Mail, in the case of domestic registered, insured, or collect-on-delivery mail, and the Bureau of Transportation, Division of International Service, in the case of foreign mail. (See secs. 41.12 and 62.5, P. L. & R., 1948.) When a warrant has been issued, such process shall be submitted to the Department for advice with respect thereto.

FIRST-CLASS MATTER

7. Includes all matter wholly or partly in writing, whether sealed or unsealed, except manuscript copy accompanying proof sheets or corrected proof sheets of the same and the writing authorized by law to be placed upon matter of other classes. Matter sealed or otherwise closed against inspection is also of the first-class.

NOTE.—Typewriting and carbon copies thereof are the equivalent of handwriting and are classed as such in all cases.

8. Articles classified as first-class matter—(a) Written matter.—Letters, postal cards, post cards (private mailing cards), business reply cards, letters under cover of business reply envelopes or labels;

All letters irrespective of whether they are old or have previously passed through the mails sent singly or in bulk are first-class mail except that bulk parcels of letters, bills, statements, etc., prepared at a central office of a concern rendering service at some other place, each bearing proper postage at the first-class rate, sent to the post office at the latter place for local delivery and bulk parcels of unopened letters remained unopened to the same addressee are mailable at the fourth-class rates of postage;

Handwritten or typewritten matter and manifold (carbon) copies thereof;

Imitations or reproductions of handwritten or typewritten matter unless mailed at the post office window or other depository designated by the postmaster in a minimum number of 20 identical unsealed copies;

Manuscript or typewritten copy not accompanied with proof sheets thereof;

Autograph albums containing written matter;

Notes, including stenographic or shorthand notes, and notebooks or blank books containing written or typewritten entries.

(b) Matter partly in writing.—Blank printed forms filled out in writing or with amounts due, signatures or other matter written therein, e. g., notices, certificates, receipts and checks either canceled or uncanceled.

Printed price lists containing written figures changing individual items;

Bills or statements of account produced by any photographic or mechanical process unless presented in quantities of 20 or more identical copies;

Printed cards or letters bearing a written date, where the date is not the date of the card, but gives information as to when the sender will call, or deliver something otherwise referred to, or is the date when something will occur or is acknowledged to have been received, date of birth, etc.;

Printed cards or coupons which by having a signature attached are converted into personal communications such as receipts, orders for articles furnished by addressee, etc. (this does not apply to Christmas or similar greeting cards);

Visiting cards bearing written name (except single cards inclosed with third- or fourth-class matter and bearing the name of the sender);

Communications entirely in print—with the exception of name of sender—sent in identical terms by many persons to the same address.

(c) Sealed matter.—Sealed matter of any class, or matter so wrapped as not to be easily examined, except third- or fourth-class matter sealed subject to postal inspection as prescribed in articles 3 and 4, chapter VII; and seeds and other articles enclosed in sealed transparent envelopes under paragraph (e), section 35.6, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948;

Folders made of stiff paper, and those having many folds or pages, the entire inner surface of which cannot be examined except at the imminent risk of breaking the seal, are subject to the first-class rate of postage. No assurance of the postmaster at the office of mailing will prevent the collection of the higher rate of postage at the post office of delivery if the entire inner surface cannot be easily examined without danger of breaking the seal. The use of a single wire stitch is permissible.

9. Rates of postage on first-class matter.—(a) Written and sealed matter in general—3 cents for each ounce or fraction thereof;

(b) Postal cards—2 cents each, the price for which they are sold.

(c) Private mailing cards (post cards) conforming to the requirements for such cards—2 cents each.

(d) "Drop letters" and other first-class matter, when mailed at offices where letter-carrier service is not established, provided the addressees are not served by rural or star route carriers—2 cents for each ounce or fraction thereof;

(e) Letters, bills, statements, etc., prepared at a central office of a concern rendering service at some other place, presented for local delivery at the post office of such latter place, are acceptable if the postage on each piece is prepaid at the proper rate. The stamps used in payment of postage on such matter should be purchased at the post office of mailing.

Letters received by a postmaster, under cover (through the mails), with postage paid on the bulk package at the letter rate, cannot be distributed for local delivery or transmission in the mails unless each letter is prepaid at the proper first-class rate;

(f) Business reply cards and letters in business reply envelopes—1 cent in addition to the regular postage;

(g) A letter which, after a proper effort has been made to deliver it, is returned to the sender, may not be remailed without a new prepayment of postage, and it should be enclosed in a new envelope to secure prompt transmission.

10. The limit of weight of first-class matter is the same as fourth-class matter. (See art. 70.)

AIR MAIL—AIR PARCEL POST

11. Air-mail service links the important key cities of the United States, and overseas service by air is provided to the more important outlying possessions and foreign countries. Through schedules operate on such frequency and flying time as to result in substantial saving in time. Connecting service completes an air-mail system which greatly expedites delivery to practically all post offices.

12. Air-mail and air parcel-post rates.—The rates of postage in this article apply to mail transported by air in the domestic mails. (See arts. 2 and 3 of this chapter.)

(a) Letters and packages, not exceeding 8 ounces are chargeable with postage at the rate of 6 cents an ounce or fraction of an ounce. Air post and postal cards are acceptable at 4 cents each.

(b) Air Parcel Post.—Parcels exceeding 8 ounces, but not exceeding 70 pounds, which may include any class of mail matter intended for air transportation, are subject to the rates shown in the following schedule, according to zone location and weight. (See Art. 68 of this chapter relating to zoning.)

NOTE.—Order No. 50231 dated March 5, 1952, reduced the limit of size to 30 inches in length and girth combined and the limit of weight to 2 pounds for air parcel post addressed for delivery to military addressees overseas. Those limitations are applicable to air parcel post, other than official, addressed to A. P. O.'s in care of the postmasters at New York, San Francisco, Seattle, and New Orleans; and to Navy and Marine Corps units, including ships, addressed in care of the Fleet Post Offices at New York and San Francisco.

Exceptions to the air zone rates are as follows:

(a) Parcels weighing less than 10 pounds but exceeding 84 inches in length and girth combined are subject to the 10-pound rate.

(b) The eighth zone rates apply between the United States or its Territories and possessions and overseas A. P. O.'s and fleet post offices, as well as naval vessels addressed in care of Fleet Post Office, New York, N. Y., or San Francisco, Calif., and the Caroline, Marshall, and Mariana Islands of the Trust Territory, except between the United States proper and Puerto Rico or Virgin Islands where rates according to zone location will be applicable.

13. International.—The rates of postage on international air mail are set forth in Part II of the U. S. Official Postal Guide.

14. Payment of postage.—Postage on all air mail should be fully prepaid in order to expedite its handling. In general, when postage is deficient on matter weighing 8 ounces or less, if one full rate is prepaid, the mail is dispatched to destination as intended by the sender, the amount due being collected upon delivery.

Short-paid air parcels exceeding 8 ounces in weight are not dispatched by air but if practicable and no undue delay results, sender is requested to supply deficiency. Otherwise, if prepaid sufficiently for surface transportation parcels are so dispatched and endorsed "Not Air Mail" after crossing out any "Via Air" endorsements.

15. Special air-mail stamps are issued for the payment of postage on air mail, but ordinary stamps may be used. The use of air-mail stamps on other than air mail is not permitted, but air-mail stamps may be used to pay the fees on special delivery, registered, insured, or C. O. D. matter sent as air mail.

16. Registry, insured, C. O. D. and special delivery air mail.—Air mail may be registered, insured, or sent C. O. D. and special delivery upon payment of the fees prescribed for these services in addition to the air-mail postage. Domestic registered mail sent by air must be securely sealed and first-class matter sent C. O. D. by air must also be sealed.

The use of special-delivery service in addition to air mail provides prompt delivery at office of address and is recommended to expedite delivery in cases where arrival is scheduled for Saturday, Sunday, holiday, or week days after last delivery by mail carrier.

The fees for special-delivery service on air-mail letters or packages weighing 8 ounces or less are the same as those applicable to surface mail depending on the nature of the contents. Packages containing matter predominantly of the first-class require the special-delivery fees applicable to matter of that class, while those consisting mainly of matter of the second or third class are subject to the fees for these classes.

Air parcel post (parcels exceeding 8 ounces in weight) is subject to the regular special delivery fees according to the class of matter. The first-class special delivery fees will apply to sealed parcels of fourth-class matter which do not bear the prescribed inscription authorizing opening for postal inspection and to those parcels containing written matter which places them in the first-class category.

17. Articles which may be sent by air.—Any mailable matter except that liable to damage from freezing, not exceeding 70 pounds in weight and not exceeding 100 inches in length and girth combined, may be accepted for transmission via air. The prohibition against matter liable to freeze does not include cut flowers, queen bees, or those harmless live animals enumerated in section 35.25, Postal Laws and Regulations 1948, but day-old chicks, ducks, etc., and honeybees are prohibited.

18. Posting air mail.—In order to expedite dispatch air mail weighing 8 ounces or less should be deposited in a post office or station thereof or in such special letter boxes as are provided for the posting of air mail.

Parcels weighing over 8 ounces intended for transportation via air may not be deposited in street corner collection boxes. They should be presented at the post office or a postal station for mailing.

19. Air mail envelopes and cards.—

Envelopes of special design for air mail may be used for air mail only. Their use for mail which is not intended for transmission as air mail is not permissible. The public may use for air-mail letters envelopes of distinctive designs approved by the Post Office Department. Cards intended to be sent by air mail should bear on the address side one of the distinctive designs approved for air-mail envelopes.

20. Endorsement.—Air mail should be conspicuously endorsed by the sender in the space immediately below the stamps, above the address, "Via Air Mail," or "Air-Mail". All parcels sent via air parcel post should be prominently endorsed "Via Air Mail," "Via Air Parcel Post," or "Air Parcel Post," not only on the address side but on each end and side.

21. Forwarding and return.—Air mail weighing up to and including 8 ounces will be forwarded to the addressee by air when delivery will be expedited. No additional charge for postage will be made for such forwarding. Such matter when undeliverable will not be returned to sender via air but will be returned in the ordinary mails. Letters sent as ordinary mail may be forwarded by air upon payment of the difference between the postage originally paid thereon and the air-mail rate.

Air parcel post is subject to forwarding and return postage. Such articles will be promptly forwarded by air if a new address is available unless, of course, the matter bears instructions of the sender to forward by surface mail. If a new address is not available, air parcels will be promptly returned to the sender by surface means unless the piece bears specific instructions that it be returned by air. This action will be taken whether or not the matter bears a pledge of the sender to pay forwarding or return postage.

In case the matter is forwarded by air, postage for forwarding will be computed at the proper air parcel post zone rate. When air parcels are forwarded to addressee or returned to sender by surface means the "Air Parcel Post" endorsements will be crossed off and the piece rated for collection of the proper rate of postage according to the class of matter involved.

22. Air mail information.—A schedule of air-mail dispatches is displayed in the lobby of all post offices located on air-mail routes. Additional information may be obtained from the postmaster.

POSTAL CARDS (GOVERNMENT) AND POST CARDS (PRIVATE MAILING CARDS)

23. Postal cards are furnished by the Postal Service at the postage value represented by the stamp impressed thereon; single postal cards for domestic correspondence at 2 cents each, reply (double) postal cards at 4 cents each and air mail postal cards at 4 cents each.

24. Post cards manufactured by private persons, consisting of an unfolded piece of cardboard in quality and weight substantially like the Government postal card not exceeding in size approximately $3\frac{1}{16}$ by $5\frac{1}{16}$ inches, nor less than $2\frac{1}{4}$ by 4 inches, bearing either written or printed messages, are transmissible without cover in the domestic mails at the postage rate of 2 cents each and when sent by air at the rate of 4 cents each. The specifications for Government postal cards prescribe a thickness of not less than 0.0085 or more than 0.0095 of an inch and the paper must run uniform in thickness and as near 0.0090 as possible. The weight on a basis of 1,000 sheets, 22½ by 28½ inches in size, shall be 188 pounds.

25. International postal cards.—The United States international single and reply-paid postal cards should be used for correspondence with other countries.

26. Additions.—Government postal cards may bear written, printed, or other additions as follows:

(a) Addresses on postal cards may be either written, printed, or affixed thereto.

(b) Advertisements, illustrations, or writing may appear on the back of the card and on the left third of the face.

(c) The face of the card may be divided by a vertical line placed approximately one-third of the distance from the left end of the card; the space to the left of the line to be used for the message but the space to the right for the address only.

(d) Unauthorized additions to a postal card will subject it, when mailed, to postage at the letter rate. Samples of merchandise, novelties, printed circulars, etc. may not be attached to postal cards.

27. Advertisements and illustrations on private mailing cards may appear on the back and on the left half of the face. The right half of the face must be reserved for the address, postage stamps, postmark, and necessary postal endorsements.

28. Nonconforming cards, rate.—Cards bearing the words "Post Card" or "Private Mailing Card" which do not conform to the foregoing conditions are chargeable with the first-class letter rate.

29. Under cover, rate.—Cards mailed under cover of sealed envelopes (transparent or otherwise) are chargeable with postage at the first-class rate; if enclosed in unsealed envelopes, they are subject to postage at the first-class rate if wholly or partly in writing, or the third-class rate if entirely in print—the postage to be placed on the envelopes. Stamps affixed to matter enclosed in envelopes are not recognized in payment of postage thereon.

30. Reply or double postal cards.—Either half of a domestic reply postal card may be used separately. Such postal cards should be folded before mailing, and the initial half should be detached when the reply half is mailed for return. If the initial half of a double postal card is not detached when the reply half is mailed for return, the card is subject to postage according to the character of the message. The enclosure in a double postal card of unauthorized matter annuls its privileges as a postal card. When the reply portion is used primarily to cover up the message on the initial portion, double cards are subject to the letter rate.

31. Double or reply post cards each portion of which conforms in size, quality, etc., to the foregoing conditions, when sent for bonafide reply purposes, are subject to 2 cents postage, to be prepaid on the initial portion. The reply half, when detached and mailed, is also subject to 2 cents postage. The postage on the reply half need not be affixed thereto until it is detached from the initial half and mailed for return. The conditions pertaining to double postal cards, set forth in article 30 are also applicable to double post cards.

Such cards must be so prepared that the address on the reply portion is on the inside when the double card is mailed. When both the original mailing address of the double card and the address on the reply portion are exposed it causes confusion in the mails, and therefore cards folded in this manner are not mailable as double cards. Double or reply post cards must be folded before mailing, but it is not necessary to fasten the two portions together. When desired by the mailer, plain stickers or seals or a single wire stitch may be used to fasten the edges, provided they are so affixed that the inner folds of the cards can be readily examined. It is not permissible to use metal clips for this purpose. Enclosures are prohibited.

When the reply portion is used primarily to cover up the message on the initial portion, or the cards are used primarily to send statements of account or similar matter double cards are subject to the letter rate. In the case of dunning cards the edges should be fastened together.

32. Folded advertising cards, and other matter entirely in print, arranged with a detachable part for use as a post card, are mailable as third-class matter provided the initial portion is not designated as a post card; provided further, they are so folded that the address on the reply card is on the inside when originally mailed.

BUSINESS REPLY CARDS, ENVELOPES, AND LABELS

33. Persons desiring to distribute business reply cards and envelopes must make application therefor on Form 3614 to the postmaster at the office to which the cards or envelopes are to be returned, and await receipt of permit and instructions as to procedure. No fee is required to accompany such applications.

34. Business reply cards shall conform in size, form, and quality of paper stock to those prescribed in article 24 of this chapter. Such cards and also business reply envelopes which must be furnished by the user must bear on the address side in the manner prescribed in the permit the printed name and address of the person or concern to whom they are to be returned, together with the permit number and such other information as may be required. Business reply indicia may be printed on labels and certain small boxes.

35. The postage on business reply cards when collected on delivery, is 3 cents each. The postage on business reply envelopes and boxes and on nonconforming business reply cards is the first-class rate plus 1 cent additional for each article. When such cards and envelopes are prepared for return by air mail, the regular air mail rate plus 1 cent additional will be collected on delivery.

SECOND-CLASS MATTER

36. Second-class matter includes newspapers and periodicals which meet the requirements for second-class entry. Each publication must bear notice of its second-class entry. No limit of weight is prescribed for second-class matter mailed by publishers or registered news agents.

37. The general conditions for admission of a publication to the second-class are stated in section 34.20, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948, and include the following provisions:

(a) It must be regularly issued at stated intervals from a known office of publication, as frequently as four times a year, and bear a date of issue, each issue to be numbered consecutively;

(b) It must be formed of printed paper sheets, without board, cloth, leather, or other substantial binding;

(c) It must be originated and published for the dissemination of information of a public character, or devoted to literature, the sciences, arts, or some special industry;

(d) It must have a legitimate list of subscribers;

(e) It must not be designed primarily for advertising purposes, or for free circulation, or for circulation at nominal rates.

Additional special conditions for second-class entry of publications of benevolent or fraternal societies or orders, regularly incorporated institutions of learning, regularly established State institutions of learning, trades unions, strictly professional, literary, historical, or scientific societies, State boards of health, State conservation and fish and game agencies or departments, State boards or departments of public charities and corrections, and State departments of agriculture, and for the acceptance of foreign newspapers and other periodicals at the second-class postage rates, are stated in sections 34.21, 34.22, and 34.23, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948.

38. Admission of publications to the second-class.—Application for entry of a publication as second-class matter or for registry as a news agent, should be made through the postmaster to the Assistant Postmaster General, Division of Mail Classification on payment of the application fee. The fees for entry of a publication are graduated according to the circulation of the publication.

The final decision as to whether a publication is entitled to admission to the second-class, must be made by the Assistant Postmaster General, Bureau of Post Office Operations. Until this approval is given no mailings of a publication are accepted at the second-class rates of postage.

Copies of a publication may be mailed while an application for its second-class entry is pending under a deposit of money sufficient to cover postage at the regular third- or fourth-class rates, or the rate for books provided by section 34.65 (b), Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948, whichever is applicable, according to the physical characteristics of the publication. The postage on such mailings is computed on each separately addressed copy or package of unaddressed copies offered for mailing pending consideration of the application. If the publication is admitted as second-class matter the excess of the deposits over the second-class rates of postage is refunded.

39. Rates of postage on second-class matter.—Copies of publications which have been accorded second-class mailing privileges are subject to postage at the rates shown in articles 40 to 48 of this chapter.

40. Within the county of publication.—In no case, except where the free-in-county mailing privilege is applicable, shall the postage on each individually addressed copy be less than one-eighth of 1 cent.

(a) For delivery at office of mailing having city or village letter-carrier service:

(1) By carrier: (See also article 42 of this chapter.)

Weekly newspapers, 1 cent per pound.

Newspapers issued more often than weekly, 1 cent per copy.

Periodicals (all publications issued less frequently than weekly):

Copies weighing 2 ounces or less, 1 cent per copy.

Copies weighing over 2 ounces, any weight, 2 cents per copy.

(2) Through post-office boxes or general delivery, and for delivery by rural or star route carriers, 1 cent per pound.

(b) For delivery at offices having city or village letter-carrier service, other than the office of mailing, 1 cent per pound.

(c) For delivery at all offices not having city or village letter-carrier service:

(1) If publication is printed in whole or in part in the county, one copy to each subscriber residing within the county, free.

(2) If publication is not printed in whole or in part in the county, 1 cent per pound.

41. Outside the county of publication.—In no case shall the postage on each individually addressed copy be less than one-eighth of 1 cent. Where the total weight of any one edition or issue of a publication mailed to any one zone does not exceed 1 pound, the rate of postage is 1 cent for all the copies going to the same zone:

(a) All publications except those accepted at the special rate. The total postage computed at these rates and based on the bulk weight of each mailing shall be increased by 10 per centum, beginning on April 1, 1952; by an additional 10 per centum, based on these rates, beginning on April 1, 1953; and by an additional 10 per centum, based on these rates, beginning on April 1, 1954; except that these rates shall continue in effect with respect to any religious, educational, or scientific publication designed specifically for use in school classrooms or in religious instruction classes.

(1) Reading portion (also advertising portion when it does not exceed 5 per centum of the total space), 1½ cents per pound.

(2) Advertising portion when it exceeds 5 per centum of the total space:

Zone:	Rate per pound (cents)
First and second.....	1½
Third.....	2
Fourth.....	3
Fifth.....	4
Sixth.....	5
Seventh.....	6
Eighth.....	7

(b) Special rate publications: Issued by religious, educational, scientific, philanthropic, agricultural, labor, veterans' or fraternal organizations or associations not organized for profit and none of the net income of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual, when specifically authorized by the Department:

Reading and advertising portions, combined, 1½ cents per pound.

42. Per copy rates to headquarters.—The letter-carrier postage rates of 1 or 2 cents per copy stated in article 40 (a) (1) of this chapter also apply to copies of publications other than weeklies when mailed at the office of second-class entry for delivery by letter carriers at another post office where the headquarters or general business offices of the publisher are located, unless the postage chargeable at the pound rates from the office of mailing is higher, in which case such higher rates apply.

43. Transient second-class rate.—The rate of postage on copies of publications having second-class entry mailed by others than the publishers or authorized news agents, sample copies mailed by the publishers in excess of the 10 per centum allowance entitled to be sent at the pound rates, and copies mailed by the publishers to persons who may not be included in the required legitimate list of subscribers, shall be 2 cents for the first 2 ounces and 1 cent for each additional 2 ounces or fraction thereof, except when the postage at the rates prescribed for fourth-class matter is lower, in which case the latter rates shall apply, computed on each individually addressed copy or package of unaddressed copies, and not on the bulk weight of the copies and packages.

44. Places where domestic rates are applicable.—The domestic second-class rates of postage and conditions apply to copies addressed for local delivery, or for transmission from one place to another within the United States, or to or from or between the possessions of the United States, and to copies for transmission to or from the United States or its possessions and United States naval vessels; and to any other places where the United States Mail Service may be in operation, including bases in other countries and other places outside the continental United States served by Navy and Army-Air Force post offices. The zone rate applicable to the advertising portion from the place of mailing to the port of embarkation applies to copies addressed for delivery through Navy and Army-Air Force post offices.

45. Other countries.—(a) The pound rates applicable outside the county of publication apply to copies for the following countries: Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras (Republic of), Mexico, Morocco (Spanish Zone), Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Philippines (Republic of), Salvador (El), Spain (including Balearic Islands, Canary Islands, and the Spanish Offices in Northern Africa; also Andorra), Spanish Guinea, Spanish West Africa, Uruguay, and Venezuela the eighth zone rate being applicable to advertising portions of publications subject to the zone rates. The words "Postage Paid" must be placed, preferably by printing, in the upper right corner of the address side of the envelopes or wrappers in which the copies are mailed to these countries. The words shall be boxed or underscored with a heavy line. When a number of individually addressed copies are mailed in one envelope or wrapper addressed to one place, each copy must bear this inscription in order that the copies will not be treated as unpaid and rated with postage due upon their arrival at the country of address.

(b) For other countries, except Canada, the rate is $1\frac{1}{2}$ cents for each 2 ounces or fraction thereof.

46. Canada.—(a) On daily newspapers issued as frequently as six times a week and mailed to bona fide subscribers in Canada by publishers or registered news agents the pound rates applicable outside the county of publication apply, the eighth zone rate being applicable to advertising portions of publications subject to the zone rate. On publications issued less frequently than six times a week the rate is 1 cent for each 4 ounces or fraction thereof, calculated on the weight of each package. Separately addressed copies intended for delivery from the same post office may be enclosed under one wrapper addressed to such post office, the postage being affixed to or indicated on the outside wrapper.

(b) Copies of the Sunday issues of daily newspapers sent to subscribers in Canada who do not subscribe for the weekday issues and copies of such issues sent to news agents in excess of the number regularly sent during the weekdays are subject to the rate of 1 cent for each 4 ounces or fraction of 4 ounces.

47. Additional entry.—The 1-cent per pound rate and the free-in-county privilege stated in article 40 of this chapter do not apply to copies of publications mailed at additional entry offices outside the county of publication. Copies so mailed, including weeklies, are subject to the rates for matter addressed to points outside of the county of publication except that copies of publications other than weeklies addressed for local delivery by city or village letter carriers at additional entry offices take the per copy letter-carrier rates of 1 or 2 cents.

48. Rates to news agents.—The rate of 1 cent per pound stated in article 40 of this chapter applies to the publications mailed by a news agent only when the publications are published within the county in which the news agent is registered. All publications which are not published within the county where mailed by the news agent are chargeable with postage at the rates applicable outside the county of publication, except copies of publications other than weeklies which are subject to the per copy rates when addressed for local delivery by letter carriers.

49. Wrapping.—No newspapers shall be received to be conveyed by mail unless they are sufficiently dried and enclosed in proper wrappers.

Newspapers and periodicals shall be wrapped in such manner that the wrappers can be removed and replaced without destroying them or injuring their enclosures. When envelopes are used as wrappers they shall bear in the upper left corner of the address side the name and address of the publication, and in the upper right corner a notice of its entry as second-class matter. It is desirable that this information be printed on ordinary wrappers.

All copies which cannot be handled with facility, due to small size, should be enclosed in envelopes.

Paper used for wrapping should be plain white or manila.

The use of old newspapers or of colored papers as wrappers is to be avoided. Addresses on such wrappers are difficult to read by artificial light. This causes delay in distribution and delivery and is one of the causes of missending.

Care should be taken that paste does not get on the outside of wrappers, causing them to stick together.

Heavy magazines should be wrapped singly to insure receipt in good condition.

While they may be wrapped flat or rolled, it is preferred that they be wrapped flat. The singly wrapped copies for each office should be tied in bundles and each bundle addressed to the post office.

It is important that wrapping paper and twine used be strong enough for the purpose intended.

50. Folding.—All publications should be properly folded for separation and delivery. Postmasters shall request publishers and news agents to fold their publications to a size not larger than 9 by 12 inches when practicable.

Newspapers and light magazines should be folded. The best method is to fold to the size of an eighth of a newspaper page, or about 5 by 12 inches, wrap separately, and combine the separately wrapped copies for each post office in a bundle addressed to that post office. If not wrapped separately they should be folded to the size of a quarter of a newspaper page, and those for the same office either rolled or wrapped flat and addressed to the post office.

51. Addressing.—All publications should be addressed in a legible hand or plain type not smaller than 10 point. When several unwrapped copies for subscribers at the same post office are sent under one wrapper, each copy should bear the name and post-office address of the subscriber. The name of the post office and State should be the most prominent part of the address. The name of the addressee is of importance to the delivering postmaster only, while the name of the post office and State is most necessary to the work of distribution and handling throughout the journey from publisher to subscriber.

Addresses should be written or printed with black ink, or ink of some other strongly contrasting color, and if placed on address labels, wrappers, or envelopes, these should be of plain white or manila paper or paper of a very light tint. Sufficient space must in all cases be left for placing the address and such necessary postal endorsements as it may be necessary to place on the copies.

The printing of the addresses by any process which produces blurred or otherwise indistinct impressions should be discouraged. Type used in printing addresses should be cleaned regularly in order to make a legible imprint.

Addresses should never be written with pencil since such addresses upon any kind of paper soon grow dim or are effaced by abrasion.

If the Dick system or any similar method of addressing is used the strips should be printed with black ink on white or yellow paper.

Publishers using the "stencil" method of addressing must use a sufficient quantity of ink to produce legible impressions. Poorly stenciled addresses result in delay and nondelivery and cause unjust complaint against the Postal Service.

When the address is placed on the wrapper it should appear on the flat side and never on the fold. If it is placed on the copy it should be in such a position as to be easily and rapidly read by distributors.

Individually addressed, unfolded periodicals mailed in bundles without separate wrappers should have the addresses placed upside down in the lower right corner of the front cover page, unobstructed by any other matter appearing near thereto. This manner of addressing the copies facilitates their handling. The next best position on periodicals is lengthwise along the bound edge, near the top of the publication.

Individually addressed, unwrapped, folded newspapers, and periodicals mailed in bundles to a post office should have the addresses at the top of the exposed portion of the copies and to the left of the last fold; that is, in the upper left corner of the publication when grasped with the right hand along the folded edge.

52. Presentation for mailing.—Publishers are required to make up direct packages if there are 5 or more individually addressed copies for a post office; or if there are more than 30 pieces and weighing 15 pounds or more, such pieces must be placed in a separate sack labeled to the office of address.

53. Publications not desired.—Periodical publications not desired may be refused and not removed from the post office or they may be returned to the postmaster endorsed "Refused." The Post Office Department does not determine questions regarding the liability of a subscriber for the subscription price of a publication.

54. Change of address.—A subscriber to a publication should promptly notify the publisher of any change in his address.

CONTROLLED CIRCULATION PUBLICATIONS

55. Publications containing 24 pages or more issued at regular intervals of four or more times a year, 25 per centum or more of whose pages are devoted to text or reading matter and not more than 75 per centum to advertising matter, which are circulated free or mainly free, may, upon authorization by the Postmaster General and under such regulations as he may prescribe, be accepted for mailing at the postage rate of 10 cents a pound.

or fraction thereof, computed on the entire bulk mailed at one time, but not less than 1 cent per piece, provided the copies of such publications are presented for mailing made up according to States, cities, and routes as directed by the Postmaster General: Provided, That publications owned and controlled by one or several individuals or business concerns and conducted as an auxiliary to and essentially for the advancement of the main business or calling of those who own or control them shall not be accepted under this section.

THIRD CLASS MATTER

56. Third-class matter embraces mailable matter not embraced in the first and second classes, when sent in packages weighing up to and including 8 ounces such as printed matter not having the nature of an actual personal correspondence, proof-sheets, manuscript copy accompanying proofsheets, matter in point print or raised characters used by the blind, drawings, photographs, merchandise, hotel and steamship room keys, seeds, bulbs, cuttings, roots, scions, and plants. The same matter when sent in parcels exceeding 8 ounces in weight is embraced in fourth-class or parcel-post mail.

57. Rates of postage.—The rates of postage on third-class matter are as follows:

	Regular rate	Bulk rate
Miscellaneous printed matter, circulars, and other matter not specially excepted.	2 cents for the first 2 ounces or fraction thereof plus 1 cent for each additional ounce or fraction thereof.	14 cents per pound, with a minimum of $1\frac{1}{2}$ cents per piece. ¹
Books (including catalogs) having 24 or more pages (at least 22 of which are printed), seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, scions, and plants. ²	2 cents for the first 2 ounces and $1\frac{1}{2}$ cents for each additional 2 ounces or fraction thereof. ¹	10 cents per pound, with a minimum of $1\frac{1}{2}$ cents per piece. ²

² The minimum per piece rate for the organizations named in footnote ¹ is 1 cent.

³ There may be enclosed with a printed book or catalog of 24 pages or more mailed at these rates—

(a) A single reply envelope or a reply post card, or both.

(b) A single order form.

(c) A loose printed circular or circular letter consisting of a single sheet not larger (when unfolded) than approximately the size of a page of the book or catalog it accompanies.

Only such matter may appear on the reply envelope, post card, order form, circular, or circular letter as obviously relates directly and exclusively to the book or catalog, and when such relation is apparent at a glance. Under this liberal construction a short printed circular merely calling attention to the book or catalog may be enclosed without affecting the rate.

Such loose enclosures may not bear any extraneous matter in the nature of a general sales talk or matter going into detail or quoting at length what the book or catalog itself sets forth, and may not contain any additional or special offers which are not featured in the book or catalog itself. A printed price list not exceeding the size of a page of the catalog and listing only articles featured in the catalog is a permissible enclosure at the third-class book rate, provided no other circular is enclosed. If prices are shown in the catalog itself, different prices or discounts with respect to the same articles would not be permissible on the price list.

The enclosure with a book or catalog of any loose printed matter not conforming to the conditions above mentioned will subject the entire package to postage at the regular third-class rate. However, if a circular or other printed matter is securely attached to a book or catalog by means of pasting, stitching, or stapling so that it will form a real, integral part of the book or catalog, it will not affect the mailable of the latter at the third-class book rate. The fastening of an enclosure with a mere dab of paste is not sufficient to make it an integral part of the book or catalog. It should be securely pasted along the entire bound edge of the book or catalog, or fastened with at least two stitches or staples, or one of the stitches comprising the original binding. If such attached sheet is larger than the regular pages of the book or catalog with which it is inserted, the sheet should be folded to approximately the same size as the book or catalog.

Samples of cloth or other merchandise may not be attached to or enclosed with a book or catalog weighing 8 ounces or less mailed at the third-class book rate provided for books and catalogs, but will subject the entire package to postage at the regular third-class rate.

ODD SIZE OR FORM

Pieces or packages of third-class matter, when of such size or form as to prevent ready facing and tying in bundles and requiring individual distributing throughout, are subject to a minimum charge of 3 cents each. Among the articles to which the 3-cent minimum charge shall apply are those exceeding 9 inches in width or 12 inches in length; those smaller than $2\frac{3}{4}$ inches in width or less than 4 inches in length; round, cylindrical, or other irregularly shaped pieces or packages, and those with contents forming a hump or which are otherwise so uneven as to prevent stacking or tying in packages; also articles in bags or which are addressed by means of tags.

58. Bulk rate.—The bulk rates are applicable to specially authorized mailings of identical pieces in bulk lots amounting to 20 pounds or 200 pieces mailed at one time. Postage is paid in money under permit (metered or nonmetered) or by means of pre-cancelled stamps or stamped envelopes.

Persons or firms desiring the privilege of mailing third-class matter at bulk rates should make application to the postmaster stating the method under which they desire to mail the matter. Regardless of the method of mailing, a bulk mailing fee of $10 is required for each calendar year.

To facilitate the handling of such matter in the mails, the mailer must in all cases face the matter and separate and tie out mailings into directs for post offices whenever there are as many as 10 pieces for any post office in any mailing and separate and tie out into properly labeled State packages whenever there are as many as 10 pieces for any State. Mailings offered without the separations as outlined will be refused.

59. Circulars.—A circular is a printed letter sent in identical terms to several persons. It may bear a written, typewritten, or hand-stamped date, name and address of person addressed and of the sender, and corrections of mere typographical errors. When a name (except that of the addressee or sender), date (other than that of the circular), or anything else is handwritten or typewritten in the body of a circular for any other reason than to correct a genuine typographical error, the circular is subject to postage at the first-class (letter) rate, whether sealed or unsealed.

60. Reproductions or imitations of handwriting and typewriting obtained by means of the printing press, mimeograph, multigraph, or similar mechanical process are treated as third- or fourth-class matter provided they are mailed at the post office window or other depository designated by the postmaster in a minimum number of 20 identical unsealed copies either separately or in a bulk package; provided further, such reproductions or imitations of handwriting or typewriting clearly recognizable as such and which are not in the form of circular letters but bound in pamphlet or book form consisting of not less than five sheets of reproduced matter and fastened with at least two wire stitches or staples, are also treated as third- or fourth-class matter regardless of the number of copies mailed. When not mailed in accordance with these conditions, they are subject to the first-class rate.

61. Hand-stamped imprints on third-class matter do not affect its classification except when the added matter is in itself personal or converts the original matter into a personal communication; in the latter case, however, the mailing at one time at the post-office window or other depository designated by the postmaster of not less than 20 identical, unsealed copies will be sufficient evidence of impersonal character to entitle such matter to the third-class rate.

62. Corrections in proof sheets include the alteration of the text and insertion of new matter, as well as the correction of typographical and other errors; include also marginal instructions to the printer necessary to the correction of the matter or its proper appearance in print. Part of an article may be entirely rewritten if that is necessary for correction. Corrections should be upon the margin of or attached to the proof sheets. Manuscript of one article may not be enclosed with proof sheets or corrected proof sheets of another except at the first-class rate.

FOURTH-CLASS MATTER (DOMESTIC PARCEL POST)

63. Fourth-class matter (domestic parcel post) embraces mailable matter not included in the first or second class, exceeding 8 ounces but not exceeding the maximum weight and size limitations prescribed in article 70 of this chapter, nor in form or kind likely to injure the person of any postal employee or damage mail equipment or other mail matter and not of a character perishable within a period reasonably required for transportation and delivery.

64. Extent and usefulness of parcel post.—The domestic parcel post offers a convenient, quick, and efficient means of transporting mailable parcels to any post office in the United States or its possessions. The service reaches more places than any other transportation agency. Postage rates which are uniform within the limits of broad zones based on the service rendered (weight and distance carried) are provided. Parcels may be insured against loss or damage and may be sent C. O. D., special delivery, or special handling.

65. Rates of postage on fourth-class matter which must be fully prepaid are charged by the pound, according to distance or zone, a fraction of a pound being computed as a full pound. A fraction of a cent in the total amount of postage on any parcel is counted as a full cent.

The schedule of fourth-class rates is as follows:

[Effective Oct. 1, 1953]

Zone	First pound (cents)	Additional pounds (cents)
Local.....	18	1.45
1 and 2.....	23	3.95
3.....	23	5.15
5.....	26	9.25
7.....	30	15.2
8.....	32	18.05

NOTE—The local rate applies to parcels mailed:

- (1) At any post office for local delivery at such office.
- (2) At any city letter-carrier office, or at any point within its delivery limits, for delivery by carriers from that office.
- (3) At any post office from which a rural route starts, for delivery on such route, or when mailed at any point on a rural route for delivery at any other point thereon, or at the office from which the route starts, or for delivery on any other rural route starting from the same office.

Exceptions

(a) In the first or second zone, where the distance by the shortest regular practicable mail route is 300 miles or more, the rate is the same as for the third zone.

(b) Parcels weighing less than 10 pounds measuring over 84 inches, but not more than 100 inches in length and girth combined, are subject to a minimum charge equal to that for a 10-pound parcel for the zone to which addressed.

66. The rate of postage on gold coin, gold bullion, and gold dust offered for mailing between any two points in Alaska, or between any point in Alaska and any point in the United States or its possessions, is 2 cents an ounce or fraction thereof, regardless of distance. 68. Zones and unit numbers.—For parcel-post purposes the United States is divided into units of 30 minutes of latitude and longitude which form the basis of eight postal zones. The number of the unit in which each office is located (a branch office or station being in the same unit as the main office) is shown after the name of the office in the State list of this Guide, except those in Canal Zone, Canton Island, Guam, the Samoan Islands, Wake Island and islands of the Trust Territory of the Pacific. Additions and changes in unit numbers appear in the quarterly supplements to the Postal Guide. A zone key prepared for each unit is available for use in determining the zone of every other unit therefrom.

69. How to ascertain parcel-post zone from one post office to another.—First, refer to the State List of Post Offices in this Guide, for the name of the post office to which the parcel is to be mailed. At the right of the name is given the number of the parcel-post unit in which such post office is located.

Second, find this number (or the group including it) in the zone key for the post office from which the parcel is to be mailed. The figure in the column opposite the line containing the number is the parcel-post zone between the two offices.

Zone keys may be obtained at the local post office or from the Bureau of Facilities, Division of Supplies, Equipment and Supplies Section, Washington 25, D. C.

(a) Hawaiian Islands, Canal Zone, etc.—The eighth zone rates apply (1) between the United States proper and the Hawaiian Islands; (2) between Hawaii and Alaska; (3) between the United States and the Canal Zone; (4) to, from, or between Tutuila, Manua, and the other islands of the Samoan group east of longitude 171° west Greenwich, and the United States or its other possessions; (5) to, from, or between Canton Island, Guam, Wake Island, Caroline, Marshall, and Mariana Islands under Government of the Trust Territory, and the United States or its other possessions, except between the United States proper and Puerto Rico or Virgin Islands where rates according to zone location are applicable.

(c) Mails to Alaska.—Previous restrictions on Alaska mails have been removed. Mail may be dispatched to any office in Alaska at all times where mail service is authorized or designated.

Surface mails for Alaska are dispatched from Seattle, Wash. Air mail for Alaska is dispatched from Minneapolis, Minn., and Seattle, Wash.

During the winter season (from about November 1 to about April 1), due to the inadequacy of surface transportation, most of the mails are carried by plane between points in Alaska. It is suggested, therefore, in order to obtain the most expeditious service to offices in Alaska, that air mail postage be affixed to all mail dispatched, including parcel post, during the winter season.

70. Limits of Weight and Size.

(a) Parcels mailed at a first-class post office for delivery at another first-class post office (in continental United States only):

(1) Limit of Weight.—40 pounds, local first and second zones; 20 pounds, third through eighth zones.

(2) Limit of Size.—72 inches length and girth combined.

Exceptions.—Parcels mailed on, or addressed for delivery on, a rural or star route, or parcels containing baby fowl, live plants, trees, shrubs, agricultural commodities (not including manufactured products thereof), or books (see art. 82), or Braille writers, sound reproducers and other appliances for the blind, are subject to limits of size and weight prescribed in (b) below.

(b) Parcels mailed at, or addressed for delivery to, any second-, third-, or fourth-class post office, or mailed to or from any Army-Air Force or Fleet Post Office, or to or from any Territory or possession of the United States, including the Canal Zone and Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands:

(1) Limit of weight.—70 pounds.

(2) Limit of size.—100 inches length and girth combined.

In measuring a parcel the greatest distance in a straight line between the ends (but not around the parcel) is taken as the length, while the distance around the parcel at its thickest part is taken as its girth. Two or more pieces or packages of fourth-class matter must, in order to be mailable as a single parcel, be of approximately the same size or shape or constitute parts of one article, and be securely tied, wrapped, or otherwise firmly fastened together.

71. Return address required.—A parcel of fourth-class matter will not be accepted for mailing unless it bears the name and address of the sender, which should be preceded with the word "From."

72. Place of mailing.—Parcels of fourth-class matter must be mailed at a post office, branch post office, named, numbered, or lettered station, or delivered to a rural or other carrier duly authorized to receive such matter. Fourth-class matter cannot be mailed at railway post office cars.

73. Nursery stock, including all field grown florists' stock, trees, shrubs, vines, cuttings, grafts, scions, buds, fruit pits, and other seeds of fruit and ornamental trees or shrubs, and other plants and plant products for propagation, except field, vegetable, and flower seeds, bedding plants, and other herbaceous plants, bulbs, and roots, may be admitted to the mails only when accompanied with a certificate from a State or Government inspector to the effect that the nursery or premises from which such stock is shipped has been inspected within a year and found free from injurious insects and plant diseases, and the parcel containing such stock is plainly marked to show the nature of the contents and the name and address of the sender.

(NOTE.—For packing requirements of certain bare root nursery stock, see art. 48½, ch. IV.)

74. Plant quarantines applying to the continental United States.—When any State or area is quarantined by order of the Secretary of Agriculture, under authority of the Plant Quarantine Act, or by an authorized State plant pest official cooperating with the Secretary of Agriculture, on account of a plant disease or insect infestation, the mailing of plants, plant products, or other articles covered by such quarantine or regulatory order from such State or area into or through any other State or area is subject to the restrictions imposed by such order. Fruits and vegetables in the natural or raw state from Puerto Rico and fruits and vegetables in the natural or raw state, peel of fruits of all citrus and citrus relatives, certain cut flowers, rice straw, and mango seeds from Hawaii are prohibited from moving into or through any other State, Territory, or District of the United States; except that certificates may be issued by Federal plant quarantine inspectors for the shipment from Hawaii of specified fruits and vegetables on special determination in each case (Quarantine No. 13) and, for shipment from Puerto Rico, of grapefruit, oranges, and other citrus fruits, pineapples, bananas, plantains, avocados, dasheens, sweet corn on cob, and certain other articles, on special determination in each case (Quarantine No. 58). The regulations do not however apply to the shipment from Puerto Rico of coconuts either in, or free from, the husk when shipped through the mails without wrapping or packing as individual parcels. Federal permits are required for the shipment from Hawaii and Puerto Rico of cotton, cottonmill waste, and cottonseed cake, meal, and other cottonseed products other than oil, except that samples of raw or unmanufactured ginned cotton, including cottonmill waste, and samples of cottonseed cake and meal may be shipped by parcel post when the parcels are securely wrapped to prevent leakage and are conspicuously addressed to the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine at Hoboken, N. J., San Francisco, Calif., or Seattle, Wash., with the name and address of the ultimate addressee indicated in the lower left corner. Upon arrival of such parcels at the designated offices of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine they will be examined and fumigated and forwarded to the ultimate addressee under the original postage (Quarantine No. 47).

76. Plant material from Tutuila, Manua, and the Canal Zone moving to the continental United States, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico is subject to the plant quarantines that affect the importation of plant material from foreign countries.

77. Terminal inspection is required of plants and plant products addressed to Arizona, Arkansas, California, District of Columbia, Florida, Hawaii, Idaho, Minnesota, Mississippi, Montana, Oregon, Puerto Rico, Utah, and Washington. All parcels addressed to the States named must be plainly marked on the outside to show the exact nature of their contents.

Three methods of paying postage therefor are provided:

(a) The parcels may, upon payment of postage therefor, be forwarded by the postmaster at the post office of their destination to the proper State official at the nearest place where plant inspection is maintained, where, after inspection and passing and the payment of return postage therefor, they shall be returned to the post office of address and delivered to the addressee.

(b) Or, if the addressee so desires, he may have the parcels addressed to himself in care of a State plant inspector, arranging with the inspector to forward the parcels, after inspection and passing, to the addressee upon payment of the forwarding postage therefor which shall be furnished to the inspector by the addressee.

(c) Or the addressee may have the sender place a pledge to pay the forwarding postage on the parcels, addressed in care of a plant inspector, in which case they shall, after inspection and passing, be forwarded rated with the forwarding postage, such postage to be collected from the addressee upon delivery of the parcels.

In addition to the above-described methods of handling, arrangements have also been made whereby the shipper may at his own instance address the parcels to the addressee in care of a State plant inspector at an established terminal inspection point. When so addressed at the instance of the mailer, he shall place on the parcels immediately below the return address his pledge guaranteeing payment of forwarding postage, such postage to be collected upon delivery to the addressee as provided by paragraph (d), section 43.12, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948. Parcels so sent shall be labeled as follows:

"Shipped for (or on a/c)

W. H. Jones,
Garfield, Utah.

From:

John Doe Nurseries,
Shenandoah, Iowa.

Forwarding Postage Guaranteed.

To:

W. H. Jones,
c/o State Plant Inspector,
Salt Lake City, Utah.

When forwarding parcels under the latter arrangement, the inspector shall first cross out "c/o State Plant Inspector," and the name of the post office at the point of inspection appearing in the original address, and insert the name of the post office to which the parcels are to be forwarded. After endorsing the parcels to show that the contents have been inspected and passed, the inspector will return them to the postmaster who will rate the same with the necessary forwarding postage and dispatch them to the office of ultimate address, the additional postage to be collected from the addressee upon delivery to him.

It is essential in following this arrangement that the shippers have their parcels directed to the State inspector at an inspection point located to the best advantage with respect to the post office of final address, thus facilitating onward dispatch and delivery.

80. Sender's receipt or certificate of mailing.—Upon request and payment of 1 cent for each piece of ordinary mail of any class, the sender will be furnished a receipt or certificate of mailing. CATALOGS

81. Individually addressed catalogs and similar printed advertising matter in bound form, consisting of 24 or more pages, at least 22 of which are printed, and not exceeding 10 pounds in weight, are accepted for mailing at special rates. The rates of postage on catalogs are:

EXCEPTION

(a) In the first or second zone, where the distance by the shortest regular practicable mail route is 300 miles or more, the rate is the same as for the third zone.

These rates apply only to the matter referred to when in bound form consisting of 24 or more pages, at least 22 of which are printed, and not exceeding 10 pounds in weight, each piece being individually addressed. These rates do not apply to bulk parcels containing a number of pieces sent to one address, nor to packages weighing 8 ounces or less, that is, third-class matter.

It is permissible to include with catalogs mailed at these rates one or more order forms, reply envelopes or circulars. Agents' packages or salesmen's outfits may contain, in addition to the catalog and loose enclosures mentioned above, printed advertising such as blotters, illustrated display sheets, posters, dealers' cards, and similar matter, but only one of each is permitted. The additional loose enclosures should form only a minimum portion of the contents.

Matter mailed at these rates should be clearly endorsed "Sec. 34.77, P. L. & R." in order to distinguish it from other fourth-class mail and prevent rating it with deficient postage at the regular fourth-class rate.

BOOKS

82. Books containing 24 pages or more, at least 22 of which are printed and consisting wholly of reading matter or reading matter with incidental blank spaces for students' notations and containing no advertising matter other than incidental announcements of books, may be sent at the postage rate of 8 cents for the first pound or fraction thereof and 4 cents for each additional pound or fraction thereof when in parcels not exceeding 70 pounds in weight.

Permissible Enclosures: The following are permissible enclosures with books mailed at the special book rate:

A reply envelope, post card, a single order form, and a single sheet not larger than approximately the size of a page, relating exclusively to the book with which enclosed. An invoice showing the price, etc., of the book may also be enclosed.

Since the law provides that books mailed at this special rate may contain incidental announcements of books, such announcements, whether appearing in the books themselves or in the form of loose circular enclosures not weighing in excess of one and one-third ounces, will be permissible in addition to the enclosures described in the preceding paragraph, without affecting the postage chargeable at that rate, such postage, of course, to be computed on the full weight of each parcel. However, loose enclosures of this kind weighing in excess of one and one-third ounces and other circulars or printed matter such as folders, pamphlets, calendars, catalogs, etc., which would not otherwise be permissible, may be enclosed in parcels of books, provided a permit is obtained and postage on such enclosures is paid at the third-class rate of 2 cents for the first 2 ounces or fraction thereof, plus 1 cent for each additional ounce or fraction thereof, in addition to the postage on the books themselves. In authorizing these enclosures, it is contemplated that they shall be merely incidental, in no case exceeding 8 ounces. Each patron desiring to mail such enclosures with books should obtain a permit from his postmaster for this privilege.

Sixteen-millimeter films and 16-millimeter film catalogs.—Sixteen-millimeter films and 16-millimeter film catalogs may be mailed at the rate of 8 cents for the first pound or fraction thereof and 4 cents for each additional pound or fraction thereof except when sent to commercial theaters. The films shall be positive prints in final processed form, prepared for viewing. Each parcel mailed under this provision shall be clearly endorsed by the sender "Sec. 34.84 (h), P. L. & R."

Library Books consisting wholly of reading matter and containing no advertising other than incidental announcements of books, when sent by authorized public libraries, organizations, or associations not organized for profit (see sec. 34.83, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948), as a service to other libraries, or as a loan to readers, or when returned by the latter libraries or readers, are subject to the special rate of 4 cents for the first pound or fraction thereof and 1 cent for each additional pound or fraction thereof, when addressed to any point within the first, second or third zone, or within the State in which mailed.

83. Public Library books, otherwise mailable as parcel-post matter, may bear thereon or therein in writing, or by means of a hand stamp, the shelf number, date of donation or acquisition (or both), or any mark of designation which may be reasonably construed as an inscription in the limited sense of a permanent library record placed thereon by the librarian and in that connection only.

Sixteen-millimeter films, filmstrips and similar materials.—Sixteen-millimeter films, filmstrips, transparencies and slides for projection, microfilms, sound recordings and catalogs of such materials may also be mailed at the rate of 4 cents for the first pound or fraction thereof and 1 cent for each additional pound or fraction thereof when sent to or from (a) schools, colleges, universities, or public libraries, and (b) religious, educational, scientific, philanthropic, agricultural, labor, veterans' or fraternal organizations or associations not organized for profit and none of the net income of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual. The films, slides, and transparencies referred to herein shall be positive prints in final processed form for viewing. This special rate applies only to parcels of such materials addressed for local delivery, for delivery in the first, second, or third zone or within the State in which mailed. Each parcel mailed at this rate must be clearly endorsed by the sender "Sec. 34.83 (e), P. L. & R." In every case the parcel shall show the sender or the addressee to be a school, college, university, public library or a nonprofit religious, educational, scientific, philanthropic, agricultural, labor, veterans' or fraternal organization or association.

MATTER FOR THE BLIND

84. Letters and reading matter written in point print or raised characters or on sound reproduction records, reproducers therefor, Braille writers and other appliances for the blind, are transmissible in the mails under certain conditions at special rates, as set forth in sections 34.70, 37.22, 37.23, 37.24, 37.25, and 37.26, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948.

85. Rates of postage on matter for the blind.—Letters when sent unsealed are transmitted through the mails as third-class matter.

Reading matter containing no advertising or other matter sent by public institutions or libraries as a loan to blind readers in unsealed packages not exceeding 15 pounds and such matter being returned—transmitted free.

Regularly issued publications containing no advertising and for which no subscription fee is charged—transmitted free.

Volumes of Holy Scriptures furnished a blind person without charge by an organization or institution not conducted for private profit—transmitted free.

Volumes of Holy Scriptures, and regularly issued reading matter furnished by an institution or organization not conducted for private profit, to a blind person at a price not greater than the cost thereof—1 cent per pound.

OFFICIAL MAIL MATTER

(For detailed regulations relating to franked and official matter, see Sections 37.1 to 37.21, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948)

86. Mail matter transmitted under the penalty and franking privileges consists of—

(b) Matter sent by Congress under the franking privilege;

(c) Reports, bulletins, and correspondence relating to agriculture sent by State agricultural colleges and experiment stations;

(For list of countries see Part II of the Postal Guide.)

(e) Copyright matter; and

(f) Matter sent by the widows of former Presidents of the United States under their special frank.

87. Places to which penalty and franked matter is transmissible.—Any article entitled to transmission in the domestic mails of the United States, either in a "penalty" envelope or under a duly authorized "frank" shall be entitled to transmission in the mails between places in any possession of the United States, from one to another of such possessions, from the United States to such possessions, and from such possessions to the United States; also from the United States to Bolivia, Canada, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras (Republic of), Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Salvador (El), Uruguay, and Venezuela.

Official matter sent by air mail is chargeable with postage at the air-mail rates, except in the case of urgent official communications of the Postal Service only.

88. Copyright.—Matter for copyright deposited with a postmaster for transmission to the Register of Copyrights, Washington, D. C., will be accepted for mailing free of postage; and when requested, a receipt therefor will be given on a form furnished by the sender. Such matter, however, may not be sent by registered mail without prepayment of the registry fee (sec. 37.21, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948).

MAIL SERVICE FOR THE ARMED FORCES OF THE UNITED STATES

89. Conditions governing mail for Army or Air Force personnel overseas—

UNMAILABLE MATTER

1. General.—(a) All matter illegibly, incorrectly or insufficiently addressed.
- (b) First-class matter not prepaid one full rate—3 cents—and all other matter not fully prepaid, except business reply cards and letters in business reply envelopes mailed under the provisions of section 34.9, and hotel and steamship keys under paragraph (d), section 34.65, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948.
- (c) All matter exceeding the limit of weight or size prescribed by law.
- (d) Game killed or offered for mailing in violation of law.
- (e) Meat and meat-food products of cattle, sheep, swine, goats, and horses, presented without the required certificate of inspection or exemption.
- (f) Plants and plant products not accompanied with certificate required or sent in violation of Federal or State law.
- (g) Intoxicating liquor.
2. (a) Obscene matter, contraceptives.—All obscene, lowd, lascivious, or filthy matter and every article or thing designed, adapted, or intended for preventing conception or producing abortion, or for any indecent or immoral use. (Section 36.2, P. L. & R., 1948.)
- (b) Arson, murder, or assassination.—All matter of a character tending to incite arson, murder, or assassination. (Section 36.2, P. L. & R., 1948, last paragraph.)

3. Libelous, defamatory, obscene matter on envelopes, post cards, etc.

(a) Section 36.4, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948, declares unmailable all matter upon the envelope or outside cover or wrapper of which, or any postal card upon which, any delineations, epithets, terms, or language of an indecent, lewd, lascivious, obscene, libelous, scurrilous, defamatory, or threatening character, or calculated by the terms or manner or style of display and obviously intended to reflect injuriously upon the character or conduct of another, may be written or printed or otherwise impressed or apparent.

(b) The Department has ruled that the law prohibiting delineations, epithets, terms, or language calculated by the terms or manner or style of display and obviously intended to reflect injuriously upon the character or conduct of another, makes unmailable cards by which it appears that the addressee is being dunned to effect payment of an account in such manner as to reflect upon the debtor for his failure to pay. This does not include cards that bear respectful requests for the settlement of accounts, or that give notice when an account, paper, assessment, taxes, gas bill, etc., will be due, and such cards are regarded as mailable. The provision of this law . . . against matter of a "threatening character" is held by the Department to cover and make unmailable cards that threaten the bringing of suits or legal proceedings if debts, accounts, etc., are not paid. This does not include cards that bear notice of assessment of fraternal . . . and other organizations which contain a respectful reference to the rules of such organization that failure to pay such assessment will cause the member to be suspended or that his certificate will become void.

(c) It should be carefully noted that this section does not apply to matter that is under cover.

4. Lottery and fraud.—Matter concerning any lottery or so-called gift enterprise, or concerning schemes devised for the purpose of obtaining money or property under false pretenses, is unmailable. Certain types of endless chain schemes, involving the sending and receiving of money or other thing of value, are in violation of the postal lottery and fraud statutes. Any announcement of a lottery, regardless of whether or not it contains full details of the manner in which the scheme operates, is prohibited mailing.

5. Firearms.—Pistols, revolvers, and other firearms capable of being concealed on the person, with certain exceptions. See article 33.

6. Foreign divorces.—All solicitations for the procurement of divorces in foreign countries.

7. Seditious or treasonable matter.—See sec. 36.5, P. L. & R., 1948.

8. Matter of harmful nature.

(a) (1) Post cards, postal cards, and envelopes, bearing particles of glass, metal, mica, sand, tinsel, or other similar substances, are unmailable, except when enclosed in envelopes tightly sealed to prevent the escape of such particles, or when treated in such manner as will prevent the objectionable substance from being rubbed off.

(2) Materials composed of fine pliable glass fibers such as fiberglass must be contained in tightly sealed packages or envelopes which will prevent escape of the tiny glass lint particles, and which are free from the objectionable lint at time of mailing. These mailings must bear return postage guarantee if not sent first class.

(b) Poisonous animals, insects, and reptiles.

(c) Matter liable to destroy, deface, or otherwise damage the contents of the mail bags or harm the person of anyone engaged in the postal service, such as caustic poisons (acids and alkalis), oxidizing materials, or flammable solids with ignition point under 250° F., or which are likely under conditions incident to transportation to cause fires through friction, through absorption of moisture, through spontaneous chemical changes or as a result of retained heat from the manufacturing or processing; explosives or containers previously used for shipping high explosives having a liquid ingredient (such as dynamite), ammunition; fireworks; highly flammable liquids or substances with flash point under 20° F. (Tag. closed toster); radioactive materials except as provided in article 37; matches; or articles exhaling a bad odor.

(d) The matter listed hereinafter in this article is classed as nonmailable. The fact that certain matter is not listed does not signify that it is mailable, as all matter which is outwardly or of its own force dangerous or injurious to life, health or property is classed as nonmailable under section 35.13, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948. It should also be understood that while some chemicals in pure form are nonmailable, such chemicals when present in a solvent or otherwise diluted, may be mailable in certain concentrations and in specified limited amounts, subject also to packaging specifications, as proscribed by the Bureau of Post Office Operations.

MATTER ACCEPTABLE UNDER DEFINED CONDITIONS

9. Manufacturers or dealers intending to transmit articles in considerable quantities should submit a specimen showing the manner of packing and labeling to the postmaster at the mailing office for approval in order to ascertain mailability and reduce damage and loss. Mailers who have special problems in packaging for parcel post are assisted so far as practicable. The postmaster will obtain a ruling from the Department in case of doubt as to mailability or packing. If necessary, nonhazardous specimens will be forwarded to the Department for a ruling as to packaging after being adequately cushioned in a strong shipping carton to prevent damage

FLAMMABLE SUBSTANCES (NONTOXIC)

10. (a) Liquids (20° F. to 40° F.—Quantity restrictions).—Flammable liquids having a flash point between 20° F. (Tag. closed tester) and 80° F. (Tag. open tester) which are not poisonous or explosive or unmailable for reasons other than their flammability, shall be accepted for transmission in the domestic continental mails, except the Air Service, when in quantities of not more than 6 ounces in securely closed strong glass or earthenware containers, or not more than 12 ounces in securely closed good quality metal containers. At least 2 percent of the capacity of such containers shall be left vacant. They shall be surrounded by approved absorbent material in quantity sufficient to take up all the liquid in case of breakage and shall be cushioned in a strong, tightly closed outside container of metal, wood, or fiberboard. Such parcels shall be marked "Flammable" and "Flash point between 20° F. and 80° F., not over 6 ounces in glass container, or not over 12 ounces in metal container." If a label is used, the color scheme shall not be black print on a red background. They shall be dispatched inside of mail bags. Liquids with flash point below 20° F. (Tag. closed tester) are prohibited in the mails.

(b) Liquids (40° to 80° F.—Quantity restrictions).—Flammable liquids mentioned in preceding paragraph (a) in larger quantities with flash point over 40° F. (Tag. closed tester) but not over 80° F. (Tag. open tester) shall be accepted for transmission in the domestic continental mails except the Air Service when in quantities not exceeding 1 gallon in securely closed strong glass or earthenware containers, or not exceeding 5 gallons in securely closed good quality metal containers. At least 2 percent of capacity of such containers shall be left vacant. They shall be individually cushioned to prevent breakage or leakage in a strong, tightly closed outside container of metal, wood, or fiberboard bearing name of contents and an approved bright red caution label. When in extra strong metal containers, with handle or bail, of 1-gallon size or larger, the boxing may be omitted. They shall be dispatched outside of mail bags. The caution label shall be diamond-shaped, each side 4 inches long with wording painted in black letters inside of a black lined border measuring 3½ inches on each side, such wording to be as follows:

Keep away from fire, heat, and open-flame lights. CAUTION.—Leaking packages must be removed to safe place. DO NOT DROP. Flash point over 40° F. (Tag. closed tester) to 80° F. Contents: If in glass container—over 6 ounces but not over 1 gallon. If in metal container—over 12 ounces but not over 5 gallons. This is to certify that contents of this package are properly described by name and are packed and marked and are in proper condition for transportation according to the regulations prescribed by the Post Office Department.

(c) Liquids (80° to 150° F.—Quantity restrictions).—(1) Combustible liquids similar to those mentioned in preceding paragraph (b) but with flash point of 150° F. or lower but above 80° F. (Tag open tester) shall be accepted for transmission in the domestic continental mails including the Air Service when in quantities not exceeding 1 gallon in securely closed good quality glass or earthenware containers, or not exceeding 5 gallons in securely closed good quality metal containers. At least 2 percent of capacity of such containers shall be left vacant. They shall be individually cushioned to prevent breakage or leakage in a strong, tightly closed outside container of metal, wood, or fiberboard. When in extra strong metal containers, with handle or bail, of 1-gallon size or larger the boxing may be omitted.

(2) These liquids shall be labeled in accordance with article 59 (f) or (g) depending on quantity. When an "Outside Mail" endorsement is required, the parcel shall also be endorsed "Combustible—Flash Point Above 80° F." When quantity of liquid in glass containers does not exceed 24 fluid ounces in one parcel, the packing requirements for mailable liquids shown in article 15 (c) shall apply.

(3) These liquids shall be accepted for transmission in the domestic overseas mails when in quantities not exceeding 1 quart (except in the case of paint, enamel, lacquer, stain, shellac, varnish, aluminum, bronze, gold, wood filler liquid and lacquer base liquid, and thinning, reducing, and removing compounds and driers liquid therefor when the quantity shall be less than 1 gallon) provided the container or containers meet postal requirements, are surrounded by approved absorbent material in quantity sufficient to take up all the liquid in case of breakage and are cushioned in a strong, tightly closed outside container of metal, wood, or fiberboard. Labeling shall be as shown in preceding paragraph (2).

(d) (1) Flammable liquids (nontoxic) in polyethylene bottles.—Quantity.—Not to exceed 64 fluid ounces of mailable liquid which will not permeate through the bottle or cause the bottle to deteriorate, and which has a flash point between 70° (Tag. open tester) and 80° F., in one parcel.

Bottle specifications.—Not to exceed 8 ounce capacity which bottles must be tear resistant and which will, including closure, withstand a temperature of 200° F., and a load pressure of 300 pounds at room temperature (73.5° F.) with bottle in a vertical position, without leakage. The closure on such bottles shall consist of a properly fitting good quality cap of such design as will provide a secure closure and will not leak regardless of deformation of neck of bottle.

Packing and labeling.—When quantity does not exceed 6 fluid ounces in one parcel the packing prescribed in paragraph (a) shall apply and the parcel shall be marked "Flammable—Flash Point between 70° and 80° F.—not over 6 ounces in polyethylene container." When quantity exceeds 6 fluid ounces, the packing and labeling prescribed in paragraph (b) shall apply except that the caution label shall be modified to show flash point range, quantity and type of container.

(2) Combustible liquids (nontoxic) in polyethylene bottles.—Quantity.—Not to exceed 1 gallon of mailable liquid which will not permeate through the bottle or cause the bottle to deteriorate and which has a flash point of 150° F. or lower but above 80° F., in one parcel.

Bottle specifications.—Same as in paragraph (d) (1).

Packing and labeling.—When quantity does not exceed 24 fluid ounces in one parcel the packing shall be in accordance with article 15 (c) and endorsement in accordance with article 59 (g). When quantity exceeds 24 fluid ounces in one parcel, the packing prescribed in article 15 (d) and the outside mail endorsement shown in article 59 (f) shall apply together with further endorsement of "Combustible—Flash Point Above 80° F."

11. (a) Pyroxylin (nitrocellulose) plastics (celluloid, fiberoid, pyralin, viscoloid, zylonite, etc.) in sheets, rolls, tubes, or finished manufactured article, with ignition point under 350° F. (but not under 250° F.), shall be packed in strong spark-proof wooden boxes, or sheet pyroxylin may also be packed flat in double-faced corrugated fiberboard packages, provided that the total thickness of sheet material in one package does not exceed one-half inch in thickness. The pyroxylin plastic shall be wrapped in paper and the box shall not be less than two thicknesses of double-faced corrugated fiberboard at all points. When material is in rolls, it shall be placed in fiber or strawboard cylinders with walls not less than 0.045 inch thick, for a net weight of 6 pounds or less or 0.115 inch thick for a net weight of 15 pounds or less, and the cylinders shall be lined with single-faced corrugated fiberboard two-tenths inch thick.

(b) Parcels containing pyroxylin plastics shall be labeled in accordance with article 12 (f). Single manufactured articles such as small calendars, transparent card cases, etc., may be mailed in good quality envelopes without special packing or labeling.

12. Films.—(a) Motion-picture film shall be packed in sparkproof metal boxes or cans, complying with sections 78.146 to 78.149 of the Interstate Commerce Commission regulations (specifications 32A, 32B, 32C, and 32D) for the shipment of dangerous articles. Case and cover shall be lined throughout with hard fiberboard at least one-eighth inch thick. Each outside metal case shall be plainly and permanently marked in the metal by embossing the following symbol, consisting of a rectangle and inscription as follows: I. C. C.—32 A.

"The letters and figures in this symbol shall be at least one-half inch high, and the final letter may be either A, B, C, or D. These parcels shall bear the yellow caution label shown in paragraph (f).

"(b) Motion-picture films may also be packed in outside wooden boxes complying with section 78.170 of the Interstate Commerce Commission regulations (Specification 15C) for the transportation of dangerous articles, provided each reel is placed in a tightly closed inside metal container. The marking on the boxes to indicate compliance with the specifications is I. C. C. 15c (the stars being replaced by figures indicating the maximum gross weight for which the box is authorized). The letters and figures in this symbol shall be at least one-half inch high. These parcels shall bear the yellow caution label shown in paragraph (f).

"(c) Short motion-picture films (not exceeding 25 feet in length) shall be accepted when placed in tightly closed metal cans and in outside containers of corrugated strawboard or other suitable material. Motion-picture films not exceeding 1,000 feet in length shall be accepted for mailing when placed in tightly closed metal cans lined with asbestos, in outside fiberboard or corrugated fiberboard containers, securely sealed, without the yellow caution label, to be dispatched inside mail bags. Such films shall also be accepted for mailing when placed in tightly closed metal cans without lining, in outside fiberboard or corrugated fiberboard containers, securely sealed, with the yellow caution label.

"(d) Motion-picture films referred to in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this article may also be packed in one-piece fiberboard boxes complying with section 78.205-22 of the Interstate Commerce Commission regulations (Specification 12B) when each film is in a tightly closed metal film-reel can or strong cardboard or fiberboard box with cover held in place by adhesive tape or paper, containing not over 2,000 feet (approximately) of film. The cans or boxes should be adequately braced in the center by fiberboard, at least 175-pound test, extending the full depth. Closing of box must be effected by coating entire contact surface of flaps with efficient adhesive; stitched closure not authorized. Boxes that have been filled, shipped, and opened are not authorized for reuse.

"(e) Nonflammable Motion-picture films shall be accepted without other restriction when packed in sufficiently strong containers to bear safe transmission in the mails. Such containers shall be plainly marked as to contents such as 'Motion Picture Film—Not Dangerous'; 'Motion Picture Film—Safety Base'; 'Safety Film—Not Dangerous' or 'Business Microfilm—Safety Base.'"

(f) Flammable films or pyroxylin plastics; caution label.—(1) All packages containing flammable motion-picture film (except short lengths), or pyroxylin plastics in quantities over 4 ounces with ignition point under 350° F. shall bear name of contents and have attached thereto by the shipper a diamond-shaped bright yellow label, each side 4 inches long, with the wording printed in black letters, inside of a black line border measuring 3½ inches on each side, reading as follows:

Keep away from fire, heat, and open-flame lights. CAUTION.—Sweep up and remove carefully contents of broken packages. Do NOT DROP. This is to certify that the contents of this package are properly described by name and are packed and marked and are in proper condition for transportation, according to the regulations prescribed by the Post Office Department.

(Shipper's name)

(2) When quantity of pyroxylin plastics previously mentioned herein does not exceed 4 ounces, the material shall be securely packed for safe transmission, and such parcels shall be marked "Flammable Solid. Not Over 4 Ounces" and shall be sacked.

(g) Postmasters shall exercise special care in accepting motion-picture films and pyroxylin plastics for shipment, and shall see that containers are in good condition and have attached thereto the required caution labels.

(NOTE.—See article 11 for proper packaging of pyroxylin plastics.)

(h) The address label shall be plain, with the name of the shipper shown in the upper left corner less conspicuously than the name and address of the addressee, which shall appear on the lower half of the label. All old labels and postage stamps shall be removed. Parcels carrying "Express Collect" labels are not acceptable until such labels have been covered or removed.

(i) Motion-picture films with yellow caution label may be accepted for transmission in the domestic air mail service to be carried in the regular mail compartment; they are also acceptable in the domestic overseas mails.

(j) Amateur roll film (nitrate).—This film (usually 35-mm. or other small size) has the same hazardous properties as motion-picture film except that it is in short lengths. However, a film processing plant may receive or dispatch a considerable quantity at one time. Such film requires a metal container such as the metal cartridge in which it was originally contained provided the cartridge is tightly closed with no exposed end of flammable film, in accordance with paragraph (c), or a substantial fiber carton. These rolls after being processed and printed must also be packed in accordance with the preceding sentence. Photographic supply houses or film-processing plants may buy ends of 35-mm. nitrate film which are less than 500 feet long and sell cartridges thereof, or exchange cartridges for exposed film which is processed by them. In this way large quantities of nitrate film may be mailed and some processors may not understand what type film is being handled. As a corrective measure, concerns buying the so-called "Trail-ends" could specify safety film.

(k) Parcels bearing yellow caution labels shall be sacked when the weight of an individual parcel does not exceed 35 pounds and there are two or more parcels available for dispatch in the sack. Parcels which would not be damaged by the metal cans of film or which would not cause damage to other parcels in the sack may be sacked with motion-picture film or with other parcels bearing yellow caution labels.

(l) Sacks or pouches containing flammable motion-picture film or other mailable flammable solids bearing an approved yellow caution label shall have a flammable parcel post (yellow) tag (Form 5136, revised March 1952) attached to the label holder.

(NOTE.—Form 5136 shall not be used on sacks of safety film.)

13. Nitrate of soda and nitrate of potassium.—(a) Nitrate of soda and nitrate of potassium in quantities not to exceed 8 ounces shall be accepted for mailing when in strong glass bottles cushioned in approved mailing tubes or cartons with the word "flammable" and the proper name of the article plainly marked on the outside of the package.

(b) These substances in packages not exceeding 25 pounds shall be admitted to the domestic surface mails when prepared as provided for larger quantities of inflammable substances (see article 10 (b)), or when packed in strong cotton bags lined with two thicknesses of kraft paper cemented together with asphaltum and cemented to the outside cotton bags. Care shall be taken to avoid any of the product getting on the outside of the parcels, and the package shall be capable of withstanding a drop of 4 feet without any escaping of contents. Each parcel shall bear the yellow caution label shown in article 12 (f).

14. Safety matches (strike-only-on-box or book variety).—(a) General prohibitions.—Matches in sealed envelopes are not mailable. No matches of any kind shall be accepted in the mails for transmission to any foreign country including Canada and Mexico or between continental United States and the overseas possessions and Territories of the United States, including Alaska, or overseas APO's or FPO's, or for transmission between any such possession or Territory and any other such possession or Territory. Matches are prohibited in the air mail service. "Strike-anywhere" matches are not mailable.

(b) Carton requirements.—(1) Taped flaps required.—Safety matches (strike-only-on-box or book variety) with ignition temperature as determined in the oven test of not less than 170° C. (338° F.) shall be accepted for transmission in the domestic surface mails to destinations within the continental United States only, when packed in tightly closed metal containers, or in strong containers of other nonfragile material having a securely glued inside lining consisting of either aluminum foil 0.0004-inch thick, or long fiber asbestos paper 0.006-inch thick, or other equivalent fire retardant material approved by the Postmaster General, which lining must be continuous with no holes therein and leave no portion of the container unprotected. The wall strength of the lined container must test at least 90 points (Mullen or Cady tester, with foil-lined side away from rubber diaphragm in the tester or with asbestos-lined side next to the rubber diaphragm). The aluminum-foil or asbestos-lined containers must be completely filled with safety matches and the flaps reinforced with kraft gummed paper tape (not less than 35 pound) or with good quality cellulose tape. On the smaller containers of not more than 10 regular-size books of matches, the gummed label, if of good quality, may be extended over the tuck-in tab ends of the container at least 1 inch to securely seal the end flaps. On containers with flaps more than 2¾ inches long, the flaps shall be securely fastened to the container with approved tape so as to leave no opening in which other mail might become fastened.

(2) Taped flaps are not required when container has locking end flaps of a type approved by the Postmaster General and the wall strength of carton tests at least 175 points.

(3) When two caddies of 50 boxes of regular-size books each or the maximum amount of other size books are enclosed in one container, a full-size separator of 0.015-inch thick cardboard covered on both sides with aluminum foil at least 0.0004-inch thick, or the equivalent asbestos-covered board, or other equivalent fire retardant material approved by the Postmaster General, shall be placed between the two caddies.

(c) Quantity restrictions.—Not more than 100 regular size books (20 sticks) in one carton. To be contained in two caddies of 50 books each when maximum amount is shipped.

Fifty billboard size (40 sticks). To be contained in two caddies of 25 books each when maximum amount is shipped.

Forty jumbo size (12 oversize sticks in a single row). To be in caddies of 20 books each when maximum amount is shipped.

(d) Safety matches (strike-only-on-the-book variety) of the giant or jumbo book type are acceptable in single books holding not more than 12 match sticks in a single row enclosed in envelopes approximately 4% by 3¼ inches lined with not less than 0.006-inch thick long fiber asbestos paper or not less than 0.00035-inch thick aluminum foil with a bursting strength of not less than 50 points (Mullen or Cady tester). The envelopes shall not crack at the folds; and if the end flap is not closed by a metal clasp or fiberboard buttons with strong twine, it must fold inside the envelope at least 1½ inches.

(e) Approved pull-and-light types of safety matches (each match head individually embedded in the striking panels) shall be accepted for transmission in the domestic mails to destinations within the continental United States only, when in small amounts packed in completely filled, securely sealed strong cardboard containers. Large numbers of cards or more than three circular refills must be packed in strong fiberboard cartons. A small number of cards (not more than 12) of these matches may be accepted for mailing in a strong securely fastened mailing envelope such as a strong kraft open-end envelope with flap closed by a metal clasp or fiberboard buttons with strong twine. One or two cards may be mailed with advertising matter in good quality envelopes of the loose-end-flap type. This type match presents little fire hazard and a foil-or asbestos-lined container is not considered necessary.

(f) Safety matches must not be enclosed in parcels of other items unless in an approved carton. They must not be included in parcels addressed to overseas destinations. Due to lack of suitable material to recondition damaged cartons, such damaged cartons are treated as nonmailable matter and destroyed at office at which detected.

(g) Safety matches, deodorizing (strike-only-on-the-box variety).—(1) Deodorizing matches with ignition temperature of not less than 338° F. dipped in incense composition extending not over five-eighths or an inch along the stem which will burn with progressive low sparking ignition are acceptable in good quality paperboard boxes (not less than 18 point) with quantity restriction of not to exceed 40 regular size match sticks in one box and not to exceed 12 boxes in one aluminum-foil or asbestos-lined shipping carton of approved manufacture, provided that when more than 3 boxes are contained in a shipping carton the boxes in units of not more than 3 shall be in sleeves of good quality paperboard.

(2) Shipping cartons shall comply with preceding subsection (b) (1) and (2) as to construction, wall strength and taped flaps.

15. Liquids.—(a) Liquids and oils for local delivery.—Admissible (noninflammable and nontoxic) liquids and oils in packages not exceeding the limit of weight of fourth-class matter shall be accepted for mailing when intended for delivery at the office of mailing or on a rural route starting therefrom when enclosed in strong and securely closed containers, provided it is not necessary to transport them over steam or electric railways.

(b) Liquids and oils for nonlocal delivery.—Admissible (noninflammable and nontoxic) liquids and oils, pastes, salves, or other articles easily liquefiable shall be accepted for mailing, regardless of distance, when they conform to the following conditions:

(c) Glass containers.—In quantities of 24 fluid ounces or less.—When total quantity in securely closed strong glass or earthenware container does not exceed 24 fluid ounces in one or multiple containers in one parcel, the container or containers shall be surrounded by sufficient approved absorbent material (see article 54 (a)) to take up the liquid in case of breakage (except that when the total quantity does not exceed one-half fluid ounce only cushioning need be used), and enclosed in a strong, tight outside container of metal, wood, or fiberboard securely sealed to prevent leakage (except that when the total quantity does not exceed 1½ fluid ounces a fiber carton with strong locking flaps may be used as outside container). Such parcel shall be labeled in accordance with article 59 (g).

(d) Glass containers.—In quantities of more than 24 fluid ounces.—When total quantity in securely closed strong glass or earthenware containers exceeds 24 fluid ounces in one or multiple containers in one parcel, each container shall be surrounded by sufficient approved cushioning material (see article 54 (b)) to prevent breakage or leakage and enclosed in a strong, tight, outside container of metal, wood, or fiberboard securely fastened (except that when the gross weight exceeds 30 pounds the closure, if of tape, shall be reinforced). Such parcel shall be labeled in accordance with article 59 (f).

(e) Metal containers.—In quantities of less than one gallon.—Mailable liquids in securely closed (hermetically sealed; screw top with gasket or inner seal, or approved patented top) good quality metal containers, when in quantities of less than 1 gallon and individually cushioned in strong, tightly closed outside container of metal, wood, or fiberboard, shall be accepted for mailing, but when in friction- or compression-top cans with capacity over 4.27 fluid ounces the tops shall be securely soldered on in not less than four places equally spaced, except as provided in paragraph (g). Such parcels shall be labeled in accordance with article 59 (g).

(f) Metal containers.—In quantities of one gallon or more.—Mailable liquids in securely closed good quality metal containers (friction- or compression-type top or covers, except heavy milk cans, to be securely soldered on in not less than six places equally spaced when can is of 1-gallon capacity, except as provided in paragraph (g)) in quantities of 1 gallon or more shall be accepted for mailing when packed in accordance with preceding paragraph (e) but in proportionately stronger outside container provided when gross weight exceeds 30 pounds, the closure if of tape shall be reinforced. However, when in extra strong metal containers with handle or bail the boxing may be omitted. Such boxed parcels shall be labeled in accordance with article 59 (f).

(g) Friction top cans.—Reinforcement by means other than solder.—(1) Aluminum foil (0.004 inch) inner seal which is an integral part of the can and effects a hermetical seal is approved in good quality double friction top cans provided lid is permanently endorsed that can has an approved inner seal. Can is not mailable after inner seal has been broken.

(2) Locking device consisting of a metal ring seal about 0.015 inch thick by 1 inch wide weighing about 1 ounce which locks the top in place is approved on Tripletite cans provided seal is permanently endorsed that it has been approved by the Post Office Department.

(3) Metal clips formed from pieces of tempered spring steel 0.10 inch thick, ¼ inch wide by about 1½ inches long so formed as to engage both the lock that ties the top to the sides of the can and the groove in the can cover and provide a secure closure have been approved for double friction top cans provided 8 equally spaced clips are used on the gallon size can which can must be enclosed in a shipping carton.

(h) Good quality polyethylene bottles not exceeding 16 fluid ounce capacity with tightly fitting good quality caps which will not leak regardless of deformation of the neck of the bottle are acceptable for admissible liquids which will not permeate through the bottle or cause it to deteriorate. They must be packed and labeled under the same requirements as for metal cans. (Note.—See article 10 (d) relating to flammable or combustible liquids.)

16. Liquid and other contents.—When parcels contain other matter in addition to the liquid packed as herein prescribed, it is necessary that adequate partitioning material be placed between the liquid and the other matter and that the bottles or metal containers be surrounded with sufficient quantity of absorbent material to absorb the liquid in the event of leakage and to prevent damage to the other articles in the parcel. Claims for indemnity involving damage to properly prepared insured or c. o. d. parcels containing liquid with other matter will ordinarily not be paid for other than damage to the liquid itself.

17. Packing.—(a) Shipping cartons-general.—Liquids in good quality glass containers must be properly packed in a tight shipping carton, such as a good quality fiberboard box with properly glued flaps plus gummed tape across the center seams on top and bottom, or gummed tape on all outside seams if glue is not used. If staples are used, they must be of sufficient length and applied in sufficient numbers to form a tight and secure closure. In addition to staples, gummed tape must be used on the center seams on top and bottom if the quantity of liquid exceeds 24 fluid ounces, but if the quantity does not exceed 24 ounces gummed tape must be used on all seams. Cartons may be wrapped in heavy kraft paper and securely fastened, if preferred. (Also see Article 53 on Containers.)

(b) Gallon bottles.—(1) Not more than four 1 gallon bottles of noncombustible and nontoxic liquids may be contained in one carton. For four bottles a 325-pound test carton is required with 2 inches of firmly packed excelsior on all four sides, top and bottom and between the bottles; or a 275-pound test carton with a full sized good quality double wall corrugated partition with each bottle held in a fixed position not less than three-quarters of an inch from the walls of the shipping carton and not less than 1½ inches from each other by corner pads of good quality doublefaced corrugated board. At least 1½ inches of air space should be provided on top and bottom by rat trap type pads. Combustible liquids are restricted to 1 gallon in a parcel.

(2) Single gallon bottles should have about 2 inches of excelsior on the bottom and 1 inch on top plus 1 inch on the sides, or be held at least three-quarters of an inch from the sides by corner pads of good quality fiberboard, and 1 inch from the bottom by a rat trap type pad with similar space on top if a plastic cap is used. If a cork or metal cap is used, protection on top may be afforded by a pad of doublewall corrugated board. A 275-pound test carton is indicated for the foregoing. In case the bottle is held in a fixed position at least three-quarters of an inch from the walls of the shipping carton by means of an inner scored sheet of 275-pound test doublewall corrugated board, a 200-pound test carton is adequate but protection on top and bottom must be as heretofore described.

(c) Plastic caps.—A large percentage of damage is attributed to plastic bottle caps some of which have poor impact resistance, especially a black phenolic type, and the use of a cork in addition thereto is recommended on the larger size bottles. Plastic caps on bottles without corks must be cushioned to prevent breakage or cracking. (See paragraph (b) and article 50 and 51.)

(d) Mailable liquids (nontoxic and nonflammable) in good quality hermetically sealed cans of not over 1 quart capacity in strong corrugated fiberboard cartons with all flaps touching or overlapping do not need partitions between each can. A single can in such a carton does not require further cushioning.

18. Nonintoxicating beverages.—Beverages containing not more than 3.2 percent of alcohol by weight, when addressed for delivery within any State, Territory, or District of the United States, the laws of which do not prohibit the manufacture or sale therein of beverages containing not more than 3.2 percent of alcohol by weight, do not come within the term "intoxicating." Beverages of any alcoholic content whatever may not be mailed to Indian wards anywhere or into any present Indian reservation, or to those parts of opened Indian reservations which are still reserved for government or tribal use or which are held in trust for individual Indians prior to their request for fee patents for such lands.

19. Liquids, pastes, confections, etc.—Liquids which are not spirituous, vinous, malted, fermented, or otherwise intoxicating, and not liable to explosion or spontaneous combustion or ignition by shock or jar, and not flammable; fruits or vegetable matter liable to decomposition, comb honey, soft soap, pastes or confections, ointments, salves, and articles of similar consistency which will liquefy readily, shall be admitted to the domestic mails when packed in accordance with articles 15 and 16.

20. (a) Pastes, salves, jelly, etc., not easily liquefiable shall be accepted for mailing when enclosed in watertight containers and cushioned in a double-faced corrugated fiberboard or solid fiberboard or wooden box.

(b) Bakery goods (cakes, pies, etc.) must be adequately cushioned in a strong shipping carton to withstand handling in mail sacks. Window type cartons are not acceptable.

(c) Candles, confectionery, yeast cakes, soap in hard cakes, etc., shall be enclosed in boxes and so wrapped as to prevent breakage, or damage to other mail matter.

(d) Candy if affected by heat or shock must be insulated or cushioned in the shipping carton and be marked "Fragile." The label "Keep From Heat" may also be used.

21. Ink powders, pepper, snuff, or other similar powders which are not explosive, or any similar pulverized dry substance which is not poisonous, shall be accepted for mailing when enclosed in the manner prescribed for liquids in articles 15 and 16, or when enclosed in cases made of metal, wood, fiber, or similar material, in such manner as to render impossible the escape of any of the contents.

PERISHABLE MATTER

22 (a) Butter, lard, and perishable articles, such as fish, fresh meats, dressed fowls, fruits, berries, or vegetables; tomato, cabbage, pepper plants, etc., which decay quickly, are acceptable for mailing to any office which in the ordinary transit time of mail they can reach without spoiling. These articles must be enclosed in crates, boxes, baskets, or other suitable containers, so constructed as properly to protect the contents and prevent the escape of anything therefrom. Such parcels must be labeled "Perishable" on the wrapper directly above the name of the addressee.

Frozen foods are acceptable if refrigerated in accordance with article 24. Parcels containing butter shall also be marked "Butter." Berries, fruits, and vegetables shall not be accepted for mailing unless they are in good dry shipping condition. It is advisable that perishable matter be sent special handling or special delivery to expedite delivery. The use of air mail, with the perishable matter properly insulated if necessary, may be advisable in some instances.

(b) Cut flowers must be enclosed in strong containers securely fastened.

(c) Eggs shall be accepted when packed in crates, boxes, baskets, or other suitable containers, so constructed as to properly protect the contents. Such parcels shall be marked "Eggs" and "This Side Up" when necessary. Substantial shipping cartons are essential. Lightweight collapsible types are not recommended.

(d) Eggs for hatching shall be accepted when each egg is wrapped separately and surrounded with excelsior, wood wool, or other suitable material and packed in a basket, preferably with a handle, or other suitable container, lined with paper, or corrugated fiberboard. Such parcels shall be marked "Eggs For Hatching" and "Keep From Heat and Cold" if desired. These eggs may be shipped by air mail to points within the continental United States.

23. (a) Matter such as candy, cake, bread, dried fruit, smoked ham, cured bacon, cheese, pasteurized dates, and certain deciduous plants such as bulbs, shrubs, and trees, are not considered perishable under the postal regulations and must not be marked "Perishable." An endorsement, such as "Please Refrigerate when Received" for information of addressee, is permissible on some of these mailings.

(b) Citrus fruit is not classed as perishable and is to be packed in strong containers which will withstand weight of other sacked mail. The use of mesh bags or multiwall sacks as shipping containers is not permissible. Strong, ventilated corrugated fiberboard cartons tightly and securely closed are recommended.

24. If ice is used as a refrigerant it must be packed so as to prevent leakage. Dry ice (carbon dioxide solid) is acceptable as a refrigerant if securely wrapped in heavy paper. However, dry ice changes from a solid to a gaseous state and must not be packed in an airtight glass or metal container. A tightly sealed fiberboard box is a satisfactory container so far as the dry ice is concerned, but sufficient insulating material must be used to prevent condensation and subsequent wetting of the shipping carton.

TOXIC SUBSTANCES

25. Poisonous drugs.—Poisonous drugs and medicines and anesthetic agents which are not outwardly or of their own force dangerous or injurious to life, health, or property, and not otherwise unmailable, if securely packed for safe transmission, shall be admitted to the domestic mails when sent by the manufacturer or dealer to licensed physicians, surgeons, dentists, pharmacists, druggists, cosmetologists, barbers, and veterinarians, addressed as such. The inside container must be plainly labeled to show its contents and be marked "Poison," and must bear the label or superscription of the manufacturer.

26. Insecticides, fungicides, and germicides.—(a) Insecticides, fungicides, and germicides not outwardly or of their own force dangerous or injurious to life, health, or property whose acute oral fatal dose is over 10 milligrams per kilogram of body weight when administered to laboratory mice, rats, or rabbits, which have been classed as mailable, may be accepted in small shipments provided that the inside container is plainly labeled to show its contents and bears the label or superscription of the manufacturer. More highly toxic substances are prohibited in the mails.

(b) Insecticides, fungicides, and germicides, when accepted for mailing, must be in inside containers of metal, glass or fiber cans or boxes, and in outside containers of metal, wood, or fiberboard, tightly closed and securely fastened and endorsed "Poisonous Composition." When in liquid form, the inside container must not only be surrounded with sufficient absorbent material to absorb all the liquid should the container be broken but packed in cushioning material. (Excelsior is not considered an absorbent.) When in solid or powdered form, the inside container must be surrounded with cushioning material.

27. Mercury.—(a) Mercury in quantities not exceeding five 1-pound containers shall be accepted for transmission in the domestic mails when in tightly closed strong containers of glass, earthenware, or metal, with each 1-pound container securely cushioned in a strong fiber box, which box, when only one is shipped, shall be cushioned in a larger fiberboard box testing not less than 175 pounds (Mullen or Cady tester), tightly closed and securely fastened.

(b) When more than one 1-pound unit is contained in a parcel (but not more than five), the units shall be cushioned in a larger fiberboard box, testing not less than 200 pounds, or its equivalent, by not less than 2 inches of firmly packed cushioning material on all sides. The shipping box shall be tightly closed and securely fastened.

(c) Mercury in small quantities such as contained in switches used to make and break an electric current may also be packed in approved mailing tubes when the glass tube of mercury is completely surrounded with at least one-half inch of approved cushioning material.

28. Medicines (nontoxic).—Medicines which are not outwardly or of their own force dangerous or injurious to life, health, or property are acceptable for mailing when enclosed in packages in conformity with the conditions prescribed by regulation: Provided, however, That the term "medicines" shall not be construed to mean poisons, and that the article mailed bears the label or superscription of the manufacturer or dealer, or of the licensed physician, surgeon, dentist, pharmacist, druggist, or veterinarian preparing or prescribing the same.

SHARP INSTRUMENTS

29. (a) Sharp pointed or sharp edged instruments—knives, tools, etc., shall have their points and edges protected so that they cannot cut through their covering and then must be securely wrapped or boxed.

(b) Plowshares, stove castings, pieces of machinery, etc., shall have all points, edges, and corners thoroughly protected with excelsior or similar material and be wrapped in burlap, cloth, or tough paper, or be properly boxed to prevent damage to mail or equipment, when intended for other than local delivery.

(NOTE.—See article 52 (e) (2), for certain exceptions to the packaging requirement.)

30. Lightweight, sharp-edged knives, packing of.—(a) Lightweight knives usually weighing between $\frac{1}{2}$ and 4 ounces with blades not over 10 inches in length nor $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches in width may be accepted for mailing if packed in the following manner:

(b) When the blade is not over $3\frac{1}{4}$ inches in length and $\frac{3}{4}$ inch in width, a close-fitting sheath of 0.018 chip board or equivalent material longer than the blade shall be used together with a kraft envelope or equivalent testing not less than 60 points (Mullen or Cady tester), and not more than $\frac{1}{2}$ inch longer than the knife.

(c) When the blade is over $3\frac{1}{4}$ inches in length but not over 6 inches and not over 1 inch in width, a close-fitting sheath of 0.022 kraft board or equivalent material longer than the blade shall be used together with a kraft envelope or equivalent testing not less than 60 points and not more than $\frac{1}{2}$ inch longer than the knife.

(d) When the blade is over 6 inches in length but not over 10 inches and not over $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches in width, a close-fitting sheath of 0.028 kraft board or equivalent material longer than the blade shall be used together with a kraft envelope or equivalent testing not less than 64 points and not more than $\frac{1}{2}$ inch longer than the knife.

(These sheaths previously mentioned must be of such a snug fit that they can be removed only with some effort. A sheath that slides off readily is not approved unless it is affixed to the knife blade by means of cement or glue or is securely taped to the knife handle. The envelopes must be securely sealed.)

(e) Kitchen sets with two knives with blades not over 6 inches in length securely fastened by good quality cellulose tape or equivalent to a die-cut card of 0.036 chip board or equivalent larger than the knives and enclosed in a close-fitting fiber carton of 0.024 kraft board or equivalent securely fastened.

(f) Carving sets composed of knife and fork with a blade not over 9 inches in length with close-fitting sheaths of 0.018 chip board protecting both blade and tines and enclosed in a close-fitting fiber carton of 0.034 kraft board or equivalent securely fastened.

(g) More substantial packing is required for larger knives. They should be cushioned in a strong fiberboard, wooden or metal box with the blades properly encased so that they cannot cut through their covering as outlined in article 29.

31. Safety-razor blades in double individual wrappers are acceptable when securely glued or taped to a piece of stiff cardboard or its equivalent which when folded over and stapled or taped extends beyond the blade or blades on all sides and is enclosed in a good quality envelope. These mailings must bear return postage guarantee, if not sent first class.

32. Return postage guarantee on matter containing cutting edges.—Mail matter of the third class containing sample safety-razor blades, small samples of other metals, or any similar matter which is liable to injure postal employees assigned to destroy such mail in the dead letter branches in case of nondelivery, shall not be accepted for mailing unless it not only is properly protected to carry safely in the mails, but bears the name and address of the sender in the upper left corner together with the pledge "Return Postage Guaranteed."

FIREARMS

33. Firearms capable of being concealed on the person are unmailable except to military, naval, or civil officers for use in connection with their official duty and to manufacturers or bona fide dealers in firearms (from one to the other) as provided in section 36.12, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948. Severe penalties are provided for the mailing of firearms unless authorized by this section.

All parcels containing firearms capable of being concealed on the person must be marked as required by paragraph (c) of section 36.12, and affidavits and certificates are to be filed at the time of mailing of such firearms in accordance with the requirements of that section.

An affidavit must be filed at the time of mailing of each shipment of firearms detailing the right of the addressee to receive firearms in the mails under the provisions of section 36.12, Postal Laws and Regulations, except parcels offered for mailing by an authorized agent of the Federal Government to military, naval, or civil officers which are plainly indorsed "Official Shipment."

34. Guns (rifles or shotguns).—(a) Loaded firearms are nonmailable as provided in section 35.18 (k), Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948. Parcels containing rifles or shotguns shall be accepted only when the accepting clerk is satisfied that they are harmless. He may require individual mailers to open such parcels, or may require such mailer to sign a statement to the effect that the gun is unloaded. Such parcels from reputable concerns may ordinarily be accepted with oral or written assurance that the guns are unloaded.

(b) These parcels must be adequately prepared for mailing, including individual cushioning of each part contained therein and positive separation of the loose wood and metal parts. Wrapping of all wood parts with corrugated fiberboard and tying this securely before adding the cushioning material to keep the pieces apart is recommended. The shipping carton must be of sufficient strength to protect the contents from weight of other mails. A strong corrugated fiberboard carton with an inner liner of the same material with corrugations running at right angles to the corrugations in the shipping carton to protect the wood stock of the gun is satisfactory. The wood stock must also be protected against damage from shock or dropping by the use of adequate cushioning material or by air space formed by corrugated molds or pads. Shotguns or rifles which are not taken apart prior to shipments must be adequately cushioned in an exceptionally strong shipping carton to prevent shifting. Care must be taken to see that the ends are properly cushioned, especially the stock end.

(c) Cartridges and loaded shells, or shells containing a firing cap are nonmailable. Bullets (the nonexplosive missiles actually shot from the gun) are mailable if packed in a strong container.

35. Fire extinguishers and other cylinders containing compressed gas or acid.—(a) Any cylinder or fire extinguisher containing more than 10 ounces of carbon dioxide liquefied, or requiring a caution label under Interstate Commerce Commission regulations (except as provided in paragraph (c) herein) is nonmailable. Fire extinguishers of the soda-acid type containing the acid charge (usually 4 ounces of sulfuric acid with sodium bicarbonate) are nonmailable by reason of the acid, regardless of the manner in which it is packed.

(b) The small cylinders of compressed gas which are mailable and specifications therefor are as follows:

Compressed gas (any material or mixture having in the container either an absolute pressure exceeding 40 pounds per square inch at 70° F. (gauge pressure exceeding 25 pounds per square inch at 70° F.) or an absolute pressure exceeding 104 pounds per square inch at 130° F., or both), of the nonexplosive, noninflammable, nonpoisonous types in nonshattering steel containers complying with Interstate Commerce Commission specifications therefor, and filled and charged in accordance with Interstate Commerce Commission regulations, may be admitted to the mails. The containers must be individually cushioned in suitable, securely fastened outside boxes such as double-faced corrugated fiberboard boxes testing not less than 175 pounds per square inch (Mullen or Cady tester) for cartons not over 5 pounds in weight and testing not less than 200 pounds for heavier cartons, with an inner liner of the same material or the equivalent in other suitable cushioning material. These cylinders must have the release mechanism properly protected against damage or accidental discharge in the postal service. The following further specifications as to size of cylinder, safety devices, and labeling, must be followed.

(c) Fire extinguisher or tire inflator type not exceeding 2 inches in outside diameter nor 12 inches in length, or not exceeding 3.6 inches in outside diameter nor 5½ inches in length, and containing not to exceed 10 ounces of carbon dioxide liquefied gas or other gas approved for mailing and equipped with a frangible disk type safety device approved by the Bureau of Explosives both as to type and location which will fracture before pressure in the cylinder reaches 3,000 pounds per square inch and release the contents, and which will prevent explosion of the charged cylinder when placed in fire. The words

"Compressed Gas", and the proper name of the article contained therein shall be plainly marked on the outside of the parcel. There is a limit of one cylinder to a parcel.

(d) Hand fire extinguisher type including DDT bombs and lighter weight aerosols of household type, net exceeding 32 fluid ounce capacity filled to not over 90-percent capacity at 70° F.; charged with a gas approved for mailing to not over 170 pounds per square inch absolute pressure at 70° F.; and equipped with a safety device approved by the Bureau of Explosives which will prevent explosion of the charged cylinder when placed in a fire. An approved fire extinguishing agent or other nontoxic, nonflammable, or noninjurious agent must be used. The words "Compressed Gas", and the proper name of the article shall be plainly marked on the outside of the parcel. There is a limit of one cylinder to a parcel.

(e) Aerosol type not exceeding 16.6 fluid ounce capacity charged with nonliquefied carbon dioxide or other nonliquefied gas approved for mailing to not over 40 pounds per square inch gauge pressure at 70° F., and equipped with a safety device approved by the Bureau of Explosives which will prevent explosion of the charged cylinder when placed in a fire. An approved content of nontoxic, nonflammable or matter not of a nature which might damage other mail must be used. The words "Compressed Gas", and the proper name of the article shall be plainly marked on the outside of the parcel. There is a limit of six 16.6 ounce size cans, or twelve 10 ounce size cans in one parcel.

(f) Aerosol or spray type in good quality metal container charged with a gas approved for mailing to less than 25 pounds per square inch gauge pressure at 70° F. is not classed as a compressed gas, but the contents must be nontoxic, nonflammable and not of a nature which might damage other mail, in order to be acceptable for mailing. Such containers must be individually cushioned and packed in accordance with paragraph (b) and labeled in accordance with article 59 (f) or (g). The proper name of the article shall be plainly marked on the outside of the parcel.

36. Empty cylinders which last contained nonmailable acids, solvents, etc., are acceptable provided they are within the size and weight limit; are without sharp edges which might damage other mail or injure employees; and bear a label certifying that the tank is empty, has been thoroughly cleaned both inside and out and is in proper condition for mailing in accordance with the Postal Laws and Regulations. The name of the last hazardous substance contained in the cylinder must also be noted on the label. All old labels or markings must be removed or covered.

37. Radioactive materials.—(a) Radioactive materials requiring a caution label under Interstate Commerce Commission regulations are prohibited. But certain of these materials which are exempt from specification packing, marking, and labeling requirements under Interstate Commerce Commission regulation 73.392 Explosives and other Dangerous Articles, may be admitted to the mails if packed and labeled in accordance with paragraphs (b) to (f).

All prospective mailers of these materials are cautioned that mailings must be within the amount specified and postmasters shall assure themselves of the fact that the mailer is in a position to determine definitely the radiation of any proposed mailing before it is accepted.

(b) Radioactive materials (liquid, solid, or gaseous; manufactured articles such as instrument or clock dials of which radioactive materials are a component part; luminous compounds; ores and residues) which fulfill all the following conditions shall be accepted for mailing provided they are properly packed in a strong, tight outside container and marked "Radioactive Material—Gamma Radiation at Surface of Parcel Less than 10 Milliroentgens for 24 hours—No Significant Alpha, Beta, or Neutron Radiation."

(c) The package must be such that there can be no leakage of radioactive material under conditions normally incident to transportation in the mails in sacks.

(d) The package must contain not more than 0.1 millicuries of radium, or polonium, or that amount of strontium 89, strontium 90, or barium 140 which disintegrates at a rate of more than 5 million atoms per second; or that amount of any other radioactive substance which disintegrates at a rate of more than 50 million atoms per second.

(e) The package must be such that no significant alpha, beta, or neutron radiation is emitted from the exterior of the package and the gamma radiation at any surface of the package must be less than 10 milliroentgens for 24 hours.

(f) The design and preparation of the package of radioactive material must be such that there will be no significant radioactive surface contamination of any part of the container. Liquids must be packed in tight glass, earthenware, or other suitable inside containers surrounded by an absorbent material sufficient to absorb the entire liquid contents and of such nature that its efficiency will not be impaired by chemical reaction with the contents.

38. Television picture tubes (cathode ray).—(a) Good quality television tubes not containing beryllium or other toxic phosphors and contained in cartons within the 100-inch size limit, are classed as mailable. They must be properly cushioned and positioned in a strong shipping carton which cannot be penetrated by flying glass in case of breakage of the tube, such as a carton of 200-pound test double-faced corrugated fiberboard with all flaps touching and securely fastened.

(b) The face of the tube, which is usually carried face down in cartons of the larger sizes, should be protected by a pad of wadding and two spring type supports of the same stock material as the shipping carton arranged so that the ends of the supports fill in all four sides of the bottom of the carton, or by other equivalent interior packing of corrugated fiberboard. If the inner flaps of the shipping carton do not touch, this deficiency must be compensated for in the inner fiberboard packing. The spring type supports or other packing must provide not less than 1 inch of air space between the face of the tube and the bottom of the shipping carton; not less than $\frac{3}{4}$ of an inch air space on the sides, and not less than $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches of air space on top. If excelsior is used to cushion the face of the tube and sides thereof, the thickness of excelsior must be twice the air space specified. Shredded or crumpled newspapers or other similar cushioning agents are not approved in lieu of excelsior on tubes of 10 inch size or larger.

(c) The tube must be held in a fixed position in the carton by means of a full-sized support of the same stock material as the shipping carton or by other equivalent inner packing. This support may be die cut to fit snugly over the tube, and folded back so as to form a triangular-shaped pad fitting snugly on all sides of the box, or the equivalent in partitions, pads, molds, etc., of corrugated fiberboard of same stock or shipping carton may be used. Use of corrugated partitions, protruding $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches above the base of the tube as a protective measure is recommended.

(d) The Radio and Television Manufacturers Association has devised cartons similar to the ones described herein which have been approved for mailing after being subjected to certain laboratory tests.

(Note.—Those cartons will be sacked when size permits).

39. Diseased tissues and other specimens.—(a) Specimens of diseased tissues, blood, serum, and cultures of pathogenic micro-organisms may be admitted to the mail for transmission to United States, State, municipal, or other laboratories in possession of permits issued by the Solicitor, certifying that said laboratory has been found to be entitled to receive such specimens only when enclosed in mailing cases as prescribed in this article. However, bacteriologic or unfixed pathologic specimens of plague and cholera shall not be admitted to the mails except when prepared specifically as follows:

(b) Pathologic specimens of plague and cholera which have been immersed for at least 72 hours in four times their volume of 4 percent formaldehyde gas in water, or other fluid of equal or superior disinfecting power for a period sufficient to fix or harden the central portions of the specimen, may be admitted to the mails if packed in the same manner as herein prescribed for other unfixed pathologic tissues in paragraphs (d), (e), and (f) of this article.

(c) Cultures and infectious material of plague, cholera, anthrax, undulant fever, and tularemia may be admitted to the mails if enclosed in stout glass tubes sealed by fusion of the glass and packed in a larger stout glass container with a layer of absorbent cotton soaked in 4-percent formaldehyde surrounding the inner container. The outer glass container shall be closed with a rubber stopper or cork of good quality or by fusion of the glass. This double glass container shall then be packed in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (e) and (f) of this article.

(d) Specimens of sputum, feces, pus, unfixed diseased tissue, or other infectious material fluid in nature or shipped with nondisinfected fluid shall be placed in stout glass containers of suitable size (but not more than 3 inches in diameter) closed with a metal cover having a rubber, cork, or paraffined paper leakproof washer or with a cork or rubber stopper of good quality, or by fusing the glass. Large fixed specimens of diseased tissue may be prepared for shipment outside mail bags when packed in accordance with the provisions of the following paragraph.

(e) The aforesaid glass container shall then be placed in any of the following described containers: (1) a cylindrical sheet-metal box with soldered joints, closed by a metal screw cover; (2) a paraffin-impregnated heavy cardboard container, with ends made of metal or a suitable substitute. A sleeve type of closure may be employed provided that the overlap is at least one-third the length of the cylinder and in any case at least 2 inches. The closure shall be sealed with tape; or (3) a one-piece bored wooden cylinder at least three-sixteenths of an inch thick in its thinnest part with a threaded screw top.

The screw-top covers shall be provided with rubber or felt washers and shall be threaded with sufficient screw threads to require at least one and one-half full turns before they will come off.

The glass tubes in the above containers shall be completely and evenly surrounded by absorbent cotton or other suitable absorbent in quantity sufficient to absorb the contents of the glass container if broken.

(f) The sheet-metal box with its contents shall then be enclosed in a closely fitting wooden or papier-mache box or tube, at least three-sixteenths of an inch thick at its thinnest part, or in a sheet-metal box or tube of sufficient strength to resist rough handling and support the weight of the mails piled in bags. The tube shall be tightly closed with a screw-top cover with sufficient screw threads to require at least one and one-half full turns before it will come off.

(g) (1) Cultures in solid media, blood, serum, spinal fluid, fixed and completely disinfected diseased tissue, and infectious materials on swabs shall be transmitted in a stout glass container of suitable size (but not more than 3 inches in diameter), closed with a plastic or metal cover having a rubber, cork, or paraffined paper washer, or with a stopper of rubber, paraffined cork, or cotton, the last sealed with paraffin or covered with a tightly fitting rubber cap. The tube shall then be packed in a single wooden or papier-mache cylindrical box or tube, at least three-sixteenths of an inch thick in its thinnest part, or in a sheet-metal box or tube of sufficient strength to resist rough handling and support the weight of the mails piled in bags. The glass container in this box or tube shall be completely and evenly surrounded by absorbent cotton or other suitable absorbent packing material. Cultures in media that are fluid at the ordinary temperature (below 45° C. or 113° F.) may be mailed if packed in stout glass vials closed by fusing the glass and enclosed as in paragraphs (e) and (f) of this article.

(2) Large specimens of fixed diseased tissue shall be placed in securely sealed glass containers, or in securely closed (hermetically sealed or screw-top or approved patent-top) metal containers with the necessary preservative fluid. The container shall be surrounded by sawdust or other suitable absorbent material to protect against breakage or leakage.

(h) Specimens of blood dried on glass microscopic slides for the diagnosis of malaria or typhoid fever by the Widal test or of other conditions shall be sent in any strong mailing case which is not liable to breakage or loss of the specimen in transit.

(i) Large pathological specimens of fixed disease tissue and shipments of large numbers of small specimens may be prepared for shipment outside mail bags. Small specimens of sputum, blood, serum, spinal fluid, pus, feces, fixed or unfixed diseased tissue, or other material fluid in nature or shipped with fluid, forming part of such a shipment shall be placed in stout glass containers as in paragraph (d) of this article and individually evenly wrapped in absorbent cotton or other suitable absorbent material in sufficient quantity to absorb all the fluid in case of breakage. Small and large specimens so prepared shall be shipped in a strong, securely closed box endorsed in accordance with article 59 (j), and marked "Specimen for Bacteriological Examination", and be transported outside mail bags.

(j) Upon the outside of every package of diseased tissue, blood, serum, or cultures of pathogenic micro-organisms admitted to the mails shall be written or printed the words, "Specimen for bacteriological examination. This package shall be pouched with letter mail," except that when dispatch is made to non-stop trains in catcher pouches or large specimens or shipments are prepared as prescribed in paragraph (i) of this article they shall be marked "Specimen for Bacteriological Examination."

40. Live day-old fowl.—(a) Live baby chicks, ducks, geese, guinea fowl, and turkeys shall be accepted for mailing in the continental surface mails when: (1) They are presented for mailing in the original unopened hatchery box from the hatchery of origin; (2) the date and hour of hatching is noted on the box by a representative of the hatchery who has personal knowledge thereof (in the case of c. o. d. shipments made by a hatchery for the accounts of others, the name and address of the hatchery shall be prominently shown in connection with this requirement); (3) they are not over 24 hours old; (4) the box is properly ventilated and is of proper construction and strength to bear safe transmission in the mails; and (5) they can be delivered to the addressee within 60 hours from the time of hatching.

(b) All shipments must be sent special handling or special delivery and may be insured or sent c. o. d. It is desirable that each box bear in addition to the address label on top another address label on the side, or on the narrow end, if the box is rectangular in shape, to eliminate unnecessary handling when the boxes are stacked.

(c) No shipments shall be accepted if delivery, in case of missed connections, should fall on a Sunday, national holiday, or the afternoon preceding a Sunday or holiday. Shipments must be confined to areas in which delivery can be effected within 60 hours from the time of hatching. Shipments to distant points, which involve making certain connections, should not be made on Friday nor in some cases on Thursday. Such shipments should be made from Saturday to Wednesday and the Thursday and Friday shipments which involve making certain connections must be limited to nearby points to insure delivery not later than Saturday morning. This also applies to shipments made prior to holidays.

(d) Delay may be encountered at the office of address when the addressee resides on a rural or star route especially when the route does not operate daily. The baby fowl may be received at such office within the 60-hour period but if they arrive after the carrier has departed, a further delay of from 24 to over 48 hours might be involved. Therefore, shippers should ascertain from customers on rural or star routes the days of delivery on such routes before making shipment.

(NOTE.—Possibly advertisements of baby fowl could request this information and shipments should then be made at such times as would avoid delay in delivery.)

(e) Shipments shall not be forwarded to the addressee from the office of original address nor returned to sender if delivery cannot be made to either the addressee or sender within 60 hours of the time of hatching. Shipments that are delayed beyond the 60-hour limit by washouts, snow blockades, wrecks, and the like, will be disposed of by postmasters in accordance with instructions in paragraph (f) of this notice.

(f) If a shipment cannot be returned to the sender in accordance with the foregoing instructions, it will be sold to the best advantage possible and the amount realized therefrom, less a commission of 10 percent, but in no case less than 15 cents, transmitted to the sender with a statement of the facts in the case. Postage-due stamps representing the amount retained as a commission for the sale of the articles—that is, 10 percent of the proceeds, but in no case less than 15 cents—will be affixed to the parcel or to a tag or sheet of paper attached to the article, canceled, and delivered with the matter to the purchaser. Sale will not be made to the addressee except under the conditions set forth in paragraph (g) of this article.

(g) If a shipment is received at the office of address and it is not promptly accepted by the addressee, it will be held for delivery until the expiration of the 60-hour period from the time of hatching, if there is a possibility that delivery may be effected within that period. If, at the expiration of the 60-hour period, the shipment has not been accepted, it will be sold and the proceeds disposed of as above stated. Such shipments will not be sold to the original addressee unless paid for in full. If the parcel is sent collect-on-delivery, the c. o. d. charges plus the money-order fee will show the minimum amount which may be accepted from the addressee, which is the amount that would have been collected from the addressee had the parcel been accepted when originally offered for delivery. If the parcel is sent as ordinary or insured mail and the price is not known to the postmaster, the addressee will not be permitted to buy the chicks after refusing to accept them.

(h) Boxes of baby fowl of approximately the same size or shape which are securely fastened together to prevent their becoming separated in transit may be accepted for mailing as a single parcel provided such parcel does not exceed 100 inches in length and girth combined. Three regular size boxes would exceed the 100-inch limit.

(i) Day old fowl originally shipped by air express or air cargo and then presented for mailing must be in first-class condition and be prepared in accordance with instructions in paragraph (a). They must not be over 24 hours old at time of mailing.

41. Harmless live creatures.—(a) (1) Baby alligators not exceeding 20 inches in length, baby terrapin or baby turtles, not exceeding $2\frac{1}{4}$ inches in length, bloodworms, chameleons, earthworms, frogs, goldfish packed in moss, hellgrammites, horned toads, hydras, leeches, lizards, meal worms, newts, planaria, salamanders, shellfish, snails, soft crabs, soft crawfish, and tadpoles may be sent in the mails to points they may reasonably be expected to reach in good condition, provided they have been lawfully taken or raised and their shipment is not prohibited by law of the United States or of the State in which they were taken, raised or offered for shipment. They must be properly prepared for safe transmission without damage to other mails. The containers must be labeled "Perishable" and the nature of the contents marked thereon.

(2) The foregoing live creatures, except soft crabs, shall be properly prepared for mailing so as to withstand handling inside of sacks or pouches, if size of parcel permits, during period from October 1 to May 31, of each year. Such parcels weighing over 8 ounces will be dispatched as outside matter from June 1 to September 30 but parcels weighing 8 ounces or less shall be sacked or pouched all year.

(b) Laboratory animals, such as hamsters, white mice, rats, guinea pigs, or rabbits; as well as kittens, puppies, snakes, chickens, flying squirrels, partridges, parakeets, canaries, quail, pheasants, pigeons, etc., are nonmailable.

42. Queen bees and honey bees.—(a) Queen bees and their attendant bees, when accompanied with a copy of a certificate of the current year from a State or Government apiaary inspector to the effect that the apiary from which said queen bees are shipped is free from disease, or with a copy of a statement by the beekeeper made before a notary public or other officer having a seal that the honey used in making the candy contained in the queen mailing cage has been diluted and boiled in a closed vessel, or that the candy is made of invert sugar, may be sent in the mails when so put up as to render it practically impossible for the package to be broken in transit, or the persons handling the same to be injured, or the mail bags or their contents to be soiled.

(b) Honey bees in quantities may be sent in the mails under the same conditions as are prescribed for queen bees and their attendant bees when delivery can be made to the addressee within 5 days. If the cages are wooden, the material of which they are constructed shall be not less than three-eighths of an inch thick and the saw cuts or space between slats shall be not over one-eighth of an inch wide; if wire screen is used for the sides of the cages the screen may be of one thickness. Semiliquid food consisting of sugar sirup enclosed in a tin can with small holes in the bottom of the can to permit proper leakage of the food supply may be placed in the cages. The food can shall be securely suspended in the cage with the top of the can wedged against the top of the cage. Cleats approximately 1 inch high shall be securely fastened on the bottom of the cages to prevent the escape therefrom of any sirup that the bees may fail to consume. Each cage shall be provided with a suitable handle and be marked on the top "THIS SIDE UP." The cages shall be of sufficient strength and proper construction to permit stacking. The handles on top of the cages shall be compensated for by wood strips or the equivalent thereof when necessary to prevent the cages from toppling over when stacked. Such parcels are transported outside mail bags.

43. Other insects.—(a) Other live insects which are not poisonous or disease conveying, when addressed to the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, United States Department of Agriculture, or to departments or divisions of Entomology in State agriculture colleges, or experiment stations, or to persons holding official entomology positions, or when accompanied by a permit issued by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, U. S. Department of Agriculture, authorizing their interstate movement may be sent in the mails when so put up as to render it practically impossible for the package to be broken in transit, or the persons handling the same to be injured, or the mail bags or their contents to be soiled.

(b) Dried insects and dried reptiles may be mailed when similarly packed.
NOTE.—Special services.—(a) Insurance and Collect-on-Delivery service.—Live day-old chicks, day-old ducks, day-old geese, day-old guinea fowl, day-old turkeys, queen bees and their attendant bees, honey bees, and harmless live animals, mailed under the conditions set forth in the preceding paragraphs of this section may be accepted for Insurance or Collection-on-Delivery, and indemnity in connection therewith will be paid in accordance with the provisions of sections 64.38 to 64.41 and 119.1 to 119.4, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948.

(b) Special Delivery or Special Handling postage must be paid on all parcels containing day-old chicks, ducklings, guinea fowl, turkeys, package bees carried outside mail bags, or baby alligators which, because of their character, must be given special attention in handling, in transportation, and in delivery.

44. Meats and meat products, except horse meat.—The sender of any fresh, salted, dried, smoked, or cured meats and other meat products derived wholly or in part from cattle, sheep, swine, or goats shall furnish the postmaster at the time of mailing a certificate showing that such meat or meat product has been either inspected and passed or exempted from inspection according to Federal law. The required certificates are in three forms as follows:

45. Horse meat and products thereof.—Horse meat and food products thereof may be accepted only when labeled or marked "Horse meat" or "Horse meat products" and accompanied with the general certificate prescribed for other meats, suitably changed to read "Horse meat" instead of "Meat or meat-food products."

(NOTE.—The regulations of the Department of Agriculture provide that the domestic meat labels for horse meat or meat-food products thereof shall be printed on paper light green in color. The legend composing the body of each label shall be as follows: "The horse meat or meat-food products thereof contained herein has been United States inspected and passed by the Department of Agriculture," and in lieu of the phrase "domestic meat label" there shall be printed thereon the phrase "domestic horse meat or horse-meat product.")

46. Dead wild animals or birds.—The dead bodies, or parts thereof, of any wild animals or birds, or the eggs of any such birds are acceptable for mailing only when they have been lawfully killed or taken and their shipment is not prohibited by law of the United States or of the State, Territory, District, or foreign country or subdivision thereof in which killed or taken or offered for shipment.

The parcel must be clearly marked, labeled, or tagged on the outside with the names and addresses of sender and addressee, and with an accurate statement of the contents by number and kind. Parcels containing fresh game shall be endorsed "Perishable." (See articles 22 and 24 as to preparation for mailing.)

47. Furs, hides, or skins.—(a) Parcels containing furs, hides, or skins of wild animals may be accepted for mailing only when properly dried, and plainly marked, labeled, or tagged on the outside with the names and addresses of the shipper and the addressee, together with such other endorsement, if any, as may be required by the game laws of the State, Territory, or District in which mailed.

(b) Furs shipped out of Alaska by mail.—It will be the duty of each postmaster in Alaska to furnish report blanks to persons who present furs for mailing and to see that no furs are sent through his office to outside points until the shipper has filled out the blank and signed the certificate as to the correctness of the report, and the postmaster has placed his signature under the words "Transmitted to the Alaska Game Commission, Juneau, Alaska." No unprimed skin should be accepted; and if a shipment contains beaver or marten skins, the statement shall show the serial number of the Alaska Game Commission's seal attached to each skin. The postmaster will then dispatch the shipment of furs as addressed without examining the contents for the purpose of verifying the shipper's report and will mail the report under cover of an official penalty envelope addressed "Alaska Game Commission, Juneau, Alaska."

Each package in which game animals, game birds, land fur-bearing animals, or parts thereof are transported shall have clearly and conspicuously marked on the outside thereof the names and addresses of the consignor and consignee, an accurate statement of the number of each kind of game animals, game birds, land fur-bearing animals, or parts thereof contained therein; and if the package contains skins of beavers or marten, the serial numbers of the commission's seal attached thereto shall also be similarly marked on the package.

Postmasters should not permit their supplies of the report form to become exhausted, but in due time should make requisitions upon the Alaska Game Commission, for specific quantities.

The foregoing does not in any way relieve postmasters from exercising every possible precaution to prevent the acceptance for mailing of furs, the shipment of which is prohibited by law.

48. Mailable hides and pelts which are thoroughly dried or cured and have no offensive odor, shall be so wrapped as to prevent grease soaking through the package and damaging other mail matter.

48½. (a) Bare root nursery stock.—(1) The roots of bare root nursery stock consisting of, but not limited to, the following: Trees, shrubs, vines, and ground covers, berry plants, perennials, roses, evergreens, must be packed in a wettable, moisture-retaining material. Sphagnum moss is probably the most satisfactory material, but shingle tow (fine shavings from shingles cut across the grain), peat moss, and other like material may be used as a mixture or alone. This packing material must be wet enough and of sufficient bulk at shipping point to maintain a moist condition about the roots throughout the period the shipment is in transit.

(2) The wettable packing material and the roots or butts of the plants must be wrapped or boxed in a waterproof material heavy enough to withstand safe transmission in the mails without leakage or loss of packing material. The term "waterproof material" means a tar-centered paper or kraft paper waxed on one side or a kraft paper with a waxed or tarred paper liner or plastic wrap. If a box is used, it must have a waxed or similar lining to prevent leakage or loss of contents and to insure retaining a moisture content for the roots of the plants without weakening the box.

(3) The tops of all bundles must be wrapped with a covering of paper, straw or similar material to protect the plant from injury and drying out and if the plant has thorns or other pointed projections, the wrapper shall be punctureproof to avoid injury to postal employees handling such bundles.

(4) All bundles, boxes or similar containers must be either tied, stapled, sealed with tape or a glue or tar in such a manner as to prevent loss or exposure of contents in transit.

(5) Mailings must be confined to offices which the stock may reasonably be expected to reach in good condition and with the roots in a moist condition. These mailings should be made at such times as will avoid week-end delay in delivery at destination. This matter is not classed as perishable under the definition of perishable matter given in Article 22 and must not be labeled perishable.

(NOTE.—For regulations relating to plant quarantine see arts. 73 through 78, ch. III.)

GENERAL PACKING REGULATIONS AND SPECIFICATIONS

49. Fragile articles.—All parcels containing articles easily breakable are required to be marked "Fragile" before being acceptable for mailing. Articles consisting wholly or in part of glass, or contained in glass, may be marked "Glass" in lieu of "Fragile," in addition to any other required endorsements. Parcels consisting of nonfragile articles shall not be marked "Fragile." Among articles classed as fragile are amber, cameras, chinaware, cigars, clocks, compotes, crockery, delicate mechanisms, dolls, drawings, electrical appliances, fans, flowers, fluorescent tubes, fountain pens (not unbreakable), glassware, incandescent lamps, instruments of precision, jewelry, lamps and shades, maps, millinery, musical instruments, paintings, pipes, plaster-of-paris or clay articles, certain plastic articles or items having a plastic case; pottery, porcelain, plumes, radios and tubes, easily broken phonograph records, thermometers, certain toys, watches, and wax articles.

50. Packing fragile articles.—Articles easily broken or marred must be securely packed in strong shipping boxes of metal, wood, or fiberboard, with ample approved cushioning material completely surrounding each article, when necessary to prevent damage. A 200-pound test fiberboard carton is usually adequate for fragile articles under 30 pounds in gross weight while a 175-pound test carton may be adequate when gross weight does not exceed 5 pounds, provided the inner packing strengthens the carton. Lightweight items such as stemware, millinery, etc., or heavy hardware items, may require a stronger carton. While the amount of required cushioning material will vary with the nature of the item or items packed, generally a minimum of $\frac{1}{4}$ of an inch between the items and on the sides of the box is necessary with more cushioning required on bottom and top. Air space formed by corrugated molds, or individual compartments formed by good quality corrugated partitions with extended tips and top and bottom pads or trays, are acceptable in lieu of cushioning material for some articles. An inner liner of double wall or possibly doublefaced corrugated fiberboard is preferable for some articles in lieu of the extended tips of partitions. Nontest corrugated fiberboard is not approved for partitions or liners used to strengthen the shipping box.

51. Articles subject to damage.—(a) Packaging.—The following general instructions in paragraphs (b) to (f) apply to good quality articles, as articles of poor quality or inferior manufacture may be subject to excessive damage and it is considered impracticable to write packaging instructions relating thereto. Furthermore, the strength of carton required and amount of cushioning needed will vary with the weight, size and nature of the article or articles shipped as well as distance involved in the shipment and amount of handling involved. A parcel addressed to a distant zone which may be handled at several transfer points, possibly over mechanical conveyor systems, will ordinarily require better packaging than a parcel addressed to a nearby point. The general instructions should be considered accordingly and are to be used only as a guide by the mailer who is required to properly package his shipments to prevent loss or damage in transit.

(b) Cameras must be individually cushioned in a strong shipping carton as outlined in article 50.

(c) Chinaware or earthenware.—Must be individually cushioned. If hay or straw is used, at least $\frac{3}{4}$ inch cushioning should be used on the four sides of the box, about 1 inch on top and 1½ inches on the bottom. Each piece must be properly spaced and cushioned to avoid strain or damage to other pieces. Breakage of one article when packed with straw or similar cushioning material may result in general loosening of other articles in the carton with further damage. If corrugated interior packing is used such as trays, pads, partitions, compartments, etc., such cells or partitions must form complete compartments so items do not touch wall of shipping carton or each other. Flexible packing pads between each item of the same size may be used in nesting. The more fragile items such as cups should be in cells with extended tips. The weight of the upper compartments should be borne by the corrugated packing and not by the articles in the lower compartments. About a 1-inch space should be provided on the bottom by rat-trap-type pads, or corrugated pads. Protection on top may be provided in a similar manner. The articles should not fit tightly in the cells as some play should be allowed such as ¼ or ½ of an inch. The fragility of these articles is dependent on composition and manufacture, and therefore some articles, especially low-priced pottery, will break very easily and require packing similar to that for stemware shown in paragraph (g) (2).

(d) Cigars.—Must be in good shipping condition (not too dry) and be firmly packed in the box. Partially filled boxes should have cushioning material therein to prevent shifting of contents. The boxes should be enclosed in a strong corrugated fiberboard shipping carton to prevent damage by crushing or shock.

(e) Electrical appliances such as toasters of the pop-up type should be packed in accordance with requirements for radios in paragraph (n). Grills, waffle irons, etc., should be packed similar to requirements for chinaware in paragraph (c).

(f) (1) Glass, flat, or mirrors, should be protected on each side by strong corrugated pads, boards, or other stiff material, and then cushioned in a strong shipping carton, similar to packing shown in paragraph (m) (1). Packing shown in paragraph (l) (1) may be adequate for small window glass.

(2) Auto glass.—A new type interior packing for auto glass consisting of multiwall corrugated board or heavy kraft board mold protecting all edges of the glass and providing about ¾ inch of air space on either side of the glass appears to carry successfully provided a strong shipping carton such as a one-piece folder of 350-pound test corrugated board with overlapping flaps on three sides is used and the flaps are securely fastened together to form a strong, rigid parcel which will not place a strain on the glass.

(3) Glass refrigerator trays must be adequately cushioned on all sides and on top and bottom. Corrugated cardboard trays on top and bottom and corrugated spring pads, rat-trap-type pads or molds on the sides may be used. About 1-inch air space is desirable or 1½ inches of cushioning material. A 200-pound test corrugated carton is usually adequate, if supported by full-length inner packing. If the inner packing consists of soft cushioning material or short lengths of corrugated material, a stronger carton may be indicated.

(g) Glassware and stemware.—(1) Glassware may be packed in accordance with requirements for chinaware in paragraph (c) if of similar fragility. Good quality tumblers may require as inner packing, corrugated partitions with extended tips and top and bottom corrugated pads, while more fragile items may require packing indicated in the following paragraph.

(2) Stemware may be very fragile and in case of faulty manufacture may be affected by temperature or climatic changes. About 1½ inches of air space on bottom and 1 inch on top, and ¾ inch on sides is preferable. Corrugated flanged fiberboard trays are usually required on the bottom rather than rat-trap-type pads which may transmit shock, while a reverse slotted carton will protect the sides. Strong corrugated compartments may be used to separate the individual items, or they may be rolled in cushioning material. If hay or straw is used as interior packing, see packing for chinaware in paragraph (c). Due to bulky lightweight nature of stemware, an exceptionally strong shipping carton is required such as a 200-pound test corrugated box if supported by good-quality interior corrugated compartments, or a 275-pound test carton if hay or straw is used or if interior packing does not reinforce the carton.

(h) Lamps, fluorescent (48-inch).—These tubes are usually packed 24 to a carton of corrugated fiberboard. They must be protected by two thicknesses thereof, such as a 200-pound test corrugated carton with overlapping side flaps and full length corrugated pads of the same stock protecting the other two sides, with not less than three thicknesses of corrugated pads (nontest) protecting the ends. The tubes must be individually separated by means other than the paper sleeve usually placed around each tube and be kept away from the walls of the shipping carton. The separation may be effected by corrugated or pulpboard trays properly spaced and formed which hold the tubes in a fixed position, or by pads of cushioning material. A 275-pound test double-wall corrugated carton with top and bottom pads is approved in lieu of the 200-pound test carton with overlapping flaps and two inner pads.

(i) Incandescent lamps are usually packed in a paper sleeve and a number thereof placed in a light paperboard carton. Due to the bulky lightweight nature of these lamps, an exceptionally strong carton is required. Furthermore, the paperboard cartons should not touch the walls, top, or bottom of the shipping carton. An inner liner of corrugated board plus top and bottom corrugated pads or cushioning material is most effective.

(j) Millinery or men's felt hats.—Due to the lightweight bulky nature of hats, an exceptionally strong shipping carton such as a 275-pound test corrugated fiberboard carton is preferable. This must be of sufficient size to permit proper spacing and cushioning of the hats therein. A 200-pound test carton might be adequate for local mailings and a 175-pound test inner liner could be used to reinforce such carton for more distant shipments. Fragile trimmings such as feathers must be properly cushioned and protected against shifting or weight of other hats. Pasteboard boxes are not acceptable as shipping containers. Due to the highly seasonal nature of some millinery it is advisable that shipments to distant zones be sent special handling or special delivery.

(k) Musical instruments must be well cushioned in wooden or strong solid or double-faced corrugated fiberboard boxes. When rigid individual containers or cases are used, the instruments must first be cushioned in these separate containers when possible, before being packed in the outside container.

(l) Phonograph records.—(1) Fragile (shellac type) records (10" or larger).—Quantity.—Not to exceed 25 in individual sleeves in one carton, or not to exceed 50 in two or more individual cartons packed in an outer carton.

Cushioning.—Two full-size pads of good quality corrugated fiberboard on top and two on bottom of records, but if quantity exceeds 17 records a pad shall also be placed in the center, together with an inner liner of good quality double-wall corrugated fiberboard with vertical corrugations of sufficient height to protect the records. The corrugations in one pad shall run at right angles to the corrugations in the adjoining pad. In lieu of these pads and liner, adequate firmly packed approved cushioning material may be used and is recommended for rare or valuable records.

Container.—A slotted carton, one-piece folder, or double sleeve, all of corrugated fiberboard testing not less than 200 pounds per square inch (Cady or Mullen tester), or their equivalent in other cartons provided proper cushioning is used to compensate for the difference in cartons. The corrugations in one sleeve shall run at right angles to the corrugations in the other, if a double sleeve is used.

Closure.—All outside seams of the container or containers to be securely sealed with 60-pound kraft gummed paper tape; the flaps securely glued, or otherwise properly fastened.

Albums shall be packed in the same manner.

Records should not be packed too tightly together nor should the edges be tight against the inner liner.

The outer container shall be marked "FRAGILE—PHONOGRAPH RECORDS" except that fragile records with 16-inch diameter or larger shall be labeled in accordance with article 59 (c) and (d).

(2) Flexible (vinylite) records (10" or larger).—Quantity.—Not to exceed 25 records in individual sleeves in one carton, or not to exceed 100 records in four or more individual cartons packed in an outer carton.

Cushioning.—One full-size pad of good quality corrugated fiberboard on top and one on bottom of records, but if quantity exceeds 17 records a pad shall also be placed in the center, and with corrugations running in proper direction to insure maximum strength of container.

Container.—Same requirements as for containers for fragile records, except when gross weight exceeds 50 pounds, a 275-pound test outer container shall be used.

Closure.—Same requirements as for closure for fragile records, except when individual containers are packed in an outer container, only the center seams of the individual containers need be sealed with gummed paper tape.

Albums shall be packed in the same manner.

Records should not be packed too tightly nor should edges be tight against the container.

As an exception to the foregoing, a good quality heavy kraft envelope may be used in lieu of a fiberboard container for not to exceed seven 16-inch records cushioned on top and bottom by a pad of 200-pound test corrugated fiberboard with cross dimensions the same or slightly larger than the diameter of the records and with corrugations in one board running at right angles to corrugations in the other board. The flap end of the onvelope shall be reinforced with a strip of 3-inch kraft gummed paper tape extending at least 2 inches on each side of the front of the envelope.

The outer container shall be marked "PHONOGRAPH RECORDS" except that records with 21-inch diameter or larger shall be labeled in accordance with article 59 (c) and (d). The word "FRAGILE" shall not be used.

(3) Aluminum base records.—Same requirements as for flexible records except a kraft envelope may not be used.

(m) (1) Framed photographs, pictures, drawings, paintings, and maps with glass fronts must be protected on both sides with stiff material, preferably boards, and packed in strong wooden or fiberboard (solid or double-faced corrugated) boxes, cushioned with excelsior or crushed paper, or preferably with air spaces formed by double-faced fiberboard molds or cells at least 2 inches wide by 1½ inches high, placed so they will not shift, four each on the top and bottom and one over and one under each flat surface of the frame. (To afford better protection to rare or valuable pictures, the glass may be packed at the back of the frame so as to prevent damage to the picture in case of breakage of the glass.)

(2) Flat unframed mounted photographs, pictures, drawings, paintings, maps, or other matter which would be damaged by folding or bending, or by weight of other mail, must be protected by strong stiffening material preferably a board which must project beyond all sides of the article itself, or be enclosed between two sheets of strong double-faced corrugated fiberboard the full size of the article with the corrugations in one board running at right angles to the corrugations in the other board. Sheets of paperboard may suffice for small, somewhat flexible matter, including X-ray film. Similar matter, when rolled, must be enclosed in a strong mailing tube or carefully rolled around a strong, smooth, round stick of greater length than the matter itself and be well wrapped and fastened.

(3) Photographs not exceeding 8 by 10 inches in size, in flexible photo mounts or without the mounts, are acceptable in heavy duty mailing folders made into the form of an envelope with locking tuck in end flap, composed of strong, flexible kraft lined paperboard with bursting strength of not less than 266 pounds (Mullen or Cady tester) through the empty folder.

(4) Matter which would not be damaged by folding or bending, or weight of other mail, does not require stiffening material but must not be marked "Do not Bend or Fold."

(n) (1) Radios must be packed in strong containers such as a fiberboard box with at least 2 inches of firmly packed cushioning material such as shredded paper or excelsior on all six sides completely surrounding the radio unless a factory carton of not less than 200-lb. test corrugated fiberboard approved for shipment by parcel post with approved inner cushioning by means of good quality spring pads, molds, etc., which provide not less than ¾ of an inch air space on all six sides is used. Better packing would be two containers, each of double-faced corrugated fiberboard, one within the other, the inside container holding the radio to be cushioned with a form or mold of double-faced corrugated fiberboard to form a 2-inch cushion of air on all six sides. In lieu of such forms or molds, shredded paper or excelsior may be used in sufficient quantity to keep the inner container 2 inches from all inner walls of the outside container.

(2) Portable or other radios with plastic or lightweight cases which contain a dry battery are acceptable only if the battery is held in a fixed and immovable position therein by means other than the radio case and if it cannot damage the radio regardless of the position thereof. If not so constructed, the battery must be removed from the case and packed so that it cannot shift or damage the radio in transit. A separate compartment is indicated for the battery which compartment must keep the weight of the battery off the radio regardless of the position of the shipping carton.

(o) Radio or television tubes (not picture tubes) should be individually cushioned in a strong shipping carton as prescribed in article 50. Single tubes may be packed in the manner prescribed in paragraph (r) (1).

(p) Shell lamps, figurines.—Packing similar to that required for stemware in paragraph (g) (2) is required. These articles must be packed to withstand handling in any position without damage.

(q) Silverware must be individually wrapped if subject to damage from scratching. Cabinets must be cushioned in a strong corrugated fiberboard carton or its equivalent to avoid damage. Cabinet hinges are usually weak points, and the packaging must eliminate strain therefrom.

(r) (1) Spectacles, fountain pens, and watches must be completely surrounded with cushioning material and enclosed in a strong rigid box such as a strong double-faced corrugated fiberboard box or one of equal strength. For fountain pens and watches, when an inside container is used and space permits, soft cushioning material must also be placed next to the article. For spectacles a fully telescoping cardboard box or one of equal strength lined on top and bottom and the two long sides with double-faced corrugated fiberboard with the top lining resting on the upper edges of the side lining, or a strong fully telescoping fiberboard box or a wooden box must be used as the outside container. The spectacles must be cushioned in the metal case or other inside container with soft cushioning material, and the inside container cushioned in the outside container so that the spectacles and the inside container will have no loose motion but remain in fixed position. Adequate air space formed by molds or trays of fiberboard is satisfactory in lieu of cushioning material. Rimless spectacles usually carry best when the metal case is omitted and they are packed in ample soft cushioning material in an outside container such as described above.

(2) Fountain pens, ball point pens, and mechanical pencils of the nondestructible type (represented by their manufacturers to be unbreakable) may be accepted for mailing when wrapped in a roll of single-faced corrugated board to form a round firm parcel and securely fastened. A fragile label may not be used.

52. Other articles, packing of.—(a) General.—The following general instructions as to packaging in paragraphs (b) to (h) are printed as a guide for the mailer who is required to properly package his shipments to prevent loss or damage in transit. (See article 53 as to containers.)

(b) Books.—New books in quantities should have the edges well protected with stiff material and be packed to prevent shifting in the carton with possible resulting damage to other books. A strong fiberboard carton with inner liner, or the equivalent, is required. Single lightweight books may be protected on top and bottom by strong corrugated pads or other stiffening material and then wrapped in strong paper and fastened. They may also be enclosed in a strong mailing folder of fiberboard. Used books in small quantities may be wrapped in several thicknesses of newspaper and then wrapped in strong kraft paper and securely fastened.

(c) Clothing and similar articles.—(1) Clothing such as coats, dresses, suits, etc., is not acceptable in the flimsy paperboard cartons in which the item is usually placed by the store. These cartons, if contents are firmly packed therein may be accepted if wrapped in substantial paper and securely fastened, or if enclosed in a strong fiberboard carton.

(2) Articles such as towels, slips, dresses, and blouses of nominal value which do not have sharp pins, buckles, buttons, etc., which might be damaged or might damage other mails or injure personnel may be shipped in a strong kraft envelope testing not less than 60 points (Mullen or Cady tester) and measuring not more than 12 by 16 inches, provided the glued flaps are reinforced with gummed paper tape. These parcels should be pressed flat when being sealed to permit the escape of air. These and similar articles may also be wrapped in substantial wrapping paper and securely fastened. Ordinary paper bags are not approved as mailing containers for these articles.

(3) Folding kraft board cartons with the open seams sealed with tape afford better protection than kraft envelopes, while fiberboard cartons are indicated for larger or more expensive articles.

(d) Roll film and flat negatives (acetate safety film).—(1) Rolls of amateur film are frequently found loose in the mails with no address, or money is lost from such mailings, due to the fact that the metal spools cut through the envelope or flimsy wrapper. Ordinary correspondence envelopes are not permitted and postmasters have been instructed to take necessary corrective measures to see that no further mailings of roll film in lightweight envelopes are permitted.

(2) A cloth mailing bag with a strong address tag sewed to the bottom is a good container for spools of film and its use is recommended wherever possible to prevent inconvenience to mailers and to the postal services. Film processing plants are urged to mention the use of such bags in their advertisements and literature. The drawstrings on these bags must be securely tied.

(3) Roll film may be wrapped in sufficient paper to prevent the spool or spools from cutting through and be fastened, and then be placed in a strong kraft or manila mailing envelope, preferably of end flap type. When several rolls are to be mailed and a cloth mailing bag is not used, they should be placed in a small carton and then wrapped in strong paper and securely fastened. Such parcel must be firm with contents held in a fixed position. In lieu of a small carton, the film may be placed between full sized sheets of cardboard and tied or taped, or wrapped in flexible corrugated fiberboard and securely fastened both lengthwise and girthwise, before being wrapped for mailing. If coins are included in the parcel they must be wrapped or securely affixed to a card to prevent loss.

(4) If coins are sent in mailing bags containing spools of film, they should be placed at the end of a spool, when practicable, and wrapped with the roll in strong paper before being placed in the bag. If impracticable to wrap with the film, the money should be wrapped separately in strong paper and fastened and be placed at the ends of the spools opposite the drawstring opening.

(5) Flat negatives (safety film) are mailable in good quality strong envelopes. If coins are included with such negatives they must be securely affixed to a card or be enclosed in a paper wrapper securely folded to prevent shifting of coins in transit and which will not cause the envelope to bulge. Coins must not be placed loose in envelopes, packages, or mailing bags.

(e) (1) Heavy hardware items, machinery parts, castings, bearings, wrenches, and similar matter, should have the closure, if of gummed tape, reinforced when the gross weight exceeds 15 pounds. Mailers are urged to use strong cloth or canvas sacks or strong boxes securely closed for small articles such as bolts, washers, etc., when in considerable quantity, before placing in the shipping box which should be exceptionally strong. Longer items such as wrenches, rods, etc., which have a tendency to cut through the end of the shipping box, should be well packed to prevent shifting, with the ends of the shipping box reinforced if necessary. Other matter which might cut through the walls of the shipping carton must be padded or boxed. The use of adequate cushioning material to reduce the weight of these shipments to less than 60 pounds per cubic foot is recommended.

(2) Items of this nature weighing over 8 pounds or with length exceeding 25 inches, which are clean and have no sharp points, edges or corners which might injure personnel or damage other mail; which are of sufficient strength to withstand weight of other mail, and which can be readily handled by employees, may be transmitted in the mails without wrapping, boxing or crating. Metal articles weighing 8 pounds or less or with length not exceeding 25 inches shall be securely padded inside of a strong shipping container to bear safe transmission in the mails without damage to other mails.

(f) Laundry cases of fiber construction, and metal cases to a lesser extent, are frequently damaged due to lightweight construction and air space contained therein, and address cards are occasionally lost with the result that the case goes to the dead Parcel Post Branch. Light fiber cases should be boxed to insure arrival in good condition. A canvas-covered case with straps around both ends and lengthwise seems to carry satisfactorily, provided the address card is securely glued or secured in the flanged label holder by metal clasps fastened on the inside of the case or by other suitable means. An address holder similar to that used on trunks and suitcases, with a second address inside the case, is suggested.

(g) Flat printed matter or other similar matter which is not securely fastened or boxed but is wrapped and taped, should have the tape closure reinforced when the gross weight exceeds 5 pounds. Bending and shifting contents may cut through the outer wrapper and the use of rigid material securely fastened to the printed matter before it is wrapped to prevent buckling or shifting thereof is recommended. Printed matter which would be damaged by weight of other mail by being bent, dented, or having corners or edges marred, must be protected by adequate stiffening material or be boxed. (See article 51 (m) (2).) The use of kraft envelopes fastened only with a metal clasp, or fiber buttons and twine, is not permitted when contents are heavy or shifting. The metal clasps are responsible for considerable loss of printed matter from envelopes and are the source of injury to personnel. The end flaps should be reinforced with gummed tape or the envelope securely tied. The use of fiberboard boxes is indicated for this matter when in substantial quantity.

(h) Suitcases and handbags should be wrapped in flexible corrugated fiberboard and then in strong kraft paper and fastened, or boxed, if protection from abrasion or scuffing is desired. To prevent damage, such as creasing or splitting on corners, to some types of these items, it is necessary that they be cushioned in a shipping carton of sufficient strength to withstand the weight of other mail. (See paragraph (f) as to using an address tag, with a second address slip inside the item, if it is desired to ship without wrapping or boxing.)

(i) Umbrellas, canes, golf sticks, brooms, mop handles, and similar articles must be reinforced by strips of wood or other suitable material sufficiently strong to prevent breakage in handling and transportation. Mop handles, etc., in considerable quantity and firmly fastened together at a number of points, may not require further reinforcement.

53. Containers.—(a) Boxes.—The use of good quality solid or double-faced corrugated fiberboard boxes is recommended. Wood or metal boxes or cases are preferable for some materials. A box of poor quality or which is improperly packed or fastened often results in damage to or loss of contents. A good average size box has the certificate of the boxmaker printed on the side or bottom which gives the bursting test per square inch. (The size limit and gross weight limit, also shown in the certificate, do not apply to parcel post mail.) These boxes must be firmly packed or they will crush under pressure, but if overpacked they may also burst under pressure. In either case, gummed paper tape applied on the seams of the box will not hold the contents together as would strong twine or other approved banding material. The carton in which an article is received is not necessarily acceptable for a return shipment since such carton may have been weakened on the outward trip or might not have been originally devised for parcel post in accordance with postal regulations. (See article 17 (a) and (b) as to cartons for liquids.)

(b) Mailing tubes must be of sufficient strength to withstand the weight of other mail and protect contents. Metal ends, if used, must be securely affixed to the tube to prevent loosening and exposure or loss of contents. Metal screw covers, if used, must have sufficient screw threads to require at least one and one-half complete turns before coming off. Telescoping tubes shall be securely held together by gummed tape or its equivalent. (See article 52 (c) as to paperboard cartons and wrapped parcels.)

54. Packing materials.—(a) Absorbent materials commonly used are absorbent cotton or cotton padding; cellulose materials such as Kimpak, Celluliner or Tufflox; pulverized paper (not shredded paper); wadded short lengths of soft twine or cord; wiping tissue; blotting paper (for small amounts of liquid), fine vermiculite, and sawdust. (NOTE.—Sawdust and vermiculite will sift out of a damaged carton, permitting contents to shift with possible further damage.)

(b) Cushioning materials commonly used are wood wool or excelsior in pads or loose; shredded paper; cellulose materials such as Kimpak, Celluliner or Tufflox; straw; macerated paper in pads; tissue paper or crumpled newspaper (not recommended for heavy items); sponge rubber (uncontaminated); rubberized hair and/or wool, phenolic resin foam; and felt, in addition to the absorbent materials previously mentioned. Air space formed by corrugated molds, or corrugated compartments is acceptable in lieu of soft cushioning material for some articles as outlined in article 50.

55. Popcorn which has been completely treated with a denaturant so that it will not attract rodents or vermin and which is not classed as food within the meaning of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, is tentatively approved as a cushioning material for such nonliquid articles shipped by mail as would not be damaged by its abrupt cushioning action, provided that a tightly sealed shipping carton is used.

Effects of extreme heat or cold or long storage upon popcorn's cushioning properties are unknown. The loss of volume through settling in transit or storage is also dependent on expansion factor of corn and completeness of denaturing process. Corn which will expand about 30 times the original size will lose more volume than corn with expansion factor of 15. Popcorn incompletely denatured will also lose more volume than completely denatured popcorn. The different expansion factors also affect the cushioning properties. Therefore, damage claims will be examined carefully and damage due to inherent weaknesses of denatured popcorn as a cushioning material as outlined herein may cause rejection of claims.

Popcorn is not an approved absorbent material.

Popcorn is not approved as a cushioning material for liquids due to the excessive loss of volume of popcorn if subjected to liquid in case of accidental breakage.

Popcorn as a food comes within the scope of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and its use as a packing medium would not necessarily remove it from the requirements of that act. Questions as to whether popcorn has been satisfactorily treated so that it is not classed as food within the meaning of the act mentioned should be taken up with the Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Washington 25, D. C.

CLOSURES

56a. Paper tape (water activated and pressure sensitive).—(a) Reasons for failure.—

(1) Reports of damage to parcels sealed with gummed tape which did not hold were made the subject of a Nation-wide survey which disclosed that the tape failures were due to the following factors: Application along the center seams only of boxes but not across the end seams, or on the open seams of wrapped parcels but not across the ends. Use of too lightweight tape. Improper moistening of tape or failure to apply with pressure.

(2) Improper use of gummed tape results in excessive time spent in reconditioning parcels in the postal service as well as damage or loss to the matter mailed in many instances. Unless the tape is applied with palm pressure by the operator immediately after moistening, its efficiency is impaired. The damage survey was made during the summer months when the water used to moisten tape is ordinarily warm and it is known that damage involving taped parcels rises sharply during the winter months and tapers off in the spring and summer. It appears that cold water from a running faucet or from a pan, particularly during cold weather, will not properly moisten tape.

Improper moistening of tape and failure to apply with pressure are usually noticeable. Postmasters have been requested to see that parcels sealed with gummed tape appear to have such tape properly applied before they are accepted.

(3) Improper use of gummed tape may be due to some extent to lack of knowledge as to proper application, moistening, storage, etc. Illustrated literature on the subject is usually available to the user from his supplier or from associations of manufacturers.

(4) Heavy parcels which are underpacked so that the contents shift, or overpacked to a point where they bulge are not acceptable when sealed only with gummed tape. Underpacked parcels which subsequently crush or lose their contents by cutting through the shipping carton, account for a high percentage of damage.

(5) Printed matter wrapped in paper and taped, and heavy hardware items in taped fiberboard boxes, are not adapted to mechanical handling and reinforcement of the tape closure is required above certain weights as hereinafter specified in order to reduce damage.

56b. Types of tape and weight limitations.—In view of damage due to the use of too lightweight tape the following types and widths of tapes should be used and such tapes must equal or exceed any current Federal or Interstate Commerce Commission specification or regulation relating thereto.

(a) Gummed sulphate paper (kraft) tape.—(1) Thirty-five-pound basis weight (500 sheets, 24 by 36 inches) not less than 1½ inches in width for parcels not exceeding 1 pound or on heavier parcels not exceeding 5 pounds if additional strips are applied to be equivalent of 60-pound tape.

(2) Sixty-pound basis weight not less than 2 inches in width for parcels not exceeding 5 pounds, and not less than 3 inches in width for parcels over 5 pounds. Tensile strength shall be not less than 45 pounds per inch of width.

(3) Ninety-pound basis weight, a heavy-duty tape stronger than 60 pounds which is acceptable in same widths in lieu of 60 pound and on certain parcels weighing in excess of 50 pounds.

(4) Gummed waterproof heavy-duty tape or gummed tape consisting of two sheets of paper stock laminated together with reinforcing filaments such as strong cords or strands of fiber imbedded in the binding material lengthwise, which is acceptable in same widths in lieu of 60-pound tape.

(b) Gummed cloth tape not less than 40 units Elmendorf test, 2 inches in width, acceptable in lieu of 3-inch kraft 60-pound tape.

(c) Moisture resistant, pressure-sensitive adhesive tapes, the backs of which do not possess adhesive properties and to which other mail matter will not adhere. The various drafting tapes, masking tapes, and photographic tapes are not suitable as sealing tapes for parcel post. (NOTE.—These pressure-sensitive tapes are not approved for use on registered mail.)

(1) Paper tape, tensile strength not less than 45 pounds per inch width, and initial adhesion to steel not less than 25 ounces per inch width. Not less than 1 inch in width for parcels not exceeding 1 pound; not less than 1½ inches in width for parcels not exceeding 5 pounds, and not less than 2 inches in width for parcels over 5 pounds. These tapes slowly deteriorate with age and should be used within 8 to 10 months of time of purchase.

(2) Heavy-duty scaling tape reinforced with continuous longitudinal unwoven filaments not less than 3,000 filaments per inch of width with tensile strength of not less than 160 pounds per inch width and not less than 12% stretch at break, is acceptable in widths from ¾ to 1½ inches in lieu of metal strapping on fiberboard cartons when applied in the same manner, provided an overlap of at least 2½ inches is used, and to hold heavy items together such as metal parts, wire, etc., provided an overlap of 6 inches is used. This tape also deteriorates with age and should be used within 12 months of time of purchase.

(3) Transparent cellulose (cellophane) tape of ¾-inch width is suitable to reinforce the closure on small cartons weighing less than 1 pound and the ¾-inch width may be used to seal small parcels of similar weight provided no liquid in glass is contained therein, as this tape is adversely affected by moisture and loses its adhesive properties. It also has poor tear resistance. Transparent acetate tape is similar in appearance to cellulose tape but is moisture-resistant, and the type which has fibrous lamination has better tear resistance and is approved for affixing labels to clean, dry surfaces.

(4) A tough plastic elastic film-type tape with tensile strength of 25 pounds per inch width has been approved in ¾-inch width for wrapping around the edges of bottle screw caps and similar closures for containers of certain liquids, powders, etc., to reinforce the closure and prevent leakage.

56c. Manner of application.—(a) Fiberboard boxes with gummed tape as the sole closure must have the center seams taped with $2\frac{1}{2}$ -inch overlaps at the ends, together with cross strips of tape at the ends both on top and bottom.

(b) Telescoping fiberboard boxes must have the open seam taped on all sides.

(c) Wrapped parcels must have a cross strip at each end in addition to the lengthwise strip, unless the shape of the parcel indicates that an endreling strip instead of the end strips would be preferable.

56d. Weight limitations.—(a) When gross weight exceeds 30 pounds, horizontal overlaps of not less than $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches are required at each of the eight corners of fiberboard boxes unless the flaps are properly glued or stapled, or reinforced by strong twine, rope, or strapping.

(b) Parcels containing liquids in either metal or glass containers must have the closure, if of gummed tape, reinforced when gross weight exceeds 30 pounds. When gross weight exceeds 15 pounds, horizontal corner overlaps of the gummed tape are required on fiberboard boxes.

(c) Wrapped parcels sealed with gummed tape containing flat printed matter or other similar matter which is not securely fastened or boxed must have the tape closure reinforced when gross weight exceeds 5 pounds.

(d) Parcels containing heavy hardware items, machinery parts, castings, bearings, wrenches and similar matter, must have the closure, if of gummed tape, reinforced when gross weight exceeds 15 pounds.

(e) Parcels containing books, leaflets, and other similar matter packed in an inside container must have the closure, if of gummed tape, reinforced when gross weight exceeds 40 pounds.

(f) When gross weight exceeds 50 pounds a heavier tape may be required as shown in article 56b. (a) (3).

56e. Endorsements.—The use of the printed endorsements "Fragile," "Liquid," etc., on sealing tape is not approved and a parcel so endorsed is not considered as being properly labeled in accordance with articles 59 and 60.

57. Twine, heavy cord, or rope should be of good quality with a tensile strength equal to $2\frac{1}{2}$ to 5 times the weight of the parcel to be tied. The parcel should be encircled twice each way and the tie securely knotted. Small securely wrapped parcels whose length does not exceed 12 to 15 inches should be encircled both lengthwise and crosswise, while additional crossbands or lengthwise bands should be used for each 8 inches in length or width over 12 inches. The two crossbands or lengthwise bands should be about 3 inches from the ends or sides of the parcel and whenever the twine intersects itself, a loop or knot should be formed to hold the twine in its correct position on the package. If the parcel is over 12 inches high, a sideband may be necessary depending on the nature of the contents and firmness of the parcel.

Ordinary cord used in stores to tie the small packages is not suitable for parcel post.

58. Other type closures.—(a) Glue.—Should be of good quality and applied preferably with a brush to cover the surface of the inner flaps of fiberboard boxes.

(b) Wire.—Must be of proper strength; be machine applied with proper tension and with approved tie wherein the ends of the wire are cut at the end of the tie, are not sharp pointed and are on the underside. Parcels having exposed ends of wire or wire with nicked or burred surfaces which might cause injury to personnel or damage to other mail matter or equipment are nonmailable. Should not be used on parcels it will cut into.

(c) Metal staples or stitches.—Must be of sufficient size and strength for the box and a sufficient number properly spaced must be used to insure that the flaps are held in place. Considerable damage is caused by failure of metal staples to hold and they have been the source of some injury to personnel.

(d) Metal strapping.—Due to a considerable number of injuries from flat unwrapped metal strapping both from exposed ends and sharp sides, the use thereof, while not prohibited provided there are no sharp or burred sides or exposed ends, cannot be recommended either to reinforce the closure or to tie two or more parcels together. These parcels are considered sealed and in order to be acceptable as parcel post they must bear the printed indicia authorizing postal inspection of contents if necessary. This strapping is intended primarily for heavier matter than is handled in parcel post with its 70-pound limit.

(e) Pressure-sensitive heavy duty filament tape described in article 56 (3) (b) has proved a good strapping medium since it is of the required strength and does not cut into cartons or cause injuries to personnel.

59. Labeling and endorsements.—Matter for dispatch outside of mail bags.—(Air parcel post not included in these instructions)—(a) Acceptance and endorsement.—Parcels properly prepared for mailing which require handling outside of mail bags are those which by reason of their size, weight, nature, or condition, cannot be safely handled inside of mail sacks without damaging them or other mail matter. Such parcels shall be plainly marked by individual mailers or labeled by firm mailers, when necessary, as to contents. Such parcels from individual mailers shall be stamped "Outside Mail," by the accepting employee as provided in section 35.11a, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948, and chapter IV, article 31, Post Office Manual, 1952. Firm mailers shall provide labels in accordance with following paragraphs (c) and (d). The dispatch of parcels outside of mail bags due to inadequate packing is not permissible.

(b) Dispatch.—Parcels which should be dispatched and transported outside of mail bags are listed in the following paragraphs. The "Outside Mail" label or endorsement is not required unless its use is indicated by asterisks—see footnote.

Size

- (1) Parcels which would completely fill a sack or are too large to go in a sack.
- (2) Parcels exceeding 34 inches in length, except in the case of nonfragile lightweight bar-shaped articles such as mailing tubes, levels, umbrellas, curtain rollers, venetian blinds and small trees, when length shall exceed 38 inches.
- (3) Parcels containing pipes or bars or similar articles of heavy metal over 25 inches in length. (When weight is over 8 pounds, see item No. 10.)*
- (4) Fluorescent tubes, narrow glass shelves, candles, and similar shaped fragile articles over 25 inches in length.*
- (5) Window or picture glass, or mirrors, or similar articles with wide expanse of glass measuring over 12 x 16 inches (192 square inches).*
- (6) Fragile phonograph records with 16 inch diameter or larger, and flexible phonograph records with 21 inch diameter or larger.*

Weight

- (7) Parcels weighing over 35 pounds.*
- (8) Small, heavy parcels weighing over 15 pounds containing roller bearings, nuts, bolts, wrenches, pipes, machinery parts, castings, or other articles of similar weight per cubic foot.*
- (9) Small, heavy wooden boxes weighing over 8 pounds, with sharp corners which might damage other sacked mail.
- (10) Matter such as heavy metal boxes, heavy castings or machinery parts, weighing over 8 pounds which is not wrapped or boxed. (NOTE.—Such matter of lesser weight and under 25 inches in length shall be properly padded in a strong shipping container in order that it may be sacked without damage to other sacked mail.)

Liquids

- (11) Parcels containing mailable nonhazardous liquids with total content in excess of 24 fluid ounces in glass container or containers, or 1 gallon or more in metal container or containers.

Perishable

- (12) Eggs, day-old fowl, cut flowers, honey bees in cages, queen bees when 24 or more individual cages are fastened together to form one parcel, soft crabs, shellfish, soft fruits such as tree ripened peaches, tree ripened nectarines or tree ripened plums; or soft berries such as raspberries or strawberries.
- (13) Alligators, frogs, baby turtles, chameleons and other mailable harmless live creatures during period from June 1 to September 30 of each year.

Hazardous

- (14) Parcels required to have a red caution label. (NOTE.—Parcels with yellow caution labels are sacked in accordance with article 12 (k) amended October 28, 1952.)

Miscellaneous

- (15) Matter which is not wrapped or boxed such as bicycle wheels or rolls of wire.
- (c) Approved labels.—Parcels from firm mailers, and mentioned in the preceding paragraph as requiring handling outside of mail bags, may be accepted if an approved label is securely attached thereto adjacent to the address. The label shall be rectangular in shape, approximately 1½ x 2½ inches in size, and the background shall be of dull red color (color similar to red caution label). It shall bear in black print the inscription

"Outside Mail" label or endorsement required if of sackable size.

"Outside Mail" label or endorsement required.

*"Outside Mail" label or endorsement required if nature of contents is not plainly evident.

"Outside Mail" and, in a space provided under these words, shall bear an approved endorsement as to contents. The colors specified in this label (black print on a red background) shall not be used on labels on matter which is not classed as outside matter under the regulations. The stamp "Outside Mail" mentioned in the preceding paragraph shall not be used by either firm or individual mailers as its use is restricted to postal employees.

(d) Examples of labels.—(1) General.—Labels to be used by firm mailers on matter shown in paragraph (b) of this regulation are: "Outside Mail—Weight over 35 pounds"; "Outside Mail—Weight over 15 pounds (heavy metal parts)"; "Outside Mail—Soft Fruits or Berries"; "Outside Mail—Fragile—Phonograph Records—Diameter 16 inches or larger"; "Outside Mail—Fragile—Mirror or Glass—Dimensions larger than 12 x 16 inches"; "Outside Mail—Heavy Metal Bar-Shaped Items—Over 25 inches long." An endorsement on a label such as "Contents meet the requirements for handling outside of mail bags" is not permitted. The "Outside Mail" label does not eliminate need for the "Perishable" or "Fragile" endorsement unless such endorsement is incorporated on the label. The label "This Side Up" may be used in conjunction with the label "Outside Mail," if desired by mailers, on parcels containing liquids or other matter which would present less of a hazard to other mails if carried in a certain position.

(2) Liquids.—Parcels containing mailable liquids (nonflammable and nontoxic) with total content exceeding 24 fluid ounces in glass container or containers, or 1 gallon or more in metal container or containers, may be labeled "Outside Mail—Fragile—Liquid—Over 24 ounces in glass container or 1 gallon or more in metal container." However, concerns mailing only liquids in glass should use a label showing the type of container. If preferred, the actual liquid content and type of container may be stated in addition to "Outside Mail—Fragile—Liquid."

(Parcels containing mailable liquids (nonflammable and nontoxic) with total content less than that noted in the preceding paragraph may be labeled "Fragile—Liquid—Not over 24 ounces in glass container or less than 1 gallon in metal container." If preferred, the actual liquid content and type of container may be stated. The use of a separate label for this quantity of liquid is not required when the desired information is incorporated on the address label. When not more than 8 ounces of liquid are contained in a small parcel of corresponding size, the endorsement "Fragile—Liquid" is considered sufficient. Parcels from individual mailers containing liquids in quantities which are to be sacked, may be stamped "Fragile—Liquid" by the accepting clerk. A red label with black print, as mentioned in paragraph (e) of these regulations, must not be used on parcels containing this quantity of liquid.)

(e) Labels or markings printed on cartons, on gummed tape, or on the wrappers of parcels are not permitted in lieu of the required label shown in paragraph (c) or in lieu of the red or yellow caution label mentioned in paragraph (b) (14).

(f) Parcels improperly marked or labeled for handling outside of mail bags are not acceptable. Periodic checks are made on firm mailings to insure proper labeling thereof. Improper markings or labeling must be obliterated by the mailer before the parcel may be accepted, or dispatched from the office of origin if detected after acceptance.

60. Other endorsements.—(a) Manner of endorsing.—(1) It is essential that certain types of mailings such as fragile or perishable be marked accordingly in order that proper handling may be afforded. Parcels improperly labeled as to nature of contents are not acceptable. Fragile or perishable labels printed on sealing tape, or on cartons unless nature of contents is obvious, are not permitted in lieu of the endorsements or labels required by regulation.

(2) Proper labeling of flammable matter is shown in articles 10 to 13.

(3) Obsolete labels or markings should be covered or obliterated.

(4) The notations "Do not Bend, Fold, or Crush" must not be used unless the matter is properly protected by stiffening material. (See article 51 (n) (2).)

(5) Parcels of fourth-class matter should not bear endorsements such as "Rush", "Do Not Delay" or other inscriptions indicating that expeditious service or special treatment is desired, unless the prescribed fees for special delivery or special handling are prepaid. Inscriptions such as "Important—Open Immediately" or "For Immediate Attention" are permissible.

(b) Parcels sent as special delivery or special handling should bear an endorsement indicating the service desired. The words "Special Delivery" or "Special Handling" should appear in the space immediately below the stamps and above the address.

(c) Sealed parcels.—Any inscription placed on a parcel by the mailer instructing the addressee to refuse the parcel if the seal is broken or to examine the contents before accepting delivery is inconsistent with the regulations and may not be used. All articles enclosed in sealed wrappers and accepted as fourth-class matter are subject to postal inspection and shall bear indicia authorizing such inspection as prescribed by chapter VII, article 10.

AIR MAIL SERVICE

61. (a) Air parcels should be endorsed "Air Mail" or "Air Parcel Post" on the address side and also on each end and side. A distinctive label is recommended and is available at post offices (Form 3584A). Distinctive colored air parcel post gummed tape is also recommended for firm mailers but is not furnished by the Department. The use of special delivery is strongly recommended to provide prompt delivery of the parcel when received at office of address, especially in case of perishable matter or mailings due to arrive Saturday or Sunday or prior to a holiday. In view of surface handling accorded air parcel post to and from airports packing similar to that for regular parcel post is required. Fragile matter must be adequately cushioned in a strong outer container. Matter susceptible to damage by changes in temperature or atmospheric pressures must be adequately protected by proper packing and any other necessary measures.

(b) Prohibited matter.—(1) All materials prohibited in the domestic surface mails.

(2) Day-old fowl, honey bees (not queen bees), and other matter subject to damage by low temperatures.

(3) Magnetic materials containing permanent magnets with unconfined fields.

(4) Any container subject to damage by changes of atmospheric pressure with loss or leakage of contents.

(5) Paints, enamels, varnishes, lacquers, shellacs, stains, and other liquids or substances with flash point of 80° F. or lower (Tag. open tester), or inflammable solids or other materials requiring a yellow caution label, except motion picture film in I. C. C. metal containers and manufactured articles of pyroxylin plastics properly packed, are prohibited in air-mail service. Prospective mailers of any of these substances must be in a position to certify that the desired mailing complies with the regulations both as to flash point and packaging.

(6) Safety matches.

(c) Acceptable matter.—(1) Nonhazardous materials and materials not subject to damage by low temperature.

(2) Matter susceptible to damage by changes in temperature or atmospheric pressures, if adequately protected by proper packing and any other necessary measures.

(3) Cut flowers and other similar matter (when necessary, they should be protected by insulating material).

(4) Queen bees and their attendant bees, frogs, and other mailable harmless live creatures, which are not affected by changes in temperature or atmospheric pressures.

(5) Photoflash lamps, securely packed and cushioned in a strong outside container, if no other matter is contained in the same parcel.

(NOTE.—Friction top cans with indented lids containing liquids are not acceptable.)

DOMESTIC OVERSEAS MAILS

62. (a) Articles addressed to or mailed in overseas APO's and overseas fleet post offices, Alaska, Hawaii, Samoa, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands of the United States, Canal Zone, Agaña (Guam), offices in the Trust Territory, Wake (Wake Island) or Canton Island (Phoenix Group), shall be packed in accordance with requirements for international Parcel Post as shown in the Postal Guide, part II. Generally, containers for overseas shipments must be more substantial than those for transmission within the continental United States. A strong fiberboard box of 275-pound test stock reinforced with strong twine has generally proved a satisfactory container provided the contents are adequately cushioned and tightly packed to prevent loosening or shifting in transit.

(b) (1) Containers of all mailable liquids must be surrounded by sufficient approved absorbent material to take up all the liquid in case of breakage. Compression or friction top metal containers must be soldered in four different places equally spaced and then be surrounded by absorbent material.

(2) Compression or friction top cans containing liquids or semi-solids which will liquify under conditions incident to transportation in the mails, are prohibited in the overseas APO mails. Good quality hermetically sealed cans or screw-top cans with metal inner seal are acceptable for such liquids if properly prepared for mailing.

(c) Flammable liquids with a flash point of 80° F. or lower are prohibited in the domestic overseas mails. Combustible liquids having a flash point of 150° F. or lower, but above 80° F., which are not poisonous or explosive or unavailable for reasons other than their flammability, are acceptable in quantities not exceeding 1 quart except that paint, enamel, lacquer, stain, shellac, varnish, aluminum, bronze, gold, wood filler liquid and lacquer base liquid, and thinning, reducing, and removing compounds, and driers liquid therefor are acceptable in quantities of less than 1 gallon. Containers must not be entirely filled to allow for expansion of contents in case of change in temperature. For proper labeling see article 10 (c) (3).

CHAPTER V

PAYMENT OF POSTAGE

1. Prepayment of postage on domestic matter at time of mailing is required. Payment is generally made by means of stamps affixed; by special permission, however, postage may be paid in money on matter of the first, second, third, and fourth classes, when mailed under the conditions prescribed in articles 2 to 7 of this chapter.

2. Upon application to the postmaster at the office of mailing, permits may be issued to persons or concerns for mailing first-, second-, third-, and fourth-class matter without stamps affixed, the postage being paid thereon in money under specially issued permits to mail nonmetered or metered matter, provided the mailings are presented in accordance with the conditions prescribed by the Postmaster General (under which such mailings are accepted).

3. Only such second-class matter is accepted for mailing as metered or nonmetered matter as is chargeable at the transient second class rate or the per copy rate for delivery at city letter carrier offices.

4. Nonmetered matter.—(a) Applications to mail nonmetered matter must be accompanied with a fee of $10. No part of this fee may be applied as postage.

(b) Nonmetered first-class matter must be presented in quantities of not less than 300 pieces identical as to weight. Nonmetered second- and third-class matter (except third-class matter mailed in bulk under sec. 34.65 (e) or 34.66, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948) must be presented in quantities of not less than 300 identical pieces and nonmetered fourth-class matter in quantities of not less than 250 identical pieces.

5. Metered matter.—(a) Persons or firms desiring permits for mailing metered matter should apply to the postmaster. All applications must specify the name and model of the device and be accompanied with an envelope bearing a specimen meter impression.

(b) Metered first- and fourth-class matter and third-class matter (except that mailed in bulk under sec. 34.65 (e) or 34.66, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948) may be presented in any quantity and need not be identical as to contents or weight. Metered second-class matter must be presented in quantities of not less than 300 identical pieces.

6. Bulk lots of third-class matter, consisting of not less than either 20 pounds or 200 identical pieces, may be mailed at pound rates prescribed in article 58, chapter III, under permit without postage stamps affixed under the provisions of section 34.65 (c) or 34.66, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948, either as metered or nonmetered matter upon payment of the $10 annual bulk mailing fee.

7. Business reply cards and letters in business reply envelopes or under business reply labels, may be mailed without prepayment of postage, the regular postage plus an additional charge of 1 cent to be collected on delivery of the cards and envelopes under the provisions of articles 33 to 35 of Chapter III.

8. Postage due matter.—(a) When a piece of mail reaches the office of address without postage having been fully prepaid, the required amount of postage due is collected from the addressee on delivery. Postage due must be paid in cash.

(b) First-class matter reaching the office of address partly prepaid but short paid more than one rate—3 cents—is subject to an additional charge of 1 cent for each ounce. That is, if a letter is short paid only 3 cents, that amount will be collected as postage due upon delivery, but if a letter or other first-class matter is short paid more than 3 cents, then the deficient postage and an additional charge of 1 cent for each ounce or fraction thereof based on the short paid weight is collected on delivery. This does not apply to air mail or parcels obviously intended to be sent as fourth-class matter but which are found to be subject to the first-class rate because they are sealed against inspection or contain incidental unpermissible written inclosures. Deficient postage at the rate of 3 cents for each ounce is collected on such parcels.

(c) Unpaid matter, the sender of which is unknown, deposited in an office, addressed for local delivery, is subject when delivered to the addressee to postage due at the single rate. In the case of first-class matter on which more than one unpaid rate is due the additional charge of 1 cent for each unpaid ounce is also applicable.

9. Stamps (Postage).—Adhesive stamps are available as follows:

Ordinary.— $\frac{1}{2}$, 1, $1\frac{1}{2}$, 2, 3, 4, $4\frac{1}{2}$, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 24, 25, 30, and 50 cents, \$1, \$2, and \$5.

Air Mail.—6, 8, 10, 15, 25, and 80 cents.

Special delivery.—10, 15, and 20 cents.

Special handling.—10, 15, and 20 cents.

Postage due.— $\frac{1}{2}$, 1, 2, 3, 5, 10, 30, and 50 cents, \$1 and \$5.

Stamp books.—Containing 24 1-cent; combination of 24 1-cent and 24 2-cent; 12 2-cent; 24 2-cent; 12 3-cent; 24 3-cent, and 12 6-cent air mail.

Stamps in coils.—The following denominations of stamps are available in coils: 1-cent, 1½-cent, 2-cent, and 3-cent, in coils of 500 and 1,000, coiled sidewise or endwise, also in coils of 3,000 coiled sidewise; 4-cent, 4½-cent, 5-cent, 6-cent, and 10-cent, in coils of 500 or 1,000 coiled sidewise and 6-cent air mail in coils of 500. The coils of 3,000 stamps are manufactured to accommodate vending machines of the type used in post offices and privately owned affixing machines. Vending machine coils are wound on a ½-inch core. Affixing machine coils are wound gum side out on a core measuring 1½ inches in diameter. These coils are not interchangeable. Precanceled stamps are available in coils on special order.

10. Precanceled stamps.—(a) Precanceled stamps may be used without further cancellation or defacement for the payment of postage on matter of the third and fourth classes and second-class matter mailed at transient second-class rates or "per copy" rates for local delivery by city letter carrier and on post cards except stamps over the 6-cent denomination or lower denominations when postage on a single piece exceeds 6 cents. See paragraph (c) of this article. Such stamps may not be used in payment of postage on letters and other first-class matter (except post cards) unless specially authorized in each case.

(b) Precanceled postage stamps may be used only by the persons or concerns who have been issued permits to use them and only on matter presented at the office where precanceled. No fee is required to accompany applications to use precanceled postage stamps on any class of matter. Persons holding permits to use precanceled stamps need not obtain an additional permit to use them on third-class matter mailed in bulk under section 34.65 (e) or 34.66, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948. However, mailers of matter paid at the bulk third-class rates are required to pay a $10 bulk mailing fee each calendar year. Information in regard to the obtaining of such permit and the conditions governing the use of precanceled postage stamps may be obtained at local post offices.

(c) Precanceled stamps above the 6-cent denominations or lower denominations when the postage on a parcel exceeds 6 cents, may be used only when overprinted (or hand-stamped) by permit holders with their initials and the abbreviations of the month and year. Precanceled stamps so overprinted may be used for postage during the month designated, and up to and including the tenth day of the following month.

(d) Use of precanceled stamps not permissible on containers designed for reuse.—Precanceled stamps may not be used for the payment of postage on articles enclosed in boxes, bags, cases or other containers specially designed to be reused for mailing purposes; motion-picture films, laundry, eggs, etc. Postage on such matter must be paid by means of uncanceled stamps.

11. (a) Government stamped envelopes and Government postal cards may be precanceled by the mailer and used in mailing first-, second-, third-, or fourth-class matter under the provisions of section 35.5, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948, by persons and concerns who have been issued a permit therefor.

(b) Application for such privilege should be submitted to the Bureau of Post Office Operations, Division of Letter and Miscellaneous Mails, accompanied with an envelope or postal card bearing an impression of the device to be used for precanceling them.

12. Use of stamps.—(a) Postmasters are not required to affix stamps to mail. They should be affixed to the upper right corner of the address side of the outside covers of the article by the mailer in such a manner as to be completely adherent thereto. When stamps are so affixed to mail that one overlaps another, concealing part of its surface, the stamp thus covered is not taken into account in prepayment.

(b) Stamps are canceled by the Postal Service as evidence of service rendered. Re-use of stamps with intent to cause loss to the Government is punishable by fine of $500 or imprisonment of from 1 to 3 years, or both.

(c) Postage stamps which have been defaced, obliterated, or mutilated or have been cut or otherwise separated from embossed envelopes, postal cards, or wrappers are not valid for payment of postage. Perforation with identifying marks is not prohibited if the holes do not exceed ½ of an inch in diameter, and the whole space occupied by the identifying device does not exceed ½-inch square.

13. Use of higher denominations.—The public is encouraged to use stamps of the highest denomination suited to the amount of postage required. For example, a 3-cent stamp instead of three 1-cent stamps should be affixed to letters requiring 3 cents postage; and a 10-cent stamp instead of five 2-cent stamps should be attached to parcels requiring 10 cents postage. Cooperation in the use of stamps of higher denominations will be more economical to the Government in the cost of production, transporting, and canceling them and will benefit the public in minimizing the number of stamps handled and affixed to mail.

14. Postal cards.—Varieties available.

Printed ("Special Request") stamped envelopes.—When so ordered in lots of 500 or a multiple of 500 of a given size, quality, and denomination, the Department prints the purchaser's return card on stamped envelopes. The return card consists of a request to return after a given number of days, the name of the purchaser, and his street number, post office box, or other local address, post office, postal delivery zone number, and State. The Department is prohibited by law from printing advertisements on stamped envelopes. The printing of return cards is done on special orders which should be placed at the purchaser's post office. The styles of return cards are as follows:

Return Postage Guaranteed

*Request line may be omitted.

16. Value of return cards.—The use of return-card stamped envelopes is of mutual advantage to the sender and the postal service, as by their use the return of undeliverable letters to the sender is assured.

17. Local address to be included in return cards.—(a) The delivery or return of letters is frequently delayed and often made impossible by the omission of an important part of the address or return card, such as the street number, room number in an office building, apartment number, or location at street intersection. Indefinite addressing is a source of serious embarrassment to the Postal Service and adversely affects the efficiency of service to the public. To facilitate prompt return of undeliverable letters to senders, a definite local address is required in return cards printed by the Department in accordance with one of the following forms:

- (1) Name of street and number, including apartment number if any.
- (2) Post office box or drawer number.
- (3) Name of building may be included if the room number therein and street address are given.
- (4) Location with respect to intersecting streets, or roads if situated in outlying districts without street numbers.
- (5) Rural route number and box number.
- (6) Name of post office followed by postal delivery zone number if delivery zone system is employed.
- (b) The local address must conform to the point of delivery of mail matter for the patron. Two conflicting addresses may not be used in the same return card, such as street number and post office box number. Requisitions for return-card envelopes omitting the local address from post offices having city or village delivery must be accompanied with a satisfactory explanation showing why one of the above forms of local address cannot be furnished.

18. Stamped envelopes, unprinted.—Stamped envelopes without individual or blank return cards are kept on sale for purchasers who prefer to print their own return cards in special styles.

19. Window stamped envelopes.—Unprinted window envelopes are sold only in full box lots.

(a) Advantages.—These envelopes are of decided advantage to business houses, as they are ready for use without either stamping or addressing, and thus constitute an important labor saving device. Letters enclosed in them may be made ready for mailing earlier and errors of misdirection are minimized. The rules in article 8, chapter VI, will govern their use.

(b) Size and position of window.—Nos. 5, 7, and 8—Size $1\frac{1}{2}$ by $4\frac{3}{4}$ inches, to be located $\frac{3}{4}$ inch from left and $\frac{1}{2}$ inch from bottom of envelope. No. 13—Size $1\frac{1}{2}$ by $4\frac{3}{4}$ inches, to be located 1 inch from left and $\frac{1}{2}$ inch from bottom of envelope. This information is given so that inquirers may determine whether their enclosures are properly designed to fit the "window."

(c) Return card on window envelopes.—Return addresses are required on all window envelopes, including window stamped envelopes and must include the following:

(1) Name of sender, or, in lieu thereof, the post office box number, street address, or name of building and room number therein; the latter only when the street and number are used as the local address.

(2) Street address, when the post office is one having delivery service, or number of post office box in lieu thereof. (The mere name of a building will not suffice for the street address, but may be printed in addition to the street address.)

(3) Post office and State.

Window envelopes not conforming to the foregoing, as well as to the other requirements prescribed by article 8, chapter VI, are unmailable.

20. Extra quality stamped envelopes.—Extra-quality stamped envelopes are recommended for heavy and bulky enclosures. They are available in sizes Nos. 5, 8, and 13 in full box lots only.

21. Precanceled stamped envelopes—Use.—Precanceled stamped envelopes of the $1\frac{1}{2}$ -cent denomination in sizes Nos. 5, 8, and 13 are issued for the mailing of third class matter in bulk under the provisions of section 34.66, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948, and in the 1-cent denomination under the provisions of section 34.65 (e), amended, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948. Such envelopes are not sold to persons who do not hold a permit for the use of government precanceled stamps. Such envelopes are supplied plain or with the return card of the purchaser in the solid face pattern only. All precanceled stamped envelopes are furnished ungummed.

22. Air mail envelopes.—Stamped envelopes of the distinctive pattern approved for use for air mail and bearing an embossed stamp of special design are issued in sizes Nos. 8 and 13, both plain and with purchaser's return card.

23. Air letter sheets printed on light blue paper measuring over-all $8\frac{1}{2}$ by 12 inches and bearing a printed 10 cent postage stamp and air mail markings are furnished for transmission by air mail to all countries.

The sheet is so designed that when folded in accordance with printed instructions on the lines of scoring an envelope effect is produced measuring approximately $3\frac{1}{2}$ by $5\frac{1}{2}$ inches with an outer border of red and blue parallelograms. The words "Via Air Mail" and "Par Avion" appear in two lines directly under the stamp. In the upper left corner are three blank lines for the return address, under which are printed the words "Air Letter" and "Aérogramme." Air letter sheets are sold at their face value of 10 cents each.

Air letters will be given all available air service to the countries of destination. They may be sent as registered mail. No enclosures are permitted. If anything is enclosed the articles will be sent by surface means.

Air letter sheets may be manufactured by private individuals or firms for sale to the public without postage, provided that they comply with the Department's requirements as follows:

Air letter sheets must average a minimum of 150 sheets to the pound. It is recommended that the size be approximately 12 by $8\frac{1}{2}$ inches unfolded including the flap, and $5\frac{1}{2}$ by $3\frac{3}{4}$ inches folded. The quality and strength of the paper must be sufficient to guard against the likelihood of damage in the course of postmarking and handling, and to assure that the writing on the inner side will not interfere with the legibility of the address and return card. The portion of the sheet which forms the front of the envelope when folded shall bear the words, "Air Letter," "Via Air Mail—Par Avion" and "Aérogramme." The edges shall bear the distinctive design generally used to identify air mail letters.

Manufacturers shall submit 10 samples of proposed air letter sheets to the Post Office Department, Bureau of Transportation, Division of International Service, Washington 25, D. C., for approval before engaging in the production of the sheets for sale.

Approved air letter sheets manufactured by private individuals or firms are acceptable for mailing after 10 cents in postage has been affixed.

24. Receipts for purchases.—Postmasters are not required to fill out receipts for money paid in the purchase of postage, but they will sign or stamp at the time of sale a receipt filled out by the purchaser.

25. International reply coupons—Use.—Reply coupons, sold at 11 cents each, furnish a means of sending return postage to foreign correspondents (except in Korea) who may exchange each coupon for a stamp or stamps conforming to the postage on a single rate unregistered letter to be sent by surface means to this country. Upon presentation of a sufficient number of international reply coupons, the stamp or stamps received in exchange may be used to prepay an unregistered letter to be sent by air; in this case, the weight of the letter may not exceed 20 grams (about $\frac{3}{4}$ ounce). International reply coupons are exchangeable in any country; Americo-Spanish reply coupons, only in member countries of the Postal Union of the Americas and Spain. United States post offices are not authorized to sell Americo-Spanish reply coupons but will exchange them when presented.

26. Redemption of international reply coupons.—International reply coupons sold by other postal administrations are redeemable at the rate of 5 cents each in postage stamps without regard to the selling price or country of issue. To be acceptable they must bear the postmark of the selling office. The same rules apply to Americo-Spanish reply coupons except that they are exchangeable at the rate of 3 cents each in postage stamps. Unused 11-cent United States reply coupons are redeemable from original purchaser at the rate of 10 cents each in postage stamps. (International reply coupons issued in Germany, Latvia, Lithuania and Estonia are not valid for acceptance in this country.)

27. Refunds of postage payments.—Refunds are made of postage paid on articles on which the service paid for is not rendered or collections made in excess of the lawful rate. Refunds of postage paid on domestic articles are made by postmasters on authority of the Bureau of Post Office Operations.

Refund of postage paid on international mail for which no service has been rendered shall be made subject to the conditions prescribed in the official Post Office Manual.

28. Redemption of stamped paper.—Adhesive postage stamps held by the public are not redeemed nor exchanged unless stamps of the wrong denomination were purchased or damaged stamps were sold, in which cases application for exchange should be made at the post office by the original purchaser within 2 business days. Stamped envelopes on which no postal service has been rendered are redeemable at postage value if presented by responsible patrons in a substantially whole condition, and un mutilated postal cards are redeemable at 75 percent of face value at any post office; provided, that stamped envelopes or postal cards bearing printed addresses or other printed matter shall be redeemable only from the original purchaser or person whose printing appears thereon. Air letter sheets are redeemable at 9 cents each. Redemptions are made in postage stamps, stamped envelopes, air letter sheets, or postal cards as preferred by the owner, but not in cash.

POSTAL FUNDS

29. What is acceptable.—Any United States coin or currency will be accepted in payment of postage or fees; however, if the postmaster cannot make the proper change patrons are required to present the exact amount of their purchases.

30. Mutilated, foreign money, etc.—United States coins or currency mutilated in such a manner that they cannot be identified as genuine are not acceptable in payment for postage or fees.

Foreign money is not acceptable in payment for postage or fees.

CHAPTER VI

ADDRESSING MAIL MATTER

1. Addressing.—(a) The Department urgently requests the public to exercise the greatest possible care to see that mail is sufficiently and correctly addressed in order to secure its prompt and certain delivery. Because of carelessness in addressing and preparing matter for mailing, or failure of sender to place his name and address thereon, millions of letters and other pieces of mail which cannot be delivered or returned to sender are sent each year to Dead Letter branches. A fee of 5 cents is charged for the return of undeliverable letters to senders from a Dead Letter branch.

(b) Write plainly the name of the person addressed, street and number, including apartment number, if any, number of rural route and rural box number, or post office box and the name of the post office, including postal delivery zone number, if any, and State in full. Do not use lead pencil. Use abbreviations only when they cannot be misunderstood. Standard abbreviations of State names are found in the list of Post Offices by States in this Guide.

(c) The words "general delivery" should not be used as part of the address when delivery by city, village, or rural carrier can be effected, but only in cases where the addressee has no permanent address and it is known that he calls at general delivery for his mail.

(d) Directions for delivery and forwarding or return of mail are deemed part of the address.

(e) Space must be left on the address side of all mail for a complete and legible address and for all directions permissible thereon, for postage stamps, postmarking, rating, and any words necessary for forwarding or return. Not less than $3\frac{1}{2}$ inches of clear space should be left for such purposes at the right end of the address side of all envelopes, folders, or wrappers of mail matter, but a plain narrow border not exceeding approximately five-thirty-seconds of an inch in width may be placed around the outer edges thereof. Envelopes, window and ordinary, and folders and wrappers should not be made of such dark colored stationery or bear on the address side so much printed matter in addition to the address as to contravene the foregoing provisions. It is preferable that all envelopes be made of white paper; when paper of any other color is used for envelopes, wrappers, or folders, it should be of a very light tint of such colors as pink, yellow, robin's egg blue, or manila.

(f) When address labels or tags are used, the lower or right portion should be reserved for the name and address of the addressee, the sender's return card to be placed less prominently in the upper left corner and not on the back. The use of address labels or tags having the sender's name and address shown conspicuously in the lower portion frequently results in mail matter being returned to the sender instead of being delivered as intended.

2. Postal delivery zone number system.—(a) Mail addressed to the larger post offices should include the postal delivery zone number following the name of the post office to indicate the main post office unit, station, or branch from which delivery is to be made.

(b) The purpose of the postal delivery zone number system of addressing mail is to permit the distribution of mail by inexperienced clerks, thereby facilitating and expediting delivery to patrons.

(c) In addressing mail, the postal delivery zone number should appear in the address immediately after the name of the post office, in accordance with the following specimen:

After—days return to FRANK B. WHITE 2416 Front St., St. Louis 25, Missouri	Stamp
Mr. John C. White, 1157 Jefferson Ave., Houston 12, Texas.

(d) Deviations from the above are permitted in the case of large mailers in order to avoid the necessity of changing addressograph plates or stencils which carry the post office and State on one line. In such instances, the delivery zone number may be set in immediately after the State or following the street address. These deviations are permissible with the understanding that when new addressograph plates or stencils are made, the postal delivery zone number will appear thereon immediately following the name of the post office.

(e) All patrons at the offices listed below are requested to notify their correspondents of their postal delivery zone numbers and to include the numbers in addresses, on letter-heads and in return card requests.

(f) Patrons should obtain the delivery zone number from their correspondents in the offices listed below. Large firms such as publishers who have mailing lists may forward them to the offices listed, where they will be corrected without charge by including the delivery zone number. Postal Delivery Zone Number books may be obtained without charge from the postmasters of the offices listed.

3. Return cards.—The sender's name and complete address must be placed on all fourth class or parcel post mail, on all "window" envelopes, on all matter bearing request for notice on Form 3547, on all matter bearing pledge of sender guaranteeing payment of return or forwarding postage, and on all registered mail and should be on all other mail, in the upper left corner of the envelope or wrapper and not on the back. This will secure the return of first-class mail when undelivered, and of mail of other classes under certain conditions. (See "Undeliverable matter", ch. XI.)

SIMPLIFIED FORM OF ADDRESS

4. When a mailer desires to send a piece of advertising or other matter as ordinary mail to . . . (1) every rural or star-route box holder served from any post office having such deliveries, . . . (2) every post office box holder, . . . or (3) patrons of any post office having city or village letter carrier service for delivery by city or village letter carriers, the name, box and route numbers or local street address may be omitted from the matter, provided the following requirements are met:

(a) Each piece must . . . bear an address in the applicable form shown below:

(1) Rural or star-route box holder:

(2) Post office box holder:

(Post office and State)

(3) Patron (or householder), letter carrier route:

(Post office and State)

It is preferable that the names of the post office and State be included in the address on each piece of matter mailed . . . in this manner; but, when the sender so desires, such names may also be omitted, provided the word "Local" is used instead. The packages of such pieces must be securely tied or otherwise prepared so that they will not break open and the pieces become scattered in the mails.

(b) Postage at the proper rate must be fully prepaid, in money under permit or by means of precanceled stamps, . . . precanceled Government stamped envelopes or precanceled Government postal cards.

(c) All pieces for the same post office must be put up by the mailer, so far as may be practicable, in packages . . . or units of 50. If the pieces are made up in quantities other than 50 for each separation, the number in a package shall be indicated on the label. Each package shall be labeled by means of a facing slip, as follows, according to the distribution desired: . . .

(1) For distribution to rural or star-route box holders:

(Post office and State)

(2) For distribution to post office box holders:

(Post office and State)

(3) For distribution to patrons served by city (or village) letter carriers:

(Post office and State)

(d) Postmasters upon request shall inform persons or concerns who desire to mail matter under this regulation of the total number of boxes served by rural and star route carriers, the number of post office box holders and the number of patrons or stops on each route served by city (or village) letter carriers at their respective offices. They may also furnish mailers with the number of families served by rural routes emanating from their offices and deliver into each rural box a piece for each family receiving mail through the particular box. Each piece of such mail must be addressed as follows:

Rural route box holder (one for each family)

(e) The mailer should present a sufficient number of pieces to serve every box or patron, including apartment houses or other multiple housing units, on the route or routes where delivery is to be made but, when through inadvertence the number is not sufficient, the pieces will be distributed as far as they will reach. Should any pieces be left, they will be disposed of in accordance with current regulations."

(f) The number of boxes served by rural and star-route carriers from each office having rural or star-route delivery service and the number of post office boxes at offices not having city letter carrier service are shown in the list of post offices by states and counties beginning on page 595 of this Guide.

(g) Mail intended for occupants of particular houses or premises on city or village letter carrier routes may be addressed "Occupant," followed by street and number, Post Office and State, or the word "Local" may be used in lieu of the name of the Post Office and State. However, in the case of apartment houses, etc., the address should show the particular apartment.

5. "Made up" mail.—The handling and delivery of mail of all classes is expedited if separated to routes, states, or cities by the mailer, whenever the quantity mailed at one time is sufficient. Second-class matter mailed by publishers and third-class matter mailed at special low quantity rates must be "made up" as prescribed by the Department.

6. Mailing lists.—(a) Mailing lists described in paragraphs (b) and (c) will be corrected but not compiled. The Department does not discriminate between long and short mailing lists.

(b) Mailing lists used officially by Members of Congress and Federal departments and bureaus are corrected free of charge. Federal departments and bureaus sending lists to postmasters for correction are requested to submit them on cards of approximately the dimensions of the United States postal card, one name to a card. Where rural routes have been consolidated or changed to another post office, mailing lists submitted by an individual or concern are corrected without charge if the list contains only names of persons residing on the route or routes involved. Separate lists must be submitted for each route.

(c) Mailing lists submitted by State Departments, municipalities, religious, fraternal, and recognized charitable organizations, and mailing lists used by the concerns submitting them for correction for the solicitation of business by mail in connection with sales work, will be corrected as frequently as requested at the expense of the owners, including return postage.

(d) Except as provided in subparagraph (b), a minimum charge of 25 cents, payable in advance by cash or money order, is made at all post offices for the correction of any mailing list bearing less than 25 names, and for any list of 25 names or more a charge of 1 cent for each name submitted (also payable in advance) shall be made, plus the postage for the return of such list. Furthermore, all lists submitted, whether for correction of address or elimination of duplicates, are to be considered mailing lists. No charge will be made for mailing lists submitted only for the purpose of having postal delivery zone unit numbers inserted, as provided by paragraph (f) of article 2, page 80, of this edition of the Postal Guide.

(e) Mailing lists should be submitted in card form, approximately the size and quality of the ordinary postal card, one name to a card, with the owner's name in the upper left corner. When a list is submitted in sheet form, it will be corrected from the directory records only and not verified by carriers. Mailing lists prepared by stencil, multigraph or other similar processes, are acceptable for mailing at the third- or fourth-class rate of postage according to their weight. Mailing lists which are hand-written or type-written are first-class matter and are subject to the first-class postage rate.

(f) Corrections consist of crossing off the names of persons to whom mail cannot be delivered or forwarded, the correction of incorrect street names, the correction of incorrect local street, rural, or post-office box numbers, the insertion of delivery zone numbers where applicable, the correction of initials where apparently there has been a bona-fide intention to write a name known to the owner of the list, and the indication of the head of the family, if known; when two or more names are shown for the same address it will be indicated by check mark (✓) in the upper right corner; if the name or street address, or R. F. D. route or box number, or post-office box number is incorrect, the proper correction will be legibly made; if removed to another post-office address, the complete new address will be shown when reliable change-of-address orders are on file. New names will not be added to a list.

(g) Occupant mailing lists.—Mailing lists for mail addressed to "Occupant" at a street address may be corrected by indicating on each card the information, as far as applicable, as set forth in the preceding paragraph. In addition to this, numbers representing incorrect street addresses may be crossed off but no numbers may be added to the cards or any numbers changed. Numbers representing addresses of business houses may be indicated by writing "Business" opposite the number. Numbers which are served by rural routes may be indicated by the word "Rural." Numbers which are not shown on the mailing lists and to which delivery can be effected will not be added to the lists. The cards should be separated by routes and arranged in the order of delivery before being returned to the owner. Each carrier should place a card on top of those for his route showing (1) the number of possible deliveries to business patrons and (2) the number of all other possible deliveries on the route. Mailers who have "Occupant" mailing lists corrected as indicated should be encouraged to send their mailings to post offices separated by routes so as to expedite handling and delivery. The charge for correcting occupant mailing lists will be as indicated in paragraph (d) of this article and the other instructions concerning the correction of mailing lists should be followed as far as practicable.

7. Notice to senders of change of address—Form 3547.—When the sender of ordinary mail of the third or fourth class desires to be notified of the new address of the addressee in cases where the matter is undeliverable because of the removal of the addressee, he may indicate that fact, on the matter itself, and the office of address will furnish the new address.

Mailers who desire to secure a notice on card Form 3547 shall print in the lower left corner of the address side of each mailing piece the inscription: "Form 3547 Requested," and shall show the name and address of the sender in the upper left corner of the address side. Each piece bearing such inscription which is undeliverable as addressed for any reason shall be returned promptly to the sender legibly endorsed to show the change of address or other reason for nondelivery, except in case of local change of address or when forwarding postage is guaranteed, or when the piece is of obvious value. Mail matter so returned shall be rated for collection of return postage due at the regular third- or fourth-class rate whichever may be applicable. When the addressee has removed to a local address, or when forwarding postage is guaranteed, or when the piece is of obvious value, the postmaster shall furnish the new address to the sender on card Form 3547, for which a postage charge of 2 cents will be collected upon delivery of the card notice. Printing the inscription on the matter shall constitute a guarantee on the part of the mailer that he will pay the charge for the notice, if one be sent, or return postage due in the event it is necessary to return the mail as undeliverable.

This service is limited to mail matter sent out in the regular course of business; its use for the mere purpose of obtaining the addresses of persons is not permitted. The facility may not be used in connection with mail matter sent out primarily for the purpose of collecting past-due accounts.

8. "Window" envelopes, to be mailable, must be so prepared that the "window" or transparent panel in the front through which the address on the enclosure is disclosed will be parallel with the length of the envelope. The "window" must not occupy any space within $1\frac{1}{8}$ inches from the top, nor three-eighths of an inch from the bottom or ends of the envelope, and when covered must be as transparent and free from glare as possible. Only one window is permissible.

Such envelopes must bear the card of the sender; that is, the name and address of the sender in the upper left corner of the address side. The return card of the sender, to be complete as to the address, must show not only his name and the name of the post office and State, but when the post office is one having letter-carrier service must also show a street address or number of post-office box rented by him. The mere name of a building will not suffice for a street address. Although it is preferred that the return card include the sender's name, the latter may be omitted from ordinary mail bearing the sender's post-office box number and post-office address, or, in the case the sender is the sole occupant of a building, the street and number of such building, with post office and State, will suffice. Also where the sender is the sole occupant of a particular room, the designation of the room, with the street and number of the building, post office, and State, may be used.

No printing of advertising or of sentences or words of any kind within three-eighths of an inch of the "window" of window envelopes used for mailing purposes is permissible, nor on any part of such envelopes where it will interfere with a distinct postmark, rating endorsements, forwarding address, etc., but a plain, narrow border not exceeding approximately five thirty-seconds of an inch in width around the window is permissible. When desired, such a border, not exceeding approximately five thirty-seconds of an inch in width, may also be placed around the outer edges of envelopes. Request for Form 3547 should not be printed within three-eighths of an inch of the window unless it cannot be avoided because of insufficient space.

The stationery used in "window" envelopes, or at least the portion upon which the exposed address appears, must be white, or, if colored, of a very light tint or shade. The use of dark-colored window envelopes or colored windows or dark enclosures in such envelopes is not permissible. Nothing but the name and address of the addressee should appear on that part of the enclosure visible through the "window." Windows for any other purpose, including windows intended to disclose illustrations, are not permissible. The enclosures must be so folded that they will not shift around in the envelopes, obscuring the address in whole or in part. The address must be written clearly and boldly, preferably in typewriting, or with ink of a dense black or other strongly contrasting color. Changes in address are not made on the "window" but on the opaque portion of the envelope. "Window" envelopes not conforming to the foregoing are unmailable.

CHAPTER VII

PREPARATION OF ARTICLES FOR MAILING

1. Packing and wrapping parcels.—Parcels not wrapped or packed so as to protect the contents from damage and to provide reasonable assurance of their reaching destination in good condition, are not acceptable for transmission in the mails. Parcels must be so wrapped, enveloped, or packed in a strong container as to assure transmission without tearing mail bags, damaging their contents or injuring persons handling them. Many articles are damaged in the mails because they are not properly packed to withstand the necessary handling. See Chapter IV.

2. Examination and sealing.—Second-, third-, and fourth-class matter must be so wrapped, enveloped, or packed that the contents may be examined easily by postal officials. When not so wrapped or packed the matter is not acceptable for mailing, and when bearing or containing writing not authorized by law, the matter is treated as of the first class. Parcel-post mails may be enclosed in boxes to which the lids are nailed or screwed, provided the lids can be readily removed with a chisel or screw driver for examination of contents.

3. Sealed parcels of fourth class.—Sealed parcels of fourth class matter may be mailed at the fourth-class rates of postage, provided the parcels are labeled or endorsed, to show the nature of contents as, for example "Contents: Merchandise" together with the inscription "May be opened for postal inspection," in connection with the name and address of the sender, all of which may be printed, handstamped, typewritten or handwritten, preferably in printing, but in any case the endorsement must be legible.

4. Sealed packages of third-class matter.—Merchandise, books, seeds, and other articles, except circulars and other miscellaneous printed matter, which when sent in parcels weighing 8 ounces or less are embraced in mail of the third class, may also be sealed and mailed at the third-class rates of postage provided, the parcels are appropriately labeled or endorsed as indicated in preceding paragraph. Circulars and other miscellaneous printed matter sent as third-class matter must be unsealed.

5. Proprietary articles of merchandise.—Proprietary articles of merchandise such as harmless medicinal preparations, soaps, tobacco, food products, and other articles of merchandise which are put up in fixed quantities, in original sealed packages, by the manufacturer or dealer so as to allow examination of the packages in their simplest mercantile form and labeled in printing so as to show the nature of contents, quantity, and name of manufacturer, or dealer, are available at the fourth-class rates of postage. In order to be so mailed the parcels must in fact possess the characteristics of proprietary articles of merchandise and to this end it is important that they be prominently labeled in printing in the manner in which well-known articles distributed widely throughout the country are labeled, a trade-mark, brand illustration of the article, or other distinguishing matter usually appearing on the label. If such sealed packages are enclosed in an outer wrapper or container, such wrapper or container must not be sealed unless it is also labeled in printing in the manner indicated.

6. Addition to second-, third-, and fourth-class matter.—Letters attached to second- and third-class mail.—Communications fully prepaid at the first-class rate may be attached to packages of second-class matter prepaid at the transient rate or at publishers' second-class rates provided in the latter case a notice of entry as second-class matter is placed in the upper right corner of the address side of the packages, and to third-class matter fully prepaid at the third-class rate, in the manner and under the conditions set forth in the succeeding paragraph. Packages of second- or third-class matter to which such communications are attached are, in all cases, treated as second- or third-class mail.

Communications attached to parcels.—When it is desired to send a letter or other communication with a parcel on which postage at the fourth-class rate has been fully prepaid, the letter may be placed in an envelope fully prepaid at the first-class rate and addressed to correspond with the address on the parcel and then be tied to, or otherwise securely attached to, the outside of the parcel in such manner as to prevent its separation therefrom and not to interfere with the address on the parcel. The stamps to cover the postage on the parcel must be affixed to the wrapper of the parcel and those to pay the postage on the letter must be affixed to the envelope of the letter. Parcels to which such letters are attached are treated as fourth-class matter.

When attaching letters to matter of another class the following instructions should be observed:

(a) Any strong envelope which can be securely attached to the outside of the parcel in such manner as will prevent its separation therefrom and not interfere with the address on the parcel may be used. A tag envelope fastened with strong twine will serve this purpose. The envelope should always be placed under the twine with which the parcel is tied in order to prevent its becoming torn from the parcel while in transit. The envelope must be addressed to correspond with the address on the parcel, so that in case of their becoming separated while in transit both may be delivered.

(b) When two classes of matter are mailed together under this regulation in combination containers having two inseparable portions or compartments, it is desirable that the sender's and addressee's names and addresses appear on both portions, but if the sender so desires, the matter will be accepted with such names and addresses appearing on one portion only. This does not apply when the letter is merely pasted or glued to the address side of a parcel. In such case the sender's name and address may appear on one portion and the addressee's on the other, but it is desirable that the senders place their return card on both portions in order to facilitate identification of the matter in case the parcel and letter become separated in transit.

(c) Only one special-delivery fee is required on such parcels when sent as special-delivery matter. The stamps for the fee should be affixed to the parcels.

(d) As the regulation provides that the parcel and communication attached thereto shall in all cases be treated as fourth-class mail, persons authorized to use precanceled stamps may affix such stamps to the envelope in prepayment of postage on the communication when such stamps are used on the parcel. Two classes of matter may be mailed together in accordance with these provisions without stamps affixed and the postage thereon paid in money by persons holding nonmetered mailing permits.

(e) Third-class matter fully prepaid at the third-class rate of postage may be attached to or mailed with matter of the second or fourth class fully prepaid at the rate applicable to matter of the respective class in the manner and under the conditions set forth above.

In all cases the envelope or portion of the container containing the third-class matter must be prominently indorsed "Third Class," and such envelope or portion of the container must be left unsealed. (See article 15 of this chapter relating to "Invoice" enclosures.)

7. Additions to fourth-class mail.—There may be placed on fourth-class matter, or on the wrapper or cover, tag or label, any marks, numbers, names, or letters for purposes of description. There may be written on the blank leaves or cover of any book a simple manuscript dedication or inscription not in the nature of personal correspondence. Space sufficient for a legible address, postmark, the necessary postage stamps, and any words necessary for forwarding or return, must be left on the address side of parcels. Inscriptions, such as "Merry Christmas," "With best wishes," "Do not open until Christmas," or words to that effect may be written on fourth-class mail, or on a card enclosed therewith.

8. Enclosures.—There may be enclosed with fourth-class matter a written or printed invoice showing the name and address of the sender and of the addressee; the names and quantities of articles enclosed, together with inscriptions indicating "for purpose of description," the price, style, stock number, size and quality of the articles; the order or file number, date of order, and date and manner of shipment; and the initials or name of the salesman, or the persons by whom the articles were packed or checked. The words "No charge," or "Charge," being equivalent to a price are permissible.

Invoices may not bear written indorsements showing the amounts remitted by the customers when they differ from those representing the value of the articles shipped with such invoices, nor show the amounts due from or to the customer.

Orders from customers are permissible enclosures in parcels containing merchandise to which they relate, when all reference to items which are not enclosed in the parcel are completely obliterated. Indications may be made by means of a hand stamp covering the items as entered on the customer's order, provided 20 or more identical copies of such handstamped imprints are mailed at one time. Explanations and references with respect to articles ordered but not included in the parcels are not permissible unless printed or hand stamped, 20 or more identical hand stamped imprints being mailed at one time in the latter case.

Senders of parcels mailed at the fourth-class rates of postage may enclose invoices bearing no unauthorized additions in unsealed envelopes attached to the outside of the parcels which they are to accompany, provided the envelopes are plainly marked, preferably in printing, "Invoice inside," or words to that effect. The return card of the mailer should properly appear on both the envelope and the parcel, but the combination article may be accepted with the name and address of the sender on one portion and the address on the other. If it is desired to seal the envelope, this may be done, provided the parcel bears the required indicia authorizing opening for postal inspection, or such indicia is placed on the envelope.

9. Identifying enclosure.—In order to facilitate identification by the Postal Service in instances where wrappers or shipping tags become separated from parcels, all shippers are urged to protect their interests by including in each parcel they mail a slip containing the name and address of the sender and the name and address of the addressee.

CHAPTER VIII

DEPOSITING MAIL FOR DELIVERY

1. Letter drops are provided in lobbies of all post offices for the deposit of mail.
 2. For the convenience of the public, letter boxes for the deposit of mail matter are placed at convenient points in places where city letter carriers are employed. Schedules are posted on these boxes showing the time of collection.
 3. Mail matter upon which proper postage has been paid may be deposited for collection in mail boxes on rural routes.
 4. Mail matter may be deposited in collection boxes in railroad stations.
 5. First-class mail matter upon which proper postage has been paid may be given to the postal transportation clerks on duty in mail cars, transfer offices, and air-mail fields from which such mail can be prepared for dispatch.
- Mail matter of the second, third, or fourth class when presented by representatives of manufacturers or distributors of serums or pharmaceutical supplies and indorsed "Emergency—This package has been weighed and necessary postage affixed. If any additional postage is found to be due at destination, same is guaranteed by the sender," will also be accepted by postal transportation clerks.
- The privilege of posting letters in mail cars and in letter boxes at railroad stations from which collections are made by postal transportation clerks is intended only as an accommodation to travelers and to permit the mailing of a few late letters which cannot be deposited in post offices in time for their intended dispatch.
- Second-, third-, and fourth-class matter and matter to be registered is not mailable at mail cars, transfer offices, or air-mail fields.
6. Matter mailed at second-class pound rates and permit matter must be presented at the post office, station or branch thereof, as designated by the postmaster at the office of mailing.
 7. Patrons are urged to deposit their mail as early in the day as possible. Early mailing will advance the delivery time.

CHAPTER IX

SPECIAL DELIVERY AND SPECIAL HANDLING

1. Special delivery.—(a) Special-delivery service is the prompt handling, transportation, and delivery of mail by messenger during prescribed hours to points within a radius of 1 mile of any post office or delivery station or branch of such office, and within the city or village delivery limits of offices having delivery service where such limits extend in excess of 1 mile from the post office, station, or branch, and by rural carrier to patrons of rural service who reside more than 1 mile from the post office, station, or branch, but within one-half mile of the rural route. All special-delivery mail is handled and transported in the same manner and with the same expedition as first-class mail.

(b) "Does not insure safety."—When it is desired to send money by special delivery, money orders should be used; otherwise the matter should be registered. Merchandise should be insured, but small articles of considerable value or important papers should be registered.

(c) Hours of delivery.—From 7 a. m. to 11 p. m. at city delivery offices, and from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m. at all other offices, or until after the arrival of the last mail, provided that is not later than 9 p. m. Special-delivery matter of all classes, including registered and insured, will be delivered on Sundays at all post offices of the first and second classes receiving mail on that day, such deliveries will be made immediately after the receipt of each mail, and at other offices if the mail or mails arrive between the closing hour on Saturday and 6 p. m. on Sunday, special-delivery mail will be delivered on Sunday. Special-delivery service is performed at all offices on holidays.

(d) Military posts and camps.—The Post Office Department and the Department of Defense entered into an agreement on August 21, 1950, providing that no special delivery service will be rendered by military personnel.

No special-delivery service by special-delivery messenger is provided except to persons at addresses such as officers' homes, headquarters, hospitals, and other places where it is definitely known that delivery can be made and expedited by the use of special-delivery messengers.

(e) Forwarding.—After special delivery matter has been taken out for delivery and returned with the information that the person addressed has removed to the delivery of another office, and such matter is then forwarded, it is not entitled to special delivery at the office of second address.

(f) Special-delivery rates.—(In addition to the regular postage.)

Weight	Class of matter
	First	Second, third, and fourth
Up to 2 pounds.....	Cents 20	Cents 35
Over 2 but not over 10 pounds.....	35	45
Over 10 pounds.....	50	60

2. Special handling.—Special-handling service is provided in order that fourth-class parcels may receive the most expeditious handling and transportation practicable. Special-handling matter is accorded the same expeditious distribution and dispatch as special-delivery matter; however it is not delivered by messenger at the office of destination. On arriving at office of destination, special-handling parcels are delivered as parcel post is ordinarily delivered on regular scheduled trips.

The rates for special handling are in addition to the regular postage rates and are as follows:

Weight	Fee
Up to 2 pounds.....	Cents 15
Over 2 but not over 10 pounds.....	20
Over 10 pounds.....	25

CHAPTER X

DELIVERY OF MAIL

1. Post office boxes.—(a) Post office boxes and drawers may be rented at quarterly rates, payable in advance, for the convenience of the public in the delivery of mail. The service affords patrons privacy, eliminates the necessity of waiting in line at delivery windows and permits them to obtain mail after regular post office hours where the lobby is kept open.

(b) Conditions for use.—The use of a box is restricted to one individual, family, firm, or corporation.

An individual renting a box may have placed therein:

- (1) Mail addressed to himself.
- (2) Mail directed to a visitor temporarily residing with him.
- (3) Mail addressed to his care or the number of his box by persons who wish him to take care of it for them for not more than 30 days.
- (4) Mail addressed to members of his family.
- (5) Mail addressed to his servants or other employees who reside in his house.
- (6) Mail addressed to a relative or other person who permanently resides in his house as do the other members of his family. Boarders or roomers are not considered as members of the family.

A firm renting a box may have placed therein:

- (1) All mail addressed to its name.
- (2) Mail addressed to any of its officials and office employees.
- (3) By the consent of all the members of a firm any member thereof may have mail addressed to himself or members of his family deposited in the box assigned to its use.

A corporation renting a box or drawer may have placed therein:

- (1) Mail addressed to its name.
 - (2) Mail addressed to any of its officials and office employees.
- Mail addressed to students at a college or seminary or other educational institution may be placed in the box rented by the institution if consistent with their rules.

Mail matter addressed to the inmates of any public institution, when such is the rule of the institution, may be deposited in the box rented by it.

A society or association may rent a box, but a box so rented is not available for the use of individual members of such society or association other than the officers thereof when addressed by their official title.

Persons desiring post office lock boxes are required to make application to the postmaster on Form 1092½ and furnish references.

Boxes are not assigned to use of any person until Form 1092½ has been passed upon and the box rent until the beginning of the following quarter, has been paid in advance for which the postmaster is required to give a receipt.

(c) Keys and key deposits.—A deposit of 22 cents is required for each key furnished.

Renters of lock boxes are not permitted to use any keys except those regularly issued through the post office and are required to return all keys whether a deposit has been made therefor or not whenever a box or drawer is surrendered.

2. General delivery.—General-delivery service is designed for the use of patrons at offices not having city or village delivery service, and at offices having carrier-delivery service for transients and those patrons who are not permanently located or who cannot, for good and sufficient reasons satisfactory to the postmaster, receive mail by carrier or through a post office box.

Persons applying for mail at the general-delivery window, if unknown, may be required to prove identity.

General delivery at carrier-delivery offices.—Persons intending to remain for 30 days or more in a city having carrier service should file their names and street addresses at the post office so that their mail may be delivered by carrier unless lock-box service is desired. Persons residing in cities having carrier delivery service may for good and sufficient reasons satisfactory to the postmaster receive their mail at general-delivery windows.

3. City delivery service.—(a) Establishment and extension.—City delivery service may be established at any city having postal receipts of at least $10,000 for the preceding fiscal year and having a population of 2,500 or more residing within territory possessing good continuous sidewalks, paved streets, house numbers, street lights and signs, and mail receptacles or door slots. The territory must also be 50 percent improved with houses.

In order to extend existing delivery service to new areas 50 percent of the proposed new territory must be improved with houses, provided with improved streets, good continuous sidewalks, street lights and street signs, and the houses numbered and provided with mail receptacles or slots in the front doors, for receipt of mail. When two or more building lots constitute the grounds of one residence the plot may be regarded as improved. The Department will waive the requirement with regard to sidewalks provided all other requirements are met. There must, however, be satisfactory walks leading from the street to the front entrances of dwellings. Walks of any material, including gravel and cinders, that render them passable throughout the year are acceptable.

(b) Receptacles.—Patrons of the carrier-delivery service must provide mail receptacles or door slots. Business houses are not required to provide mail receptacles or door slots if they are open and someone is on hand to receive the mail when the carrier calls. Where an office building is equipped with elevator, carriers will make delivery to individual offices provided they are open for business. Otherwise, mail receptacles or door slots must be provided.

(c) Door slots.—The clear rectangular opening in the outside slot plate should be 1½ inches wide, and 7 inches in length. The slot must have a spring flap, hinged at the top, if placed horizontally, and hinged on the side away from the hinge side of the door, if placed vertically. When the hinged flap is pushed back it must not obstruct the 1½ by 7-inch opening in the slot plate. The size of chute must conform to the slot-plate opening. When a hooded plate is used inside to provide greater privacy, the bottom line of the hooded portion must be not more than three-quarters of an inch below the bottom line of the slot in the outside plate, if placed horizontally, or more than three-quarters of an inch beyond the side line of the slot in the outside plate nearest the hinge edge of the door, if placed vertically. The hood at its greatest projection must be not less than 2¼ inches beyond the inside face of the door. These slots should be placed not less than 30 inches from the finished floor line.

(d) Apartment-houses mail receptacles.—Approved apartment-house mail receptacles, one for each apartment (conforming to the apartment-house mail receptacle regulations pamphlet and amendments, which may be secured upon application to the Assistant Postmaster General, Bureau of Post Office Operations), should be provided in apartment houses, family hotels, and flats containing three or more apartments except where the management has arranged that mail for the tenants be delivered at the office or desk for distribution by its employees. Directory boards, showing the names of all persons receiving mail, should be provided in apartment houses where there are 25 or more receptacles.

(e) Mail chutes.—Mailing chutes and receiving boxes may be placed, subject to the approval of the postmaster, in public buildings, railroad stations, hotels, and business or office buildings of not less than four stories in height and apartment houses comprising not less than 40 residential apartments. Mail chutes must conform to the requirements outlined in the mail-chute regulations, copies of which may be secured upon application to the Assistant Postmaster General, Bureau of Post Office Operations.

4. Rural-delivery service.—(a) Mail is delivered by rural carriers to persons who provide approved boxes and erect them on the line of travel of the carriers in the manner prescribed by the Department, except those residing within the city delivery limits of cities where letter carrier service is in operation, or within the village delivery limits of cities, towns or villages where village-delivery service is in operation.

(b) Mail addressed to box and route number may be delivered.—Mail other than registered, insured, and C. O. D. matter, for delivery by rural carriers which is addressed merely to the box and route number may be delivered to the owner of the box so long as no improper or unlawful business is conducted in this manner.

Rural carriers will deliver outside of the mail boxes maintained by the patrons ordinary parcel-post packages which are too large to be contained in the boxes, provided the addressees have filed with the postmaster written orders for delivery in this manner, with the express proviso that the Department and the carriers are relieved of all responsibility in case of loss or depredation. However, where a patron lives within hailing distance of a route, the carrier will, before making delivery in this manner, make a reasonable effort to hail the patron so that he may come to the mail box to receive the parcel.

(c) Boxes.—(1) Location of the boxes of rural patrons.—It is a requirement of the Department that the boxes maintained by patrons of rural routes shall be so placed that they may be conveniently served by the carriers without the need of leaving their conveyances, and that they shall be located on the right-hand side of the road in the direction of travel of the carriers in all cases where the traffic conditions are such that it would be dangerous for the carriers to drive to the left in order to reach the boxes, or their doing so would constitute a violation of the traffic laws and regulations. On new rural routes all boxes must be located on the right-hand side of the road in the direction of the travel of the carrier. The boxes must be placed to conform with the laws of the State or the regulations of the officials having supervision over the highways, and where they will be accessible to the carriers as required by the regulations of the Department.

(2) Grouping of boxes.—Cooperation of patrons is asked with a view to the grouping of boxes wherever possible, especially at or near cross roads or at other places on the routes where a considerable number of boxes are located.

A simple and practicable support that may be used for the purpose consists of a board erected on firmly planted posts, the height of the shelf upon which the boxes are placed to be about $3\frac{1}{2}$ to 4 feet above the surface of the ground.

(3) Rural mail boxes and supports should be painted.—It is the desire of the Department that all rural mail boxes be painted white, but it is permissible to use aluminum instead of white paint. It is also desired that the posts or supports of the boxes be painted white, but no objection will be made by the Department to the use, in the case of boxes erected along main highways, of the same color scheme as that applied in the painting of guard rails on such highways. While it is not a requirement that mail boxes and their supports be painted, it is earnestly hoped that patrons will comply with the request to do so, since it will protect the equipment, add to the appearance of the boxes and the right-of-way along which they are located, and is in the interest of the civic pride of the individuals and the community. The name of the owner of each box must be inscribed thereon. It is suggested that the name be inscribed in neat black letters about 1 inch in height on the side of the box which is visible to the carrier as he approaches it when serving the route.

(4) Mail boxes for use on rural routes.—The Postmaster General has approved mail boxes of two sizes for use on rural routes. The box of the No. 1 size is approximately 19 inches long, $6\frac{1}{2}$ inches wide, and $8\frac{1}{2}$ inches high. The box of the No. 2 size is approximately 23 inches long, 11 inches wide, and $13\frac{1}{2}$ inches high. It is required that new patrons of the rural-delivery service and those patrons of existing routes who find it necessary to replace their mail boxes shall provide mail boxes of one of the two approved sizes, which are constructed by authorized manufacturers in accordance with specifications prepared by the Department.

Concerns authorized to manufacture and sell mail boxes for use on rural routes.—The following list shows the manufacturers of mail boxes whose samples have been approved.

 United States Steel Products Co., Boyle Manufacturing Division, 5100 Santa Fe Ave., Los Angeles 11, Calif.

Weatherford, J. E., & Son Tool & Die Co., 709 Drexel Street, Nashville, Tenn.

(5) Inspection of boxes.—The boxes produced by the authorized manufacturers will be inspected from time to time by representatives of the Department and no boxes will be accepted that do not conform with the specifications as to material, mode of construction, workmanship, and finish.

(6) No special designs of posts or supports.—The Department has not adopted or approved any special designs of posts or supports. The use of offices as supports, or of supports intended to represent figures or mechanical objects is prohibited. The posts or other supports on which rural mail boxes are erected must be of neat design, may be of wood, metal, or concrete, of suitable strength and dimensions; may be either round or square, plain or ornamental, with or without fixed or movable arm; and should be painted white.

(7) Agents to promote sales.—Authorized manufacturers are not prohibited from employing agents throughout the country to promote the sale of their boxes. But, regardless of any contracts or arrangements between manufacturers and agents, patrons may purchase boxes direct from manufacturers, patrons paying cost of transportation.

5. Star-route delivery.—Any person living on or near a star route—where the contract calls for box delivery and collection service and not within the corporate limits of any town, nor within 80 rods of any post office, who desires his mail deposited at a given point on the line of the route by the carrier, must provide and erect a suitable box which will properly protect the mail or provide a sack or satchel with suitable post or crane so erected that the carrier may deliver and collect mail without dismounting from his vehicle. Star-route carriers are considered agents of the patrons for whom they deliver and collect mail along their routes and not as employees of the Postal Service.

Persons residing on roads traveled by both rural and star route carriers may qualify as patrons of either or both routes.

6. Delivery to individuals.—(a) Mail matter is delivered to the person addressed or in accordance with his written order. When the addressee habitually sends for or receives his mail through his clerk, servant, agent, or some member of his family and recognizes or acquiesces in such delivery no written order is required. The endorsement "personal" or "deliver to addressee only" does not affect the delivery of ordinary mail.

(b) "In care of -----", mail addressed to one person in care of another will be delivered to the first of the two persons named who may call for it, or to the address of the person in whose care it is directed, in the absence of other instructions from the addressee.

(c) Prisoners mail.—A letter addressed to a person imprisoned to await trial, under indictment, or pending indictment, should be delivered in accordance with the order of the person addressed. In the absence of an order the mail may be delivered to the sheriff or officer having charge of the prisoner.

(d) Husband or wife.—Neither husband nor wife can control the delivery of mail addressed to the other against the wishes of the one to whom it is addressed.

(e) Minors.—The delivery of mail addressed to a minor is subject to the order of the parent or guardian upon whom the minor is dependent.

(f) Persons of the same name.—When two or more persons of the same name receive mail at the same post office, they should, where practicable, adopt some form of address or other means by which their mail may be distinguished, and make every effort to have their mail completely and specifically addressed.

(g) Officials.—Mail addressed to a public official or to an officer of a corporation, by his title, will be delivered to the person actually holding the office designated in the address, the assumption being that the mail is intended for the officer as such.

(h) Wrong delivery.—A person receiving mail not intended for him should return it promptly to the post office for proper disposition. If such mail has been opened by mistake it should be endorsed, "Opened by mistake," with the signature of the person who received it.

7. Delivery to firms, hotels, schools, etc.—Mail addressed to firms, hotels, schools, and similar institutions or to a person residing or employed at such establishments will be placed in the post office box if one has been rented, or delivered to a person designated to receive the mail if a post office box has not been rented.

Managers of firms, hotels, or schools, and officers of clubs, boards of trade, and exchanges, should not hold unclaimed mail addressed to their care longer than 10 days, except at the request of the person addressed, and should redirect it for forwarding if the present address is known; otherwise, such mail should be returned to the post office.

8. General rules governing delivery.—(a) Heavy or bulky packages of any class will be delivered as addressed if facilities are available.

Parcel post, registered, insured, C. O. D., and special-delivery articles will be delivered to the addressee or his authorized agent in person without regard to the floor on which his office or apartment is located. Cooperation of patrons is requested, however, in making arrangements for mail to be delivered on the first floor.

(b) Parcel post delivery.—Parcels will not be left on porches, steps, or elsewhere unprotected, except upon written order of the patron.

(c) Second attempt.—If an ordinary parcel fails of delivery on the carrier's first attempt a notice will be left at the address indicating that the parcel is held awaiting call at the post office or carrier delivery station. A second attempt will be made only if requested by the addressee.

(d) Parcel post mail for patrons residing within the city delivery limits who receive mail through rented boxes will be delivered to a designated street address by carrier upon written request.

9. Recall of mail matter.—After mail matter has been deposited in a post office it may not be withdrawn except by the sender, or, in case of a minor child, by the parent, or guardian duly authorized to control the correspondence of the writer. Mail deposited by a person adjudicated of unsound mind may be withdrawn by the duly appointed guardian.

When matter withdrawn from the mails before dispatch is again presented for mailing, the stamps originally affixed thereto will be accepted in payment of postage to the amount of their face value. This does not apply to stamps affixed in payment of registry, insurance or c. o. d. fees.

When the sender of any article of unregistered matter desires its return after it has been dispatched from the mailing office, application therefor shall be made on Form 1509 to the postmaster at the office of mailing. The requirement that the application for the recall of mail matter shall be made through the mailing office does not apply to official mail.

10. Delivery of mail in transit.—Ordinary mail in transit may be withdrawn and delivered from the distributing post office upon personal or written application of the addressee, with satisfactory identification.

CHAPTER XI

UNDELIVERABLE MAIL MATTER

1. First class.—Letters and other mail of the first class on which the postage is fully prepaid, and official matter, when undeliverable, will be returned to the sender without additional postage, provided such mail bears the name and address of the sender. Letters and other mail of the first class prepaid one full rate (3 cents) but not fully prepaid will be subject, when returned to the sender as undeliverable, to the deficient postage. Undeliverable postal and post cards, whether single or double, and whether addressed for local delivery or otherwise, will be returned to the sender only when they bear his return card in the upper left corner of the address side, together with a pledge to pay return postage. Cards bearing the sender's return address and pledge to pay return postage will be returned charged with postage due at the rate of 2 cents each, to be collected on delivery except in the case of double cards having postage affixed to the reply half. Undeliverable double cards having postage affixed to the reply half will be endorsed to show reason for nondelivery, reverse folded, and returned to sender without additional charge.

2. Second-class matter mailed by publishers.—The procedure for handling copies of second-class publications which are undeliverable as addressed is stated in section 34.63, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948.

3. Third and fourth class.—Undeliverable matter of the third and fourth classes which bears the pledge of the sender that postage for its return will be paid, and undeliverable third- and fourth-class matter of obvious value which does not bear the pledge, shall be returned to the sender without notice, rated with the postage chargeable for its return, such postage to be collected by means of postage-due stamps on delivery of the matter to the sender.

4. Mail entitled to directory service.—Directory service is given to all the following described mail which cannot be delivered due to lack of address or to indefinite address, or which fails of delivery at the address given:

(a) Registered, insured, C. O. D., special-delivery mail of all classes, special-handling parcels, foreign mail, except circulars, and ordinary parcels of obvious value.

5. Undeliverable baby chicks.—The following information and instructions apply to all shipments of day-old chicks, whether sent as ordinary, insured or C. O. D. mail.

(a) It is understood that 60 hours from the time of hatching is the maximum time under favorable conditions which live day-old chicks reasonably may live without food and water. Therefore, shipments of live day-old chicks will not be forwarded or returned when the shipments can not reach their final destination and be delivered within 60 hours from the time the chicks were hatched.

(b) Shippers of baby chicks are advised to mail their shipments sufficiently early to assure their arrival at the offices of address not later than Saturday morning or the morning of a day preceding a holiday.

(c) It happens at times that orders are received by shippers of live day-old chicks from patrons on rural routes where the number of deliveries are not more than twice or thrice a week and while the chicks might be received at the office of address well within the 60-hour period, if they arrive after the carrier has left the post office the shipment will be delayed in delivery from 24 to over 48 hours at the office of delivery. To avoid instances of this kind, unsatisfactory both to the shippers of the chicks and to the Postal Service, it is suggested to shippers of live day-old chicks that when they receive orders for shipments of chicks to be delivered on rural routes they ascertain the frequency and days of delivery on the routes involved before making the shipments. This may be accomplished in advertisements by requesting those who order live day-old chicks for delivery on rural routes to specify the days of delivery over these routes, and when this information is not furnished with the orders it should be ascertained from the customer or the postmaster before the shipments are made.

(d) Shipments of live day-old chicks that are delayed beyond the 60-hour limit by washouts, snow blockades, wrecks, and the like, will be disposed of by postmasters in accordance with instructions in paragraph (f) of this article.

(e) If a shipment of live day-old chicks is unqualifiedly refused or it is definitely ascertained that for some other reason delivery can not be made, and such a shipment can be returned to the office of mailing and delivered to the sender within 60 hours from the time the chicks were hatched, such action will be taken. However, it is believed that cases of this kind will be rare.

(f) If a shipment cannot be returned to the sender in accordance with the foregoing instructions, it will be sold to the best advantage possible and the amount realized therefrom, less a commission of 10 percent, but in no case less than 15 cents, transmitted to the sender with a statement of the facts in the case. Postage due stamps representing the amount retained as commission for the sale of the articles shall be affixed to the . . . carbon copy of the letter of transmittal to the sender, canceled, . . . and retained in the files of the remitting office. Sale will not be made to the addressee except under the conditions set forth in paragraph (g) of this article.

(g) If a shipment of live day-old chicks is received at the office of address and it is not promptly accepted by the addressee, it will be held for delivery until the expiration of the 60-hour period from the time of hatching, if there is a possibility that delivery may be effected within that period. If, at the expiration of the 60-hour period, the shipment has not been accepted, it will be sold and the proceeds disposed of as above stated. Such shipments will not be sold to the original addressee unless paid for in full. If the parcel is sent collect-on-delivery, the C. O. D. charges plus the money-order fee will show the minimum amount which may be accepted from the addressee, which is the amount that would have been collected from the addressee had the parcel been accepted when originally offered for delivery. If the parcel is sent as ordinary or insured mail and the price is not known to the postmaster, the addressee will not be permitted to buy the chicks after refusing to accept them.

6. Dead mail matter.—All undeliverable first-class mail, except first-class parcels and parcel post matter charged with first-class postage, which cannot be returned to the sender, is sent to a dead letter branch. Undeliverable matter of the third- and fourth-classes of obvious value for which the sender does not furnish return postage and undeliverable first-class parcels and parcel post matter charged with postage of the first class, which cannot be returned to the sender, is sent to a dead parcel post branch.

Letters without valuable enclosures will be returned to writers whenever possible subject to a charge of 5 cents.

Letters containing valuables will be returned to senders whenever possible subject to the minimum registry fee in addition to the 5-cent charge.

Parcels of fourth-class mail returned to the sender from the dead parcel post branch will be charged with postage at the zone rate from the dead parcel branch together with an additional charge for postage at the zone rate from the post office where the matter was originally retained to the dead parcel branch.

7. Articles found loose in the mails.—Money or uncanceled postage stamps will be retained for 1 month, and merchandise for 2 months pending a claim therefor by the rightful owner.

8. Forwarding mail matter.—(a) Ordinary mail.—A person desiring to have his mail forwarded should file with the postmaster at the office of address a request on Form 22, signed in writing, giving his present address, the full address to which the mail is to be forwarded and specific information as to the time during which the order is to be observed and indicating whether the addressee guarantees forwarding postage in cases where forwarding postage is necessary. An unlimited order affecting general-delivery mail at city-carrier post offices expires at the end of 30 days unless renewed. If a person who has filed such an order at a post office returns to the delivery of that office before the expiration of the time indicated in his forwarding order he should immediately have the order canceled.

(b) Exceptions.—A change of street number to secure delivery at the office of address is not a "forwarding" and does not subject the mail to additional postage.

Patrons of any office, who, on account of a change in the postal service, receive their mail from another post office may have mail matter of all classes transmitted to that office without additional charge for postage, provided they first file with the postmaster at the former office a request to have their mail so sent. This is not to be construed as "Forwarding" within the meaning of the law. Such patrons should advise their correspondents of their change of address.

Mail matter of all classes addressed to persons in the service of the United States (civil, military, or naval) whose change of address is caused by official orders will be transmitted until it reaches the addressee without a new payment of postage.

(c) Hotels, clubs, etc.—Managers of firms, hotels, or schools, and officers of clubs, boards of trade, and exchanges, should not hold unclaimed mail addressed to their care longer than 10 days, except at the request of the person addressed, and should redirect it for forwarding if the present address is known; otherwise, such mail should be returned to the post office.

(d) Unnecessary inscriptions not permitted.—Inscriptions not necessary to proper forwarding subject the matter to new prepayment of postage. This includes advertisements of hotels, clubs, etc., forwarding mail for guests or members.

(e) First class.—Mail which can be forwarded without additional charge for postage includes letters prepaid at one full rate, parcels fully prepaid at the first class rate, postal cards, post cards, and official matter.

(f) Second, third, and fourth classes.—Mail of the second, third, and fourth classes is subject to postage anew every time it is forwarded, as follows: (a) Second-class matter, at the regular third- or fourth-class rate, whichever may be applicable according to weight, as provided by article 2, Chapter XI; (b) third-class matter (including that originally mailed under section 34.66, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1948), 2 cents for the first 2 ounces or fraction thereof plus 1 cent for each additional ounce or fraction thereof except in the case of books (including catalogs) having 24 pages or more, on which the rate is 1½ cents for each two ounces or fraction thereof; (c) fourth-class or parcel post matter, at the pound rates applicable between the forwarding office and the one to which the mail is forwarded, as shown in the table in Chapter III, Article 67. Parcels originally sent as special-handling mail are subject to postage anew at the regular rates but not to an additional special handling charge when forwarded. Mail of the third, and fourth classes which bears a pledge to pay the forwarding postage and such mail which is of obvious value may be forwarded to the addressee or such other person as the sender may direct on the matter itself, at another post office and the forwarding postage collected on delivery. Mail of the third, or fourth classes bearing a pledge to pay forwarding postage only is acceptable for mailing with the understanding that the senders will pay both the forwarding and return postage if the matter is returned as undeliverable from the office to which forwarded.

(g) No particular form of pledge to pay return or forwarding postage is prescribed, but it must be placed immediately below the sender's return card, which is required in all cases, in the upper left corner of the address side, or on one of the outside covers of unwrapped copies of second-class publications, and so worded as to show clearly that the forwarding or return postage will be paid. The following are suggested as suitable forms of pledges:

POSTMASTER: Return Postage Guaranteed.

POSTMASTER: Forwarding and Return Postage Guaranteed.

POSTMASTER: If undeliverable and not forwardable to addressee, please forward to ---- at ---- (giving name and address of person to whom matter is to be delivered) rated with postage due to cover forwarding charge, payment of which on delivery is guaranteed by sender.

When the addressee of a parcel of third- or fourth-class matter accepts the parcel, opens it and examines the contents, the parcel has been delivered, so far as the Postal Service is concerned, and cannot be returned to the postmaster as "Refused" nor again enter the mails without a new prepayment of postage, even though it bears the pledge of the sender to pay the return postage.

9. Deceased persons.—Mail matter with the exception of pension mail addressed to a deceased person will be delivered to the executor or administrator of his estate; if there be none, delivery will be made to the surviving husband or widow, unless there are other claimants.

10. Fraudulent and fictitious addresses.—Mail matter must be directed to be delivered at a designated place, such as a post office box, a street address or in the care of a person or firm receiving mail at the post office of address. Ordinary mail addressed to fictitious names of persons or firms, to fraudulent or fictitious addresses, or to no particular person will not be delivered.

CHAPTER XII

LOSS OR MISTREATMENT OF MAIL, REWARDS

1. Every instance of loss, rifling, damage, or other mistreatment of mail should be reported to the local postmaster. Patrons are requested to present the envelope, wrapper or container if available and to furnish the postmaster with as much information as possible concerning the article in question.

While indemnities are not paid for the loss or other mistreatment of domestic ordinary mail it is important that such loss or other mistreatment be reported. It is through reports by patrons that conditions causing losses, or other mistreatment of mail, are corrected.

2. Rewards for the arrest of mail robbers, etc.—Rewards will be paid for the detection, arrest, and conviction of post-office burglars, robbers, and highway mail robbers in accordance with the following order of the Postmaster General:

“ORDER No. 55138

“On and after May 1, 1953, unless otherwise ordered, the Post Office Department will pay the following rewards, providing Congress makes available the necessary appropriation:

“ROBBERY OR ATTEMPTED ROBBERY—NOT TO EXCEED $2,000

“(1) Not exceeding two thousand dollars for the arrest and conviction of any offender on the charge of assaulting any person having lawful charge, control, or custody of any mail, or money or other property of the United States, with intent to rob, steal, or purloin such mail, or money or other property of the United States, or any part thereof, or on the charge of robbing any such person of any such mail, or money or other property of the United States, if in effecting or attempting to effect such robbery, he shall wound the person having custody of the mail, or money or other property of the United States, or put his life in jeopardy by the use of a dangerous weapon.

“ROBBERY OR ATTEMPTED ROBBERY—NOT TO EXCEED $1,000

“(2) Not exceeding one thousand dollars for the arrest and conviction of any offender on the charge of assaulting any person having lawful charge, control, or custody of any mail, or money or other property of the United States, with intent to rob, steal, or purloin such mail, or money or other property of the United States, or any part thereof, or of robbing such person of such mail, or money or other property of the United States, or any part thereof, where the assault does not include the wounding of the person having custody of the mail, or money or other property of the United States, or the putting of his life in jeopardy by the use of a dangerous weapon.

“MAILING OF BOMBS—NOT TO EXCEED $200

“(4) Not exceeding two hundred dollars for the arrest and conviction of any person on the charge of mailing or causing to be mailed any bomb, infernal machine, or mechanical, chemical, or other device or composition which may ignite or explode, and which may kill or in anywise hurt, harm, or injure another, or damage, deface, or otherwise injure the mails or other property.

"(5) Not exceeding two hundred dollars for the arrest and conviction of any person on the charge of breaking into or attempting to break into a post office, or any building used in whole or in part as a post office, with intent to commit in such post office, or part of said building used as a post office, any larceny or other depredation. A post office station will be regarded as coming within the meaning of the term post office as used in this section.

"STEALING MAIL—NOT TO EXCEED $200

"(6) Not exceeding two hundred dollars for the arrest and conviction of any person on the charge of stealing mail or any valuable thing contained therein, or money or other property of the United States, while being conveyed over any post route, or while in the custody of any mail messenger, or being conveyed to or from any railroad depot, or of robbing or stealing from the mail while it remains at any railroad depot awaiting transfer.

"(7) Not exceeding two hundred dollars for the arrest and conviction of any person on the charge of stealing mail or any valuable thing contained therein, or money or other property of the United States, from or out of any mail, post office, or station thereof, or from any person properly having custody of any mail, money or property as aforesaid, or of larceny from any letter box, street letter box, or other receptacle established, approved, or designated by the Postmaster General for the receipt of mail on any rural delivery route, star route, or other mail route, or from a box rented in a post office, or from any public receptacle or other authorized depository for mail.

"GENERAL PROVISIONS

"(9) For the arrest and conviction of any person as accessory to any of the offenses above mentioned, or for receiving or having unlawful possession of any mail, money, or property stolen from a post office or from a station of a post office, or otherwise, as provided in this Notice of Reward, the same reward will be paid as for the arrest and conviction of the principal offender.

"(10) When an offender is killed in the act of committing any of the crimes enumerated herein, or in resisting lawful arrest, the same reward may be paid as though he had been tried and convicted.

"(11) When a person has been convicted of committing any offense enumerated herein a reward may be paid, even though such person when arrested was charged with committing an offense not so enumerated. When a person has been adjudged a juvenile delinquent because of having committed any offense enumerated herein, the same reward may be paid as though he had been convicted of such offense.

"(12) The reward that may be allowed under the offers made in the preceding paragraphs will be determined according to the circumstances surrounding the particular case and on the basis of the services personally rendered by each claimant. In deciding what amount should be paid, the importance and value of the service rendered, the character of the person arrested and convicted, the risks or hazards involved, the time consumed, the expenses incurred and the efforts put forth, will govern. Maximum rewards will be paid only when the services performed were of maximum value.

"(13) Separate applications should be made in writing to the Chief Post Office Inspector, Washington 25, D. C., by each person who claims a reward. Applications for reward should state the name of the offender, and the date and nature of the offense.

"(14) Payment for services meriting a reward will be made, subject to the necessary appropriation, as aforesaid, upon presentation of satisfactory evidence and after appropriate investigation. A claim will not be considered unless presented within six months from the date of conviction of an offender, or within six months from the date of his death, if he was killed in the act of committing a crime, or in resisting lawful arrest.

"(15) In order that all claimants for rewards in any case may have an opportunity to present their claims, the Department reserves the right to withhold taking final action until the time limit specified in the preceding paragraph has expired and the claims have been investigated.

"(16) The Post Office Department reserves the right to reject a claim when the circumstances in the case do not justify the payment of a reward or when, in its opinion, there has been collusion, or when improper methods have been used to effect an arrest or to secure a conviction; and it also reserves the right to allow only one reward where several persons have been convicted of the same offense, or when one person has been convicted of several offenses, unless the circumstances, in its judgement, entitle the claimant to a reward for each conviction.

"(17) All previous offers of reward are hereby rescinded except as they may apply to cases in which arrests were made prior to May 1, 1953."

CHAPTER XIII

REGISTERED MAIL

1. Purpose.—The domestic registry system affords special safeguards and greater security in the transmission of money and other valuable or important matter in the mails and provides indemnity, limited to amounts not exceeding $1,000, for loss, rifling, or damage.

Private insurance companies place additional insurance on registered mail if the sender desires to protect his interests more fully.

A receipt is given the sender for each article registered. A receipt is also taken from the addressee or his authorized representative at the time of delivery.

A receipt showing delivery is furnished the sender if he marks the envelope or wrapper "Return receipt requested," or "Return receipt requested showing address where delivered," when receipt showing this information is requested, and pays the fee prescribed for such receipt. (See art. 12 of this chapter.)

The sender, upon payment of the prescribed fee, may restrict the delivery of registered mail to addressee only or to addressee or order. The addressee, upon payment of the prescribed fee, may also restrict delivery to addressee or order. (See art. 13 of this chapter.)

2. Declaration of value.—(a) Senders of registered articles are uniformly required by law to declare the value of the contents at the time of mailing, and neither the Post Office Department nor postmasters are authorized to waive this requirement or to permit or condone any violation or evasion of it. The fact that registered articles may be covered by commercial insurance, does not permit the declaration of nominal or uniform values rather than real values, or relieve senders of the obligation of declaring the real value or of paying any required surcharges. When the full value knowingly and willfully is not stated at the time of mailing, the article is unmailable, and any claim for indemnity in any amount involving such mail is invalid.

(b) The following standards are furnished merely as a guide in determining the values to be declared on representative types of registered matter:

(1) Nonnegotiable securities, or valuable papers which can be duplicated—the known or estimated cost of duplication, including the cost of an indemnity bond, if required. If the cost of duplication of nonnegotiable securities cannot be determined readily, it may be stated as being 6 percent of the market value.

(2) Certificates of stock, regardless of the manner in which they are endorsed (considered as matter having intrinsic value)—the known or estimated cost of duplication, including the cost of an indemnity bond, if required.

(3) Valuable papers, checks, drafts, and other written or printed matter having on intrinsic value—no value. (If registry indemnity is desired, the known or estimated cost of duplication should be declared.)

(4) Negotiable securities—the market value on the date of mailing.

(5) Internal revenue documentary stamps—the face value of the stamps. (Internal revenue stamps, except documentary stamps, are regarded as not having intrinsic value.)

(c) When a registered article contains both matter declared for its full value and matter for which the known or estimated cost of duplication is declared, its declared value should be the sum of the value of the matter declared for full value and the amount of the cost of duplication of the other matter.

3. Fees.—(a) Registry fees are paid in stamps affixed or in money under permit. The fees, which are in addition to the regular postage, and the limits of indemnity therefor are as follows:

No indemnity*	$0. 30
For registry indemnity not exceeding $5	. 40
For registry indemnity exceeding $5 but not exceeding $25	. 55
For registry indemnity exceeding $25 but not exceeding $50	. 65
For registry indemnity exceeding $50 but not exceeding $75	. 75
For registry indemnity exceeding $75 but not exceeding $100	. 85
For registry indemnity exceeding $100 but not exceeding $200	. 95
For registry indemnity exceeding $200 but not exceeding $300	1. 05
For registry indemnity exceeding $300 but not exceeding $400	1. 15
For registry indemnity exceeding $400 but not exceeding $500	1. 25
For registry indemnity exceeding $500 but not exceeding $600	1. 35
For registry indemnity exceeding $600 but not exceeding $700	1. 45
For registry indemnity exceeding $700 but not exceeding $800	1. 55
For registry indemnity exceeding $800 but not exceeding $900	1. 65
For registry indemnity exceeding $900 but not exceeding $1,000	1. 75

*The minimum registration fee does not provide for indemnification in the event of loss, rifling, or damage, and is applicable only to matter having no intrinsic value. If indemnification for the cost of duplication of matter having no intrinsic value is desired, the sender must pay a registration fee in excess of 30 cents.

For registered mail having a declared value in excess of the maximum indemnity covered by the registry fee paid there are charged additional fees (surcharges) as follows:

When the declared value exceeds the maximum indemnity covered by the registry fee paid—

	Cents
By not more than $50	2
By more than $50 but not more than $100	3
By more than $100 but not more than $200	4
By more than $200 but not more than $400	6
By more than $400 but not more than $600	7
By more than $600 but not more than $800	8
By more than $800 but less than $1,000	10

If the excess of the declared value over the maximum indemnity covered by the registry fee paid is $1,000 or more, the additional fees (surcharges) for each $1,000 or part of $1,000 on articles destined to points within the several zones applicable to fourth-class matter are as follows:

	Cents
For local delivery or for delivery within the first zone	12
For delivery within the second zone	14
For delivery within the third zone	16
For delivery within the fourth zone	17
For delivery within the fifth or sixth zone	18
For delivery within the seventh or eighth zone	19

4. Amount of registry fee to be paid.—Matter having no intrinsic value may be registered upon payment of the minimum fee of 30 cents. The sender is required to pay a registry fee of at least 40 cents for matter having intrinsic value, and a fee of at least 55 cents if the mail to be registered exceeds $25 in value. With these exceptions, the sender of mail having intrinsic value may pay a fee based on the amount of indemnity he desires to claim in the event of loss, rifling or damage. The sender is not obliged to pay a fee to provide for full indemnification (within the maximum limit of $1,000), although such action is recommended.

5. Surcharges.—When the declared actual value of matter presented for registration exceeds the maximum amount of indemnity prescribed for the registry fee paid, such excess is subject to a surcharge in addition to the registry fee. Surcharges do not provide for additional postal indemnity above that prescribed for the registry fee paid, but were established by law for the purpose of providing additional revenue to meet partially the expense of affording special protection to valuable matter. The surcharge rates are set forth in article 2 and in the following table:

Fees and limits of indemnity for domestic registered mail, and surcharges based upon actual value and length of haul

6. Free registration.—(a) The following mail matter is entitled to free registration:

- (1) Official matter of the Post Office Department.
- (2) Certain matter relating to the Census.
- (3) Certain matter relating to naturalization.

(4) Correspondence of members of the Diplomatic Corps of member nations of the Postal Union of the Americas and Spain which accord the privilege reciprocally to officers of the United States. The same privilege is accorded consuls of such countries (and vice consuls discharging the function of consuls) for the exchange of official correspondence among themselves and with their respective embassies and legations and for that which they direct to the Government of the United States. (See Sec. 58.12 of the P. L. & R. and Article 13, Chapter V of the 1953 Official Postal Guide, Part II.)

(5) Letters, on which postage is paid, containing currency of the United States, a detailed list of which is filed with the postmaster at the office of mailing, after verification and sealing in his presence, sent to the Treasurer of the United States for redemption; and letters containing new currency returned from Washington, D. C., for currency redeemed by the Treasurer.

NOTE.—No indemnity liability is assumed in connection with any currency shipments upon which postage, registry fee, and any required surcharge have not been paid.

(6) Official matter of executive departments or independent government agencies located at Washington, D. C. Government officers located at Washington, D. C., whose official mail may be registered free there, have the same privilege elsewhere when they are temporarily away from Washington if it is endorsed "Temporarily absent from Washington, D. C."; but this provision does not apply to officers who are permanently away from that city or who are engaged in the field service of their respective departments.

(b) Letters or parcels relating exclusively to the business of the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C., and addressed thereto by members of local boards of examiners outside Washington are accepted by postmasters for free registration from the postmaster to the Commission.

(c) Free registration is not accorded to the legislative or judicial departments nor to any State, county, or municipal government.

(d) Unless specifically required by law or regulation, official matter should not be registered unless—

(1) Proof of delivery is essential;

(2) It contains enclosures of such value or importance as to warrant registration;

(3) The enclosure is of such nature that its duplication in case of loss would be necessary and entail material expense.

(e) Declaration of value is not required if the article mailed is entitled to free registration. However, representatives of Government departments or agencies who are not entitled to free registration must declare the full value (or the known or estimated cost of duplication) of the contents of official matter presented for registration and pay any required surcharge in addition to the registry fee.

(f) No indemnity is paid on official matter upon which postage, registry fee, and any required surcharge have not been paid.

7. Places where the domestic registry service is in operation.—(a) Uniform conditions, regulations, fees and surcharges and provisions for indemnity apply to registered mail handled to and from post offices in the continental United States, Alaska, Hawaii and other outlying possessions of the United States, except the Canal Zone which has a separate postal service. Indemnity for registered matter exchanged with the Canal Zone is limited as stated in paragraph (b). Registered matter mailed to the Canal Zone is subject to registry surcharges.

(b) Canal Zone.—Indemnity is payable in connection with registered mail exchanged between post offices in the United States proper and the Canal Zone not exceeding $1,000. Indemnity payable in connection with registered mail exchanged between post offices in Alaska, Hawaii, and the other island possessions of the United States, and the Canal Zone, is limited to $100.

(c) Service to Alaska.—Mail may be dispatched to any office at all times where mail service is authorized or designated.

Any matter other than letters in their usual and ordinary form is liable to delay if the letter mail available for dispatch exhausts the limit of weight the contractor is required to transport on each trip during the winter season.

The rate of postage on gold coin, gold bullion, and gold dust between any two points in Alaska, or between any point in Alaska, and any point in the United States or its possessions, is 2 cents an ounce or fraction, regardless of distance. Such matter must be enclosed in sealed packages not exceeding 50 pounds in weight and sent by registered mail.

(d) Naval establishments.—Domestic registry service is available to and from Navy organizations both within the United States proper and outside its limits.

(e) Army-Air Force mail.—Domestic registry service is available to and from Army and Air Force organizations both within the United States and outside its limits. However, there are certain restrictions in connection with registered mail addressed to Army or Air Force personnel or to other persons served through Army-Air Force Post Offices outside the United States, including Alaska. Consult postmaster with regard to current restrictions.

8. Where matter may be registered.—(a) Application for the registration of mail should be made at a post office, branch, or station, or to a city, village, or rural delivery carrier. Acceptance of mail for registration by city and village carriers is limited to residential districts and to letter mail and small packages which are not cumbersome on account of size, shape or weight, provided such registration of mail does not interfere with other duties of the carriers.

(b) Mail intended for registration should never be placed in a street letter box or an ordinary mail drop. It must be presented for registration and a receipt obtained at the time showing, in addition to such other particulars as may be required by the Department, the number of the article, the amount of registry fee paid, the class of postage paid, the amount of surcharge, if any, paid, and any fees paid for special services, such as return receipt, restricted delivery, special delivery, and the postmark showing date and place of registration.

9. Restriction on the acceptance of valuable matter.—(a) When mail presented to city, village, or rural carriers or at contract stations or contract branches for registration is of such value that it cannot be accepted by carriers or at such stations or branches without unusual risk, the senders may be requested to present the matter at a classified station or branch, or at the main office, as designated by the postmaster. When, because of local conditions, mail of large value is being subjected to unusual hazards through being presented for registration at any classified station or branch instead of at the main office, senders may be requested to refrain from presenting matter of unusually high value at that station.

(b) The Assistant Postmaster General, Bureau of Post Office Operations, may specially authorize any postmaster to decline to accept for registration articles which either singly or collectively are known or presumed to be of large value when the articles are addressed to post offices to which the registered matter cannot reasonably be transported without seriously jeopardizing its safety or endangering the lives of the persons handling the mail; or he may authorize any postmaster to accept such matter upon condition that it will not be transmitted over the entire route to office of address, but will be sent to the post office nearest or most accessible to the one addressed to which the matter may be transmitted without undue risk, where it will be held for delivery and notice to call issued to the addressee. When registered matter is received for delivery on any trip by city, village, or rural carrier or by special delivery messenger which is presumed to be of such large value that it cannot be delivered without exposure to abnormal risk, the addressee or addressees may be requested to call for it at the post office.

10. Matter which may be registered.—(a) All mailable first-, second-, and third-class matter for domestic destinations, on which the required postage in addition to the proper registry fee and surcharge, if any, is paid, may be registered.

(b) Unsealed parcels of second-class matter mailed at the second-class pound rate are not acceptable for registration. Second-class matter prepaid with postage at the transient second-class rate or the fourth-class rate, whichever is lower, computed on each separately addressed copy or package of unaddressed copies, may be registered. Third-class matter may be registered upon payment of the third-class rate of postage if unsealed or if sealed subject to postal inspection; postage at the first-class rate is required if sealed without bearing indicia permitting postal inspection.

(c) Second- and third-class matter valued in excess of $100 and on which a registry fee providing for indemnity in excess of $100 is paid, must be sealed and first-class postage paid thereon.

(d) Mailable fourth-class matter for domestic destinations, including Guam, Hawaii, Virgin Islands of the United States, Puerto Rico, and the Canal Zone, may also be registered if it is sealed and postage at the first-class rate, in addition to the registry fee and surcharge, if any, is paid.

(e) Air mail registry service.—Any mailable matter not liable to damage from freezing, on which the air mail rate of postage is paid and which is securely sealed, may be registered. Registered air mail should be endorsed "Air Mail" and is given the most expeditious handling consistent with the safeguards required for registered mail. For restrictions on the air mail service see articles 15 to 17, chapter III.

11. Matter which should be registered.—(a) Money. (However, money should be sent by postal money orders when they are available.)

(b) Valuable or important papers, such as deeds, specifications, etc.

(c) Articles of unusual value, such as watches, bonds, precious stones and other jewelry.

(d) Articles for which the sender desires a return receipt showing delivery—such articles should be plainly endorsed on the address side "Return receipt requested," or "Return receipt requested showing address where delivered," when receipt showing this information is requested.

(e) Letters which sender desires delivered to addressee in person or to addressee or order—these should be plainly endorsed on the address side "Deliver to addressee only," or "Deliver to addressee or order," as applicable.

(f) Any articles for which the sender desires indemnity in case of loss, if such indemnity is provided.

12. Return receipt cards.—Upon request, the sender of a registered article will be furnished a return receipt card showing to whom and when the mail was delivered. The fee for a return receipt requested at the time of mailing is 7 cents; after mailing 15 cents. If the sender of a registered article desires a return receipt card to be furnished showing to whom, when and address where the mail was delivered, a charge of 31 cents is made for each such return receipt which must be requested at the time of mailing only. No refund will be made of fees paid for return receipts unless failure to furnish such receipts was due to fault of the Postal Service.

13. Restricted delivery.—(a) The sender may restrict the delivery of registered mail by endorsing each such article on the address side "Deliver to addressee only," or "Deliver to addressee or order," or with words of similar import, upon payment of the required fee of 20 cents. The word "Personal" is not construed as restricting delivery. No refund is made of the fee paid for this service unless request for refund is made and erroneous delivery or nondelivery of the article or articles was due to some fault of the Postal Service.

(b) Directions to deliver only to the addressee cannot be observed when registered mail is addressed to the President, Vice President, or ex-Presidents of the United States, heads of departments or bureaus of the Government, Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, Senators or Representatives in Congress, Governors of States or Territories, or to the diplomatic representatives of governments. Mail so addressed when marked "Deliver to addressee only," or with words of similar import, will be delivered to the addressee or on his written order.

14. Preparation for mailing.—Mail presented for registration must conform to the following conditions—

(a) Bear the name and address (domestic) of the sender, preferably in the upper left corner of the address side of the envelope or wrapper and be legibly and completely addressed.

(b) Postage, fee and surcharge, if any, must be fully prepaid at the time of mailing by means of stamps affixed or meter or permit impression.

(c) It must be enclosed in an envelope or wrapper of sufficient strength to hold the contents and to withstand ordinary handling in transmission. Postmasters must decline to accept articles for registration when enclosed in flimsy envelopes or not wrapped so as to withstand ordinary treatment.

(d) Window envelopes.—Window envelopes having no panels covering the openings shall not be accepted for registration. Articles containing nonnegotiable securities or matter of no intrinsic value enclosed in window envelopes, the transparent panels of which are pasted or glued to the envelopes, may be accepted for registration to domestic destinations. When such envelopes are used, indemnity will be paid only for the outright loss of the registered articles. Articles containing matter of intrinsic value enclosed in window envelopes, the transparent panels of which constitute integral parts of the envelopes, may be accepted for registration to domestic destinations. The envelopes must be sufficiently strong in all cases to safely carry the contents and their use must not unduly expose the nature of their contents.

(e) Fragile articles.—All breakable articles intended for registration must be packed so as to protect the contents and be marked "Fragile." The fact that the contents are of a fragile nature should be made known to the accepting postal employee and the receipt and office record so endorsed. When damage to contents is due to lack of proper packing or the fragile endorsement, indemnity may be withheld. (See art. 50, ch. IV, as to packing requirements for fragile articles.)

(f) Currency packages.—Packages of paper money mailed by banks or financial institutions should be enclosed in canvas sacks closed with lead or other approved seals, or tied and placed within an outer wrapper, strong enough to protect the enclosure and to withstand handling itself, or be enclosed in cloth or linen-lined envelopes. Currency should be made into a compact package. The contents of a package must not be so bulky or ill-fitting that the outer cover will be broken through or cracked by protruding corners or edges. Letters or parcels not prepared in this way must have a piece of cardboard or like material placed on top of and underneath each package of money before being placed in the outside cover; these packages must be wrapped at least three times with a heavy grade of paper and securely sealed with mucilage or glue in addition to other sealing devices, if used.

(g) Coin and currency sacks.—Sacks containing coin or currency shall have the lead or other approved seals securely attached to the neck of the sack in such a way that the tag bearing the name and address of the addressee will be securely attached between the neck and the seal, immediately under the seal. This ordinarily can be accomplished by passing the cord through the eyelet of the tag, the cord being drawn taut and the seal compressed while the tag rests flat on the neck of the sack, between the sack and the head of the seal. When lead seals equipped with steel pin are used, the pin should not be so long or the neck of the sack gathered together in such a manner as to permit the pin to protrude through the folds of the sack to such an extent that a sharp point will be exposed, resulting possibly in injury to postal employees.

15. Enclosing and sealing registered matter.—(a) First-class matter presented for registration must be sealed.

(b) Letter mail.—Letter mail presented for registration must be securely sealed in every part with mucilage or glue, and the envelopes must be of sufficient strength to protect the contents during transmission in the mails. The use on letter mail of additional sealing devices such as paper strips, wax seals, paper seals, and the like is not encouraged.

However, it is permissible to use paper strips, wax seals, or paper seals which are of a distinctive character made of soft, thin paper (preferably transparent and unglazed), provided the additional sealing devices are affixed in such a manner as not to interfere with the required postmarks at and over the intersections of the flaps.

(c) Parcels.—Parcels containing only merchandise may be sealed with mucilage or glue or with plain paper strips, or by a combination of these sealing methods. If sealed only with paper strips, the strips must be of such quality as to seal the parcels completely and securely. Packages of currency or securities may not be sealed exclusively by the use of paper strips but must first be sealed securely with mucilage or glue.

(d) Unacceptable sealing devices.—Letters or parcels sealed only with cellophane or glazed paper strips shall not be accepted for registration.

16. Firm registration records.—Patrons who customarily present an average of three or more articles for registration at one time are encouraged to obtain and use firm registration records. These may be obtained from postmasters without charge, in bound form in sizes providing for 5, 15, or 30 entries. The records are prepared in duplicate by the mailer and one copy is kept by the sender as a receipt and the other is retained in the post office as the record of mailing.

17. Numbering and endorsement of registered mail.—Matter presented for registration should bear no numbers that might be confused with the registration number assigned to it. If a reproduction or proportionate enlargement of the official endorsement "Registered No." is printed on envelopes used exclusively for registered mail, the printed endorsement should appear in the lower left portion of the address side of the envelope or directly above the address.

18. Withdrawal or recall before delivery.—When the sender of registered mail desires to reclaim or recall it at any time before delivery, application must be made to the mailing postmaster. After a registration receipt has been issued for a letter or parcel, the article is considered as having been registered and if withdrawn before dispatch no refund of registry fee, restricted delivery fee, or return receipt fee, is permissible.

19. Delivery by carrier.—(a) City, village, and rural letter carriers deliver registered mail, except registered mail which, because of its considerable value or for other proper reason, may be held at the post office for desk delivery.

(b) Carriers endeavor to deliver registered mail, which is proper for delivery by carriers, on the first trip after it is prepared for delivery, unless the addressee has given order to the contrary, and make as many efforts each day to deliver such mail as their trips will permit, unless it clearly appears after any trip that delivery by them is impossible.

(c) After each unsuccessful trial the carrier leaves a notice (Form 3849) at the addressee's residence, place of business, or mail box.

(d) Registered mail addressed to patrons of rural routes is delivered at the residence of the addressee if the residence is not more than one-half mile from the rural route and if there is a passable road leading to it. If the residence or place of business of the addressee is more than one-half mile from a rural route, the carrier is not required to make delivery thereat, but will leave a notice in the rural mail box so that the addressee can be at the box on the next trip or call for the mail at the post office.

(e) Star-route carriers.—Registered mail is not delivered to a star-route carrier unless the addressee expressly so requests in a written order filed with the postmaster. In cases where such orders are given, the carriers are considered as the representatives of the addressees, and the responsibility of the Postal Service ceases when delivery has been made to the carrier by the postmaster and the signature of the carrier obtained.

20. Manifold firm delivery books.—These books, Form 3883, 5-line (10 entries) and Form 3883-A, 10-line (20 entries) are frequently used at the larger offices in recording registered mail when firms or individuals receive an average of 3 or more articles at one time. Their use facilitates receipting for registered mail. When specifically desired, a copy of the firm delivery sheet is furnished the addressee.

21. Rules regarding delivery.—(a) Registered mail, the delivery of which has not been restricted by the sender or the addressee, is deliverable, without a written order from the addressee, to any responsible person to whom the addressee's ordinary mail is customarily delivered. Patrons may obtain from local post offices more detailed information as to the rules governing the delivery of registered mail.

(b) Registered mail, once properly delivered, cannot be remailed as registered matter without payment of additional registry fee, but if the addressee's present address is known and a written order for the forwarding of the letter is given by the person authorized to so act for the addressee, without taking the article from the custody of the Postal Service, it may be forwarded as registered mail without additional fee.

(c) Persons applying or inquiring for registered mail, as senders or addressees, or their authorized representatives, will, if unknown, be required to establish their identity satisfactorily before registered mail or information concerning it is given them. Registered mail is not delivered into the custody of the addressee or his authorized representative until proper receipts have been obtained.

(d) Registered mail for organizations and institutions.—(1) Hotels, apartment houses, and the like.—If the authorized representative of a responsible hotel, apartment house, or the like, will execute the agreement furnished by the Department, assuming financial responsibility for any loss or rifling of, or damage to, registered mail which may occur while the mail is in possession of the hotel, apartment house, or the like, and agrees to keep a proper record of such mail, registered mail may be delivered without a written order from the addressee to the person or persons designated to receive such mail even though it is not addressed in care of the institution entering into the agreement, provided delivery has not been restricted by the sender or addressee.

(2) Clubs, fraternities, sororities, and similar institutions.—Written orders should be obtained from proper authorized representatives of such institutions specifying the person or persons to whom mail should be delivered. Although the responsibility of the Postal Service ceases when delivery has been made to the person authorized to receive the mail, it is desirable for such organizations to keep a detailed record of the registered mail received and to obtain receipts when delivery is effected to the addressees.

(3) Registered mail addressed to addressees at Y. M. C. A.'s, Y. W. C. A.'s, Salvation Army shelters, missions, and the like.—Unless delivery of the registered matter has been restricted, registered mail addressed to persons at these institutions is properly deliverable. Without written orders from the addressees, to such persons as are authorized by proper authority to receive mail for the places addressed, or, in the absence of such authorization, to any responsible person who customarily receives the ordinary mail of the institution. If, however, any of the above or like institutions operate a hotel, under the usual interpretation of the term, registered mail shall be handled in accordance with the instructions in paragraph (d) (1) of this article.

22. Undeliverable registered mail.—(a) Domestic registered letters and parcels which remain undeliverable are held for—

The period specified in the sender's return request (not less than 3 nor more than 60 days); or

When no time is specified in the return direction, for 5 days if intended for delivery by village or rural carrier; 10 days if intended for box or general delivery at an office having city carrier service or for delivery by city carrier; 15 days at offices not having city carrier service, unless intended for delivery by village or rural carrier.

(b) However, refused articles prepaid at the letter rate and all those the delivery of which is forbidden by the Postmaster General will be returned immediately.

(c) Undeliverable registered mail of the first class is returned to the sender without additional charge.

(d) Additional postage, but not fee, is required for the return of registered second- and third-class matter.

23. Forwarding.—(a) Ordinarily registered mail may be forwarded before it has been once properly delivered without additional charge for registry fee or surcharge, upon the written request of the addressee, of the sender through the mailing postmaster, or of any person to whom the addressee's mail is deliverable—first-class matter without extra charge; matter of other classes, upon prepayment of postage chargeable by law for forwarding.

(b) Domestic registered articles mailed in the United States and originally addressed for delivery at post offices in the United States are not forwarded to a foreign country.

(c) Domestic registered articles originating in Alaska, Hawaii, Guam, Samoa, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands, originally addressed for delivery in the United States are not forwarded to the Canal Zone if the stamps borne by any one registered article indicate it was valued at more than $100. Conversely, registered mail originating in the Canal Zone is not forwarded from a post office in the United States to Alaska, Hawaii, Guam, Samoa, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands, if there is reason to believe that the value exceeds $100.

24. Inquiries for domestic registered mail.—(a) Inquiries for domestic registered mail may be instituted if the sender has received information as to the nonreceipt of the article after a reasonable time has elapsed, or has, after a reasonable time, made proper efforts to determine whether the article has been received by the addressee, but without result. If the sender desires inquiry sent without compliance with these conditions, he is required to pay the 15-cent fee such as is charged for a return receipt requested after mailing.

(b) Inquiries for registered articles addressed to military personnel shall not be instituted until at least one month after the dates of mailing if the articles were addressed for delivery within the United States or if prepaid for transmission by air outside the United States, including Alaska, Canal Zone, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the island possessions of the United States. Inquiries for surface registered articles addressed to military personnel outside the United States shall not be instituted until at least two months after the dates of mailing.

25. Indemnity applications.—Reports of losses and applications for indemnity for domestic registered mail should be made to the postmaster at the office of mailing, or of address, with particulars of registration and a description of the contents of the article, and, in case of partial loss or rifling, with the envelope or wrapper. Claims for damage should show in detail how the article was packed and enveloped or wrapped and be accompanied with the wrapper, if available. Claims for duplication of valuable papers should be supported with receipted bills for any actual, necessary, and direct expense in connection therewith.

26. Payment of indemnity.—(a) Indemnity within the prescribed limit will be paid to the rightful claimant in case of the loss or rifling of, or damage to, domestic registered mail, as follows:

(1) In case of loss or irreparable damage, the market value of the article at the time of loss, or its value on date of mailing, if date of loss cannot be ascertained.

(2) In case of partial damage, the amount of the damage, or the actual and necessary cost of repairs.

(3) Actual, direct, and necessary expenses of duplicating valuable papers, or original cost when not duplicated.

(b) Whenever a false, fictitious, or fraudulent value is knowingly and willfully stated, the Department reserves the right, without any refund of fee, to decline to pay indemnity or to pay such indemnity as may in its discretion be considered equitable in the light of the evidence procured.

(c) If no agreement is reached in the case of a conflicting claim, indemnity will be paid to such person as may legally be entitled to receive it.

(d) Claims for indemnity involving domestic registered mail are not favorably considered if not made within one year from the date of mailing, unless the delay in filing such claim was unavoidable and not due to the fault of the claimant.

(e) When the sender is incompetent or deceased, indemnity will be paid to the person legally entitled to receive it. If the sender can not be located, the Department reserves the right to pay the owner or such other person as may be entitled to receive the indemnity without the consent of the sender.

(f) Lost articles recovered shall be surrendered upon the return of the indemnity paid. The claimant must accept the article and reimburse the United States for the full indemnity paid if the article is undamaged, or such prorata amount as may be deemed equitable by the Department if the article is damaged or has depreciated in value, or if the contents are not intact. If the article cannot be surrendered and the indemnity refunded within 30 days after notice, the article is disposed of as undeliverable dead matter.

27. Limitations on indemnity.—No indemnity will be paid—

(a) For the loss or rifling of, or damage to, any registered matter which was not rightfully in the mails, or was not lost, rifled, or damaged while in the custody of the Postal Service, or for which other compensation or reimbursement has been made through the Postal Service.

(b) When the sender knowingly and willfully failed to state, when required, at the time of mailing, the full value of a registered article. (See sec. 58.5, par. e, 58.10, par. b, and sec. 63.5, par. a, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1943.)

(c) For the loss or rifling of, or damage to, any registered matter exchanged between post offices in the United States and the Canal Zone, except in accordance with such stipulations as may be agreed upon between the postal administrations interested, unless the matter originated in and the weight of evidence indicates that the matter was lost, rifled, or damaged in the Postal Service of the United States.

(d) For the loss or rifling of, or damage to, a registered article remained after proper delivery, unless the article was reregistered after delivery and the evidence indicates to the satisfaction of the Department that the loss, rifling, or damage occurred in the Postal Service.

(e) For indirect, remote, and unnecessary expenses incident to repairs or duplication of papers, or for any consequential loss.

(f) For the loss or rifling of, or damage to, any registered article without intrinsic value, except that indemnity may be paid for cost of duplication of the article if the applicable registration fee, plus surcharges if required, were paid.

(g) For loss resulting from delay to a registered article.

(h) For damage to registered mail, due to insecure or insufficient preparation or wrapping or lack of proper endorsement, unless it is shown to the satisfaction of the Assistant Postmaster General, Bureau of Post Office Operations, that the circumstances in any particular case are such as to justify the Department assuming responsibility for the improper preparation of the article for mailing or absence of the proper endorsement.

(i) For the loss or rifling of, or damage to, an article before acceptance for registration or after proper delivery.

(j) For the damage to, or loss of, any registered matter upon which postage, registry fee and any required surcharge have not been paid.

(k) For damage to incandescent lamps, radio tubes, and the like, where the glass bulbs are intact (not damaged or broken) unless it is established that the damage was due to improper handling in the mails.

(l) For damage to articles which are so fragile in their inherent nature as to prevent their safe carriage in the mails, regardless of the manner in which packed.

(m) For the loss or rifling of, or damage to, any matter mailed in the execution of any fraudulent scheme or enterprise.

CHAPTER XIV

DOMESTIC INSURANCE AND C. O. D. SERVICES

DOMESTIC INSURANCE SERVICE

(Sec arts. 31 to 49, of this chapter for general information applicable to both domestic insured and C. O. D. mail)

1. Purpose.—The domestic insurance service provides for indemnification in the event of the loss or rifling of, or damage to, matter of the third and fourth classes. The insurance of such matter is optional with mailers.

2. Matter which may be insured—insurance fees and conditions.—(a) Domestic third- and fourth-class mail on which both postage and fee have been paid by postage stamps or metered indicia affixed thereto may be insured against loss, rifling, or damage in an amount equivalent to its actual value or cost of repairs. The maximum amount for which a single parcel may be insured is $200. The insurance fees and limits of indemnity are as follows:

Amount of insurance	Insurance fee, cents
From $0.01 to $5.....	5
From $5.01 to $10.....	10
From $10.01 to $25.....	15
From $25.01 to $50.....	20
From $50.01 to $100.....	30
From $100.01 to $200.....	35

(b) Small articles of considerable value should be registered.—The object of the insurance service is to provide insurance, within the prescribed limits, without affording the insured mail the special safeguards that are accorded registered mail at the offices of mailing, in transit and at offices of delivery, whereas the principal object of the registry service is to secure safety and protection in handling rather than merely the payment of indemnity in case of loss. Therefore, mailers of parcels which contain small articles of considerable value, such as watches and other articles of jewelry, are urged to use the registry service because of its protective features. Indemnity for domestic registered mail is provided up to $1,000.

(c) Unordered insured mail.—Parcels containing matter offered for sale addressed to prospective purchasers who have not ordered or authorized their sending will not be accepted for insurance. Should such matter be received in the Postal Service, indemnity for the loss, rifling, or damage thereof may not be paid.

3. Where parcels may be presented.—(a) Parcels intended for insurance must be presented at a post office, or branch or station, or to a rural carrier. Such parcels must not be deposited in or on street mail boxes or in mail drops at post offices, but may be deposited in rural mail boxes.

(b) Left in rural mail box.—Matter intended for insurance may be left in a rural patron's mail box for collection, provided sufficient stamps are affixed for postage and fee, or money therefor is left in the box, and the article is properly packed and marked "Insured." A note should be left in the rural box stating contents and what part of the stamps or money represents the insurance fee. A receipt is required to be issued to the sender at the time the article is collected by the rural carrier. Any excess of the amount required to pay postage and insurance fee will be returned to the sender on the carrier's next trip or placed in the sender's mail box. The Department assumes no responsibility for such parcels until receipted for in good condition, nor for any money deposited in the box by patrons, unless received, or for change left in the box by carriers.

4. Places to which mailable.—Parcels intended for insurance may be mailed at and addressed to all post offices in the United States proper; Alaska; Puerto Rico; Canal Zone; Guam; Hawaii; Samoa and the Virgin Islands of the United States. (See arts. 50 and 53 of this chapter, General Information, as to insured mail service for members of the Armed Forces.)

5. Senders' receipts for insured mail.—(a) Forms of receipts.—Except when firm mailing books or the equivalent thereof are used, an individual receipt for each parcel will be issued to the sender.

(b) Insurance for amounts in excess of $5—entries on senders' receipts.—Form 3813,

3813-A, or 3813-P will be issued to the senders completed to show the serial number borne by each parcel, the separate amounts of insurance fee and postage paid, any fees paid for return receipts, restricted delivery, special delivery, or special handling service, if such special services are requested, and any required endorsements such as "Fragile, or "Perishable." Post office mailing records will be made to correspond with the entries on the senders' receipts, as well as to show the names of the post offices and States to which the parcels were addressed. Delivery receipts will be obtained for such parcels, or records made of their final disposition, if undelivered.

(c) Insurance for amounts of $5 or less—entries on senders' receipts.—Form 3813-B will be issued to the sender completed to show the name of the post office and State to which the article is addressed, in addition to information similar to that entered on Forms 3813, 3813-A, 3813-P, except that no insured serial number will be entered, since parcels insured for $5 or less will not be numbered, but will be endorsed "INSURED—Minimum Fee." No post office mailing or delivery record will be maintained of parcels insured at the minimum fee.

(d) Senders to enter name and address of addressee on each receipt.—The receipts issued to the senders of insured parcels on Form 3813, 3813-A, 3813-P, or 3813-B, will bear the postmarks of the mailing offices and dates of mailing, the initial or initials of the accepting postal employees, but not the names and addresses of the addressees, which should be entered by the mailers in the spaces provided therefor.

(e) Receipts to be submitted in case of claim.—INDEMNITY WILL NOT BE PAID UNLESS RECEIPTS (Form 3813, 3813-A, 3813-P, or 3813-B), OR EQUIVALENT EVIDENCE OF INSURANCE ARE SUBMITTED. Therefore, mailers should retain these receipts until definite advice is received that the insured parcels described thereon had been delivered in good condition, or until any claim filed has been adjusted.

6. Return receipt cards for insured mail.—(a) Upon request and payment of a fee of 7 cents the sender of a parcel insured at other than the minimum fee may obtain a return receipt card showing to whom and when the parcel was delivered. A fee of 15 cents is charged for such a receipt requested subsequent to the time of mailing. If the sender of a parcel insured at other than the minimum fee desires a return receipt card to be furnished showing to whom, when and the address where the mail was delivered, a charge of 31 cents is made for each such return receipt which must be requested at the time of mailing. No refund will be made of fees paid for return receipts for numbered insured mail unless failure to furnish such receipts was due to the fault of the Postal Service.

(b) Return receipt cards are not obtainable in connection with parcels insured at the minimum fee of 5 cents.

7. Delivery of insured mail.—Insured mail, the delivery of which has not been restricted by the sender or addressee, is deliverable, without a written order from the addressee, to any responsible person to whom the addressee's ordinary mail is customarily delivered. The rules governing the delivery of registered mail generally are applicable to insured mail. (See art. 21, ch. XIII, for detailed information. See art. 40 of this chapter, General Information, regarding restricted delivery.)

8. Undelivered insured mail.—Insured parcels which fail of delivery are held the exact time specified in the sender's instructions thereon, not in excess of 30 days, or for 30 days in the absence of such instructions, except that when insured parcels are actually and unqualifiedly refused and bear no requests that the parcels be held a specific period of time, the parcels are immediately returned to the sender, rated up with the return postage, or otherwise disposed of in accordance with the Postal Laws and Regulations.

9. Notices of failure to deliver insured mail.—Notices of nondelivery on Form 3831 are issued to senders in instances where insured parcels are refused, provided the parcels bear specific instructions as to their retention at offices of delivery, as well as in those instances where delivery cannot be effected because the addressees are unknown or the parcels are incorrectly addressed to street addresses or localities which do not exist.

10. Inquiries or claims for insured parcels.—Inquiries may not be sent for domestic insured mail unless the sender has received information as to the nonreceipt of the article after a reasonable time has elapsed, or has, after a reasonable time, made proper efforts to determine whether the article has been received by the addressee, but without result. If the sender desires an inquiry sent without compliance with these conditions, the fee of 15 cents for a return receipt requested after mailing is required. However, if advice from the addressee of an insured parcel indicating that it was not received, is dated at least ten days from the date on which the parcel should have reached the office of delivery in the ordinary course of the mails and been delivered to the addressee, claim for indemnity also may be instituted. (See articles 51, 52, 54 and 55 of this chapter concerning the conditions under which inquiries or claims for indemnity may be instituted for domestic insured or C. O. D. mail addressed to members of the Armed Forces.)

DOMESTIC C. O. D. SERVICE

(See arts. 31 to 49, of this chapter, for general information applicable to both domestic insured and C. O. D. mail)

11. Purpose.—The C. O. D. service is an ideal means of shipment where the shipper does not desire to extend credit or customers do not wish to pay in advance. The extensive area served by the C. O. D. service, the low C. O. D. fees, and the prompt receipt of collections by means of postal money orders make this service most attractive. The C. O. D. service is widely used by business concerns in marketing their products.

12. Matter which may be sent C. O. D.—fees and conditions.—(a) Registered C. O. D. mail.—Sealed domestic mail of any class bearing postage at the first-class rate may be sent as registered C. O. D. mail. Such mail is handled at offices of mailing and in transit in the same manner as other registered matter. This service is used principally for valuable jewelry, bills of lading representing freight shipments, etc., for which mailers desire to secure the maximum protection in addition to collection service. The maximum amount of charges collectible on domestic registered C. O. D. mail is $200 for which a graduated scale of fees is chargeable. Additional indemnity may be obtained in excess of $200 up to $1,000, the limit fixed for other domestic registered mail. The fees for registered C. O. D. mail are:

$10.01 to $50.....	1. 10
$50.01 to $100.....	1. 20
$100.01 to $200.....	1. 40

For indemnity in excess of $200, i. e. beyond the maximum collection service:

Amount of indemnity:	Fee, including registration
$200.01 to $300.....	$1. 50
$300.01 to $400.....	1. 60
$400.01 to $500.....	1. 70
$500.01 to $600.....	1. 80
$600.01 to $700.....	1. 90
$700.01 to $800.....	2. 00
$800.01 to $1,000.....	2. 10

Surcharges will be collected on registered C. O. D. mail under the same conditions as prescribed for registered mail generally except that in determining the amount of surcharge collectible there shall be taken as a basis the amount by which the declared actual value of the article mailed exceeds the limit of indemnity prescribed for the fee paid.

(b) Unregistered C. O. D. mail.—Domestic third- and fourth-class mail on which both postage and fee have been paid by postage stamps or metered indicia affixed thereto and sealed domestic unregistered matter of any class prepaid with postage at the first-class rate, in addition to the proper fee, may be sent C. O. D.; that is, the price of the article and the charges thereon (including, if desired, the postage and fee prepaid) will be collected from the addressee. The maximum amount collectible on a single C. O. D. parcel is $200. The fees for collections and automatic insurance against loss, rifling or damage in an amount equivalent to the actual value, or the cost of repairs; or against nonreceipt of C. O. D. returns, are as follows:

Amounts of C. O. D. charges or amounts of insurance desired:	C. O. D. fee, cents
$0. 01 to $5.....	30
$5.01 to $10.....	40
$10.01 to $25.....	60
$25.01 to $50.....	70
$50.01 to $100.....	80
$100.01 to $150.....	90

(c) C. O. D. charges govern fee paid.—The amount of C. O. D. charges governs the C. O. D. fee to be paid. However, if the amount of C. O. D. charges is less than the value, a higher fee may be paid in order to obtain indemnity for the full value within the limit of indemnity applicable for the fee paid.

(d) Bona fide orders.—Each C. O. D. shipment must be based on a bona fide order for the contents of the parcel or be in conformity with an agreement between the sender and the addressee. The use of the C. O. D. service as a collection agency is not countenanced, nor may such service be used for the return of merchandise in connection with which any dissatisfaction has arisen, unless the new addressee has consented in advance to such return. It is not permissible to send only bills or statements of indebtedness by registered or unregistered C. O. D. mail bearing postage at the first-class rate, even though the sender may establish that the addressee has agreed to the collection of the amount involved in this manner. However, when a legitimate C. O. D. shipment consisting of merchandise, bill of lading, etc., is being mailed, the balance due on a past or anticipated transaction may be included in the charges on a C. O. D. article, provided the addressee has given his consent in advance to such action. Indemnity may not be paid for matter sent C. O. D. which has not been ordered by the addressee or sent C. O. D. in conformity with an agreement between sender and addressee. The abuse of the C. O. D. service by shippers in sending C. O. D. articles which have not been ordered or without the consent of the addressees may be construed as an attempt to defraud and as a violation of the law.

(e) Exhibitors not permitted to send parcels containing moving-picture films to film manufacturers, distributors, or exchanges collect-on-delivery.—Exhibitors are not permitted to send parcels containing moving-picture films to moving-picture film manufacturers, distributors, or exchanges collect-on-delivery. Such parcels may be sent as insured mail, or, if sealed, by first-class registered mail. Parcels containing films presented for mailing collect-on-delivery by moving-picture manufacturers, distributors or exchanges will be accepted as usual.

13. Styles of C. O. D. tags.—Four styles of C. O. D. tags are used in the service, Forms 3816, 3816a-L, 3816a-C, and 3816a-S. The first three tags mentioned are eyeletted and Form 3816a-S is so designed that it may be affixed to parcels by means of gummed tape. Form 3816 is composed of four parts; namely, the delivery office portion, which constitutes the sender's application for money order, delivering employee's coupon, mailing office record and sender's receipt. This form of tag is intended for use by patrons mailing less than three C. O. D. articles at one time. The mailing office and sender's receipt portions are detached at the mailing office, the remainder of the tag accompanying the C. O. D. article to which it relates. C. O. D. tags, Forms 3816a-L, 3816a-C, and 3816a-S consist of the delivery office portions and delivering employee's coupons and are used exclusively in conjunction with firm mailing books, or similar forms of receipt.

14. Completion of C. O. D. tags.—(a) Entries to be shown on C. O. D. tags.—A C. O. D. tag is required to be affixed to each C. O. D. shipment. The C. O. D. tag must be filled in by the sender to show the complete name and address of both sender and addressee, amount of charges to be collected upon delivery and remitted to sender by postal money order, and the money order fee charged the addressee for the amount involved.

(b) Responsibility for errors.—The Department will not assume responsibility for errors made by senders in stating the collection charges or for any misunderstandings between senders and addressees regarding the price, character, or contents of parcels.

15. Method of affixing C. O. D. tags to C. O. D. parcels.—Eyeletted C. O. D. tags should be attached to parcels by means of strong and durable cord or twine. Other C. O. D. tags should be securely affixed to the parcels by means of gummed tape of good quality, applied over both ends of each tag. It is important to patrons that C. O. D. tags be affixed to the parcels in such a manner as will prevent their becoming detached before reaching destination, in view of the fact that C. O. D. parcels from which the tags have been detached are apt to lose their identity as C. O. D. mail and be delivered without collection of the C. O. D. charges.

16. Advance notices.—It is recommended that shippers follow the practice of notifying the addressees in advance of the shipment of C. O. D. parcels in order to curtail the number of instances where addressees fail to accept C. O. D. parcels. The information should consist of the exact or approximate date of mailing, total amount of C. O. D. collection and such other information as the shipper may wish to furnish the customer. C. O. D. parcels frequently fail of delivery because the addressees do not have the exact amount of C. O. D. charges on hand when the parcels are presented for delivery, or the carriers are unable to make change of bills of large denominations. The use of advance notices may prevent incidents of this character arising and assure the prompt delivery of C. O. D. mail.

17. Where parcels must be presented.—(a) Parcels intended for collection-on-delivery must be presented at a post office or branch, or station having facilities for the acceptance of such mail, or to a rural carrier. Such parcels must not be deposited in or on street boxes or on rural mail boxes or in mail drops at post offices, but may be left inside rural mail boxes.

(b) Left in rural mail box.—Matter intended for collection-on-delivery may be left in a rural patron's mail box for collection, provided sufficient stamps are affixed for postage and fee, or money therefor is left in the box, and the article is properly packed and marked "C. O. D." A C. O. D. tag must be properly filled in and attached to the article. A note should be left in the rural mail box stating the contents of the article if other than first-class matter, and what part of the stamps or money represents the C. O. D. fee. A receipt is required to be issued to the sender at the time the article is collected by the rural carrier. Any excess of the amount required to pay postage and C. O. D. fees will be returned to the sender on the carrier's next trip or placed in the sender's mail box. The Department assumes no responsibility for such articles until receipted for in good condition, nor for any money deposited in the box by patrons, unless received, nor for change left in box by carriers.

18. Places to which mailable.—C. O. D. articles may be mailed at and addressed to all post offices in the United States proper, Puerto Rico, Hawaii, Wake Island, Guam, the Virgin Islands of the United States, and all money order post offices in Alaska. C. O. D. articles may be mailed at but not addressed to Pago Pago, Samoa. (See arts. 50 and 53 of this chapter, General Information, as to the conditions under which matter may be sent C. O. D. to members of the Armed Forces.)

19. Delivery of C. O. D. mail.—C. O. D. mail, the delivery of which has not been restricted by the sender or the addressee, is deliverable, without a written order from the addressee, to any responsible person to whom the addressee's ordinary mail is customarily delivered. The rules governing the delivery of registered mail generally are applicable to C. O. D. mail. (See art. 21, Ch. XIII for detailed information.) See art. 40 of this chapter, General Information, regarding restricted delivery.

20. Examination.—Examination of the contents of a C. O. D. parcel by the addressee is not permitted until it is receipted for and charges paid.

21. Retention of C. O. D. mail at offices of address.—C. O. D. mail may be held without storage charges (demurrage) for a period of 15 days following the date on which the first attempt at delivery is made or the first notice of arrival is issued. C. O. D. mail which does not bear a specific return request is treated as though it bore a return request of 15 days. The maximum time for which any C. O. D. article may be held at the office of address is 30 consecutive days without exception (including Sundays and holidays), commencing with the day following the date on which the first attempt at delivery is made or the first notice of arrival issued. When C. O. D. articles bear return requests in excess of 15 days the articles are subject to storage charges (demurrage). See article 24 of this chapter.

22. Notification of nondelivery.—When C. O. D. mail is endorsed to show that notice of nondelivery is desired, notice on Form 3849-D will be issued to the sender or his representative immediately if the article has been refused or is known to be undeliverable; otherwise, the notice will be issued not later than 5 days after the first attempt at delivery or the date on which the first notice of arrival is issued. A fee of 5 cents is charged for each notice of nondelivery issued, collectible upon delivery of the notice.

23. Alteration or cancellation of charges or delivery to other than addressee.—(a) If the sender directs, the amount originally stated as due him on delivery of a C. O. D. parcel may be increased (not to exceed $200), decreased, or canceled, or the parcel delivered to another addressee at the office where it is held.

(b) Fee charged.—Each request for the alteration or cancellation of the charges on a C. O. D. article, or for the delivery of the article to another addressee at the post office where it is held, must be accompanied with a fee of 10 cents, paid by means of postage stamps which are canceled at the office of mailing.

(c) Authorization—filing of.—Directions for the alteration or cancellation of charges or delivery to another addressee should not be transmitted direct to the postmaster at the office of address, but should be filed with the postmaster at the office of mailing.

(d) Alteration of C. O. D. charges upon telegraphic request.—Charges on C. O. D. parcels may be increased (not to exceed $200), decreased, or canceled upon telegraphic request from the postmaster at the office of mailing. The telegram must be authorized and paid for by the sender, but sent by and under the name of the mailing postmaster. The telegram must show the number of the parcel, the post office of mailing, the names of the sender and addressee, and the amount of C. O. D. charges involved.

24. Demurrage charges.—Demurrage is chargeable at the rate of 5 cents per day (exclusive of Sundays, holidays and the day of delivery), on each domestic registered or unregistered C. O. D. article bearing a return request in excess of 15, but not exceeding 30 days, which the addressee fails to remove from the post office of address within 15 days from the first attempt to deliver or from the date the first notice of arrival is issued. The maximum demurrage chargeable on any C. O. D. article at any one post office is 85 cents. No demurrage is charged on C. O. D. mail exchanged between the United States proper and Hawaii, Alaska, Puerto Rico, Guam, Virgin Islands of the United States, nor on C. O. D. mail originating at Pago Pago, Samoa.

25. Remittance of C. O. D. charges or forwarding of undelivered C. O. D. parcels to other than the actual mailer.—(a) When it is desired to have money orders in payment of charges on C. O. D. parcels made payable to other than the actual senders, the names and addresses of the persons or concerns to whom the charges are to be remitted must appear in the proper spaces on the face side of each C. O. D. tag, and the names and addresses of the actual mailers of the parcels must be placed on the reverse side (back) of the delivery office portion of each tag. The names and addresses of the persons or concerns to whom the charges are to be remitted must be shown as senders of record on the C. O. D. parcels, together with directions as to return, if undelivered.

(b) When firm mailing books or loose-leaf sheets thereof are used, the names and addresses of the actual senders should be entered in the space following the words "Received from" at the top of each such sheet, and notation also should be made to show the names and addresses of the persons or concerns to whom C. O. D. charges are to be remitted, or to whom undelivered C. O. D. parcels are to be forwarded, if other than to the actual senders.

(c) The necessary instructions on the labels of these parcels must appear on the left side thereof in the following sequence, unless otherwise authorized by the Bureau of Post-Office Operations, Division of Registered, Insured and C. O. D. Mail, and the right side of the labels must be reserved for the name and address of the addressee, postage stamps and necessary postal endorsements:

(1) The indicia with respect to contents and postal inspection if sealed subject to postal inspection.

(2) The sender's return card (name and address) preceded by the word "From."

(3) Pledge guaranteeing return and forwarding postage.

(4) If it is desired that undelivered C. O. D. parcels be returned to the person or firm named on the parcels as the sender of record, instructions reading, "Postmaster: If not delivered in ---- days, return to sender" should appear. If such undelivered C. O. D. parcels are to be returned to a person or firm other than the sender of record, instructions should appear reading, "Postmaster: If not delivered in ----- days, FORWARD TO" followed immediately thereunder by a bordered space incorporating therein the name and complete address of such person or firm, together with the instructions, "DO NOT DELIVER WITHOUT COLLECTION OF C. O. D. CHARGES" or "DELIVER WITHOUT COLLECTION OF C. O. D. CHARGES" as may be desired. If senders do not desire such C. O. D. parcels to be subject to demurrage, the return requests thereon should specify a retention period of 15 days or less.

(5) A facsimile or proportionate enlargement of the official "C. O. D." endorsement.

(d) Before instituting inquiries or claims for indemnity covering such parcels, it should be definitely ascertained that the charges were not received by, or that the parcels were not returned to the actual sender or the party to whom the charges were to have been remitted.

26. Notification of and conditions under which local or nearby senders' representatives may accept undelivered C. O. D. parcels.—Senders of C. O. D. articles may direct that notices of nondelivery (Form 3849-D) be issued to their designated representatives and that such articles, if undelivered within the retention period specified, be delivered to their designated agents, with or without collection of C. O. D. charges as may be desired, provided the following conditions are complied with:

(a) The necessary printed instructions on the labels of these parcels must appear on the left side thereof in the following sequence, unless otherwise authorized by the Bureau of Finance, Division of Registered, Insured and C. O. D. Mail, and the right side of the labels must be reserved for the name and address of the addressee, postage stamps, and necessary postal endorsements:

(1) The indicia with respect to contents and postal inspection of parcels if sealed subject to postal inspection.

(2) The sender's return card (name and address) preceded by the word "From."

(3) Pledge guaranteeing return and forwarding postage.

(4) Instructions reading "Postmaster: If not delivered in 5 days send Form 3849-D to:" if notices of nondelivery are desired. (A fee of 5 cents is charged for each such notice issued.)

(5) A bordered space within which are to appear the complete name and local or nearby address of the sender's representative to be notified of each undelivered C. O. D.

parcel, and instructions reading "Do NOT DELIVER WITHOUT COLLECTION OF C. O. D. CHARGES" or "DELIVER WITHOUT COLLECTION OF C. O. D. CHARGES," one or the other of which must appear within that space.

(6) Instructions reading "If not accepted by addressee or sender's designated representative at the expiration of ----- days from receipt, return to sender." The maximum period for which such C. O. D. mail may be held at offices of address must not exceed 30 days. If the mail is not to be subjected to demurrage, the sender must limit the retention of the mail to not exceeding 15 days. If the sender should desire the mail to be held in excess of 15 days, but not exceeding 30 days, at the request of the addressee or the sender's designated representative, the instructions must read: "If not accepted by addressee or sender's designated representative at the expiration of 15 days from receipt, return to sender. Parcel may be held for an additional period of *----- days provided demurrage for the full demurrage period is paid in advance."

NOTE. *The total retention period specified, including both the free and demurrage periods, must not exceed 30 days.

(7) A facsimile or proportionate enlargement of the official "C. O. D." endorsement.

(b) When a C. O. D. parcel bearing these instructions is refused, the sender's designated representative (but not the sender) is notified. If undelivered for any reason, the representative is notified not later than 5 days from the date of receipt of the parcel. A charge of 5 cents is made for each notice of nondelivery on Form 3849-D. Each such parcel is held for the maximum retention period, not exceeding 30 days, specified in the sender's instructions before it is returned to the sender, postage collect, if undelivered.

27. Inquiries or claims for lost C. O. D. parcels.—When the sender of a C. O. D. parcel is advised by the addressee that it has not been received, and a sufficient length of time has elapsed from the date of mailing for the parcel to have been received at the office of address in the usual course of the mails and delivered to the addressee, inquiry may be instituted at the mailing post office or branch or station thereof. However, if such advice is dated at least 10 days from the date on which the parcel should have reached the office of address and been delivered to the addressee, claim for indemnity also may be filed.

28. Claims for rifling or damage.—When the sender of a C. O. D. parcel is advised that it was received by the addressee with all or a part of the contents missing or damaged, claim for indemnity may be instituted without preliminary inquiry.

29. Failure to receive C. O. D. charges.—When the sender of a C. O. D. parcel fails to receive a C. O. D. money order at the expiration of at least 10 days following the date of mailing, in addition to the time limit for retention specified by the sender, or the parcel itself is not returned as undelivered at the expiration of a similar period, inquiry may be made for the parcel. For example, inquiry may be made for a parcel bearing a 15-day return request or no return request at the expiration of 25 days from the date of mailing, if the parcel is not accounted for by C. O. D. money order, or by return to sender as undelivered. Of course, in any instance where the addressee advised the sender that the parcel was delivered upon collection of C. O. D. charges, but remittance was not received, claim for indemnity covering nonreceipt of C. O. D. returns may be promptly instituted.

30. Premature inquiries.—In order to relieve the Postal Service of the unnecessary clerical labor and expense which is incurred in the handling of premature or untimely inquiries for C. O. D. mail, the fullest cooperation of shippers is solicited and it will be appreciated if inquiries, whether sent directly to the post offices to which the mail was addressed or made through the mailing post offices, are made in strict conformity with the conditions set forth in articles 27 and 29 above.

DOMESTIC INSURED AND C. O. D. MAIL

GENERAL INFORMATION

31. Preparation for mailing—packing and endorsing.—(a) Parcels for delivery in the United States proper.—The contents of parcels presented for insurance or to be sent C. O. D., whether or not of a fragile or perishable nature, should be carefully packed in strong, durable containers or wrapped securely in several thicknesses of strong paper, and tied with heavy twine or cord. Articles easily broken should be securely packed in containers of sufficient strength, with ample cushioning material used to prevent damage by shock or pressure. Instances of damage frequently are due to the use of containers of insufficient strength, inadequate quantity or poor quality of twine or lack of sufficient cushioning material to protect fragile contents from damage. Gummed tape used to seal parcels must be of good quality. (See Ch. IV).

(b) Parcels for delivery outside the United States proper.—Articles contained in insured and C. O. D. parcels intended for overseas destinations should be packed in metal, wooden, or solid fiberboard, or strong double-faced corrugated fiberboard or strong fully telescoping cardboard boxes. The fiberboard or cardboard boxes should be securely wrapped in strong paper and tied with twine.

(c) Declaration of contents—endorsements of fragile or perishable matter.—Except in the case of those patrons who have been instructed in advance regarding packing, wrapping, and endorsement, postal employees assigned to the acceptance of insured and C. O. D. parcels are required to ascertain whether the parcels contain fragile or perishable matter. If such matter is enclosed in the parcels, postal employees are required to ascertain the kind of articles the parcels contain, and have the packing described in detail. "Fragile" or "Perishable" parcels are required to be appropriately endorsed, even though they may be packed securely.

32. Return and forwarding postage guaranteed by senders.—Except as provided in articles 43 and 44 of this chapter, all domestic insured and collect-on-delivery parcels are accepted with the understanding that the senders in every instance guarantee any return or forwarding postage which may be necessary when such parcels become undeliverable. Such parcels should bear, in connection with the senders' return cards, pledges guaranteeing return and forwarding postage; but regardless of whether or not the parcels bear such pledges, they will be treated as though the pledges were on the parcels, unless otherwise prescribed under existing Postal Laws and Regulations. Senders of insured or C. O. D. mail may protect themselves against repeated forwarding on the requests of addressees by conspicuously endorsing the parcels to prohibit forwarding or to set a time limit after which they may not be forwarded.

33. Addressing.—Each insured or C. O. D. parcel must bear the sender's return card (name and address), preferably in the upper left corner of the parcel, preceded by the word "From." The name and address of the addressee also must be shown on each parcel, preferably in the lower right portion thereof. The names and addresses of the sender and addressee should be filled in with typewriter, pen and ink, rubber stamp, or indelible pencil. The use of ordinary lead pencil is discouraged. Parcels indefinitely or illegibly addressed or addressed to fictitious names, or to initials (except adopted trade names of business concerns), or to box or street numbers only, will not be accepted. This applies to the names and addresses of senders as well as addressees.

34. Address labels.—Experience has established that labels arranged substantially in the simplified manner illustrated by the following model address labels are conducive to proper treatment of insured and C. O. D. mail at all points in the Postal Service. The retention period for insured or C. O. D. mail preferably should be limited to not exceeding 15 days, but must not exceed 30 days. (See art. 22 of this chapter for fee charged for notices of nondelivery of C. O. D. mail if requested by senders.) Patrons should incorporate in their address labels a printed facsimile or proportionate enlargement of the regulation "Insured" or "C. O. D." endorsement. If this is not done, adequate blank space should be reserved in the lower-left portions of the address labels to permit of the required endorsement being made by postal employees. Prior to the time new address labels are printed, "copy" thereof should be submitted to local postmasters for approval.

35. Firm mailing books.—(a) These books, which are furnished without charge in three sizes providing for 5, 15, or 30 entries, should be used when patrons customarily mail an average of three or more insured or C. O. D. parcels at one time. Special authority is not necessary to use these books.

(b) Listing of and receipting for parcels on which the minimum insurance fee is paid.—Parcels on which the minimum insurance fee of 5 cents is paid are not to be numbered and should, if practicable, be listed on separate sheets of the firm mailing books. Since no post office record of such parcels is maintained, only one copy of the bill should be prepared and presented with the parcels at the post office, for receipting purposes. Instances will arise where, for example, most of the parcels to be listed on firm mailing sheets represent those to be prepaid with the minimum insurance fee, but the mailers have a small number of other parcels to be insured at other than the minimum insurance fee of 5 cents, or vice versa. In such cases there will be no objection to entering on the same firm mailing sheets parcels on which the minimum fee is paid, but it is desired that, so far as practicable, the parcels to be prepaid with the minimum fee be grouped on such firm mailing sheets.

(c) Numbering and listing of, and receipting for, parcels on which other than the minimum insurance fee is paid, or parcels sent C. O. D.—Mailers furnished with firm mailing books will be assigned a series of numbers which will not conflict with any other series at the post office for use in connection with insured parcels on which other than the minimum insurance fee of 5 cents is paid, or for C. O. D. mail. The mailer should number the articles and the items in the book to correspond. Entries on firm mailing records must be made in duplicate, by means of carbon paper. Firm mailing books are to be retained by the patrons using them. The two sheets (with the book if desired) must be brought to the post office with the articles described thereon. The receiving clerk will sign and postmark each sheet, keep one, and return the other to the sender. The entries on the sheets of the firm book filed at the post office constitute the original record of the articles described.

(d) Name and address of addressee to be entered on bills.—All parcels listed on firm mailing sheets, including those on which the minimum insurance fee is paid, must show the names and addresses of the addressees, including the names of the offices and States of address.

36. Multiple forms.—(a) Many users of the domestic insurance and C. O. D. services have found it advantageous to obtain at their expense approved multiple forms providing in one operation, by carbon process, address labels, firm mailing and post office records, and in the case of C. O. D. mail, labels to be affixed over the corresponding portions of the official C. O. D. tags. The use of these forms eliminates the likelihood of discrepancies in entering the essential particulars on the various portions thereof and speeds up the preparation of the parcels by the mailers and the acceptance and dispatch of the mail by the Postal Service.

(b) Recapitulation sheets.—In conjunction with these multiple forms the use of recapitulation sheets is recommended. These sheets, which are completed in duplicate, show the total number of insured or C. O. D. parcels presented for mailing and described on the sender's and post office portions of the multiple forms, and provide space for postmarking and signing by the accepting postal employees. The portions of the multiple forms representing the descriptive records to be retained by the senders and mailing office are separated into two sets, and separately affixed to the completed recapitulation sheets, which are to be signed and postmarked in duplicate. The use of multiple forms and recapitulation sheets in the manner herein described conserves the time of all concerned, and facilitates the handling and dispatch of bulk insured or C. O. D. mailings presented at post offices. Patrons should submit to their local postmasters "copy" of any multiple forms or recapitulation receipts, in duplicate, for examination and approval before supplies thereof are obtained.

37. Temporary bulk receipts.—When a number of articles are presented for insurance or collection-on-delivery, and the sender is unwilling to wait for the usual descriptive receipt, provision has been made for acceptance of the parcels by count only, the sender being given a temporary bulk receipt. In such cases, the usual permanent receipt is issued as soon as practicable.

38. Air-mail service applicable to insured and C. O. D. mail.—Articles or parcels on which the prescribed insurance or C. O. D. fees have been paid may be sent as air mail upon payment of the required air mail postage. (See ch. III, arts. 15 and 16, regarding restrictions on air mail.) Such articles or parcels containing matter of the third or fourth class may be unsealed, or sealed subject to postal inspection, and may have enclosed therein incidental matter of the first or second class. However, no indemnity liability will be assumed by the Department for the loss or rifling of, or damage to, the first- or second-class enclosures. Air-mail articles or parcels containing exclusively matter of the first or second class cannot be accepted for insurance, but may be registered.

39. Special delivery fees and special handling charges.—Insured and C. O. D. mail will be accorded special handling or special delivery service upon payment of the prescribed special handling or special delivery fee for the class of mail involved. (See Chapter IX for fees.)

40. Restricted delivery.—Upon payment of the required fee of 20 cents, the sender may restrict the delivery of numbered insured or C. O. D. mail by endorsing each such article on the address side "Deliver to addressee only," or "Deliver to addressee or order," or with words of similar import. No refund is made of the fee paid for this service unless request for refund is made and erroneous delivery or nondelivery of the article or articles was due to some fault of the Postal Service.

41. Live baby chicks, ducks, geese, guinea fowl, turkeys; queen bees and their attendant bees, honey bees, and harmless live animals mailed under the conditions set forth in the Postal Laws and Regulations may be accepted for insurance or collection-on-delivery. Indemnity will be paid on account of the complete or partial loss by death or otherwise of the contents of such shipments, when the evidence shows that the loss by death or otherwise was attributable to fault of the Postal Service, provided that a deduction may be made from the amount otherwise payable to cover what the Department may consider a reasonable death rate. However, indemnity is not paid for any outright loss of chicks, etc., resulting from removal of dead chicks, etc., by postal employees, unless death was attributable to fault of the Postal Service.

42. Nursery stock.—(a) The insurance and collect-on-delivery services may be utilized for the shipment of nursery stock. Firms mailing nursery stock may have C. O. D. tags specially printed, at their own expense, bearing instructions (examples shown below), directing the disposition to be made of parcels that fail of immediate delivery, and requiring immediate notification of the senders on Form 3849-D in each such instance, for which a charge of five cents is prescribed. If mailers of nursery stock shipments which are to be specially treated do not desire notices on Form 3849-D to be issued, instructions to the effect that senders are to be notified at once if the parcels fail of delivery must not be incorporated in the instructions appearing on the specially printed C. O. D. tags. No charge is prescribed for notices to senders that undelivered C. O. D. shipments are destroyed or the contents sold as may have been directed in the senders' instructions on the specially printed C. O. D. tags.

(b) When mailers do not desire to have the stock, if undeliverable, disposed of to the highest bidder, the senders' instructions appearing on the back of the delivery office portion of the C. O. D. tag should read as follows:

"In the event of addressee refusing to pay the charges for any reason, deliver at once, without collecting the C. O. D. charges. Notify sender at once if this C. O. D. parcel fails of delivery for any reason. If authority for disposition is not furnished at expiration of 15 days, parcel should be destroyed. See sender's coupon for further instructions."

The following instructions should appear on the sender's coupons which are returned to the sender in every instance:

"This coupon should be returned to sender with money order. In the event this parcel is delivered without collecting the C. O. D. charges, or is destroyed after 15 days, such disposition should be checked (X) hereon and this coupon returned to sender in penalty envelope. See sender's instructions on back of delivery office coupon,

☐ Delivered to addressee without collecting C. O. D. charges.

(c) If it is desired to have the parcels if undeliverable disposed of to the highest bidder, the sender's instructions appearing on the back of the delivery office portions of the C. O. D. tags should read as follows:

"In the event of addressee refusing to pay the charges for any reason, deliver at once, without collecting the C. O. D. charges. Notify the sender at once if this C. O. D. parcel fails of delivery for any reason. If authority for disposition is not furnished at expiration of 15 days, sell contents to highest bidder and remit proceeds, less commission, to senders. (See sec. 43.47 of the Postal Laws and Regulations.) If sale cannot be effected, parcel should be destroyed. See sender's coupon for further instructions."

The following instructions should appear on the sender's coupons which are returned to the senders in every instance:

"This coupon should be returned to sender with money order. In the event this parcel is delivered without collecting the C. O. D. charges, is destroyed after 15 days or is sold, such disposition should be checked (X) hereon and this coupon returned to sender in penalty envelope. See sender's instructions on back of delivery office coupon.

- ☐ Delivered to addressee without collecting C. O. D. charges.
- ☐ Destroyed after 15 days.
- ☐ Sold for $. Remittance, less commission, herewith."

43. Perishable matter—sale or destruction of.—Senders of perishable matter may direct the sale or destruction thereof, if undelivered, by placing instructions on the parcels, preferably in print, reading substantially as follows:

"Postmaster: DO NOT FORWARD OR RETURN. If undelivered after ----- days, sell contents to highest bidder and remit proceeds, less commission, to sender. (See Sec. 43.47, Postal Laws and Regulations.)," or "Postmaster: DO NOT FORWARD OR RETURN. If undelivered after ----- days, DESTROY. NOTIFY SENDER OF FINAL DISPOSITION." The commission chargeable for the sale of undelivered perishable matter is 10 percent of the proceeds, but not less than 15 cents in any instance, the balance being remitted to the sender by money order after deduction of the proper money-order fee.

44. Abandonment of insured or C. O. D. mail.—Senders of insured or C. O. D. mail may direct the ABANDONMENT thereof by placing instructions on the parcels, preferably in print, reading substantially as follows: "Postmaster: DO NOT FORWARD OR RETURN. If not accepted within ----- days, treat as ABANDONED. NOTIFY SENDER OF FINAL DISPOSITION." The sender of such mail, which is treated as "ABANDONED" if undelivered, will have no claim upon the Department for the contents or value of the mail after it has been stripped for treatment as the property of the United States.

NOTE.—While insured mail bearing these special instructions may be held for not exceeding 30 days, the maximum retention period which may be specified for such C. O. D. mail must not exceed 15 days, except when alternative instructions appear on C. O. D. mail permitting the mail to be held for not exceeding 30 days, provided the addressee pays demurrage for the full demurrage period in advance.

45. Forwarding of undelivered insured and C. O. D. mail to new addressees.—Undelivered insured and C. O. D. mail may be forwarded to a new addressee at some other post office only when the matter itself, when originally deposited for mailing, bears in connection with the sender's return card and pledge to pay the return and forwarding postage a specific request that the matter be forwarded to some particular person designated in such request. The request and the return and forwarding postage pledge must appear on the parcel when originally mailed. Any address labels intended for use on C. O. D. shipments which are to be forwarded to new addressees, if undelivered, should embody a bordered space within which are to be entered the names and addresses of the new addressees, together with instructions specifically directing that the parcels be delivered with or without collection of C. O. D. charges, as may be desired.

46. Record of contents and value of parcels.—Patrons of the insured and C. O. D. mail services, particularly firms, must maintain an accurate record of the contents and value of each insured or C. O. D. parcel, so that they may be prepared to state the exact contents and value of each parcel when it becomes necessary to file inquiries or claims for indemnity. When such record is not maintained, any claim for indemnity in connection with the related insured or C. O. D. parcel may be disallowed.

47. Record of postage and fees paid on insured and C. O. D. parcels.—Firms and other patrons that rate up and affix postage and fees to their articles before presentation for mailing should record on firm mailing sheets the separate amounts of postage and insurance or C. O. D. fees. The return receipt fee, the special-delivery fee, or the special-handling charge, also should be recorded separately.

48. Record of incoming insured and C. O. D. parcels and C. O. D. remittances.—(a) Insured mail.—Patrons, especially business concerns, must maintain accurate record of all insured parcels ADDRESSED TO THEM, including parcels on which the minimum insurance fee was paid, so that if inquiries or claims are filed BY THE SENDERS OF THE PARCELS, the ADDRESSEES (especially business concerns) will be in a position definitely to state whether the parcels and their contents had been received intact, or show what articles in the parcels were missing or damaged on receipt.

(b) C. O. D. remittances and returned undelivered C. O. D. mail.—Patrons must maintain an accurate record of all C. O. D. money orders received in payment of the charges borne by their C. O. D. shipments. It is of equal importance that a similar accurate record be made of undelivered C. O. D. parcels returned to them. This information is required in connection with any inquiries or claims which may be filed.

49. Delivery of insured and C. O. D. mail.—(a) At carrier (city, village, or rural) delivery offices.—At post offices having carrier service, insured and C. O. D. parcels are taken out once for delivery (unless the matter is properly held for desk delivery, in which event notice of arrival on Form 3849-b will be issued to the addressee), and if not accepted at that time for any reason, the parcels will be returned to the post office to be held for the full retention periods specified by the senders awaiting the call of the addressees, or requests by the senders or addressees for renewed delivery service. However, when an insured parcel is actually and unqualifiedly refused and there is no request that the parcel be held a specific period of time, the parcel will be immediately returned to the sender, rated up with the return postage.

When the sender or addressee requests that a second attempt be made to deliver by carrier (city, village, or rural), a parcel which was unqualifiedly refused on the first attempt, each such request must be accompanied with postage at the local rate. However, postage at the local rate is not charged when the addressee or his authorized representative, after having refused the parcel when originally presented for delivery, calls at the post office where the parcel is held and accepts it. Insured or C. O. D. parcels which have not been unqualifiedly refused will not be taken out for delivery a second time at carrier offices until assurance is given by the addressee or his authorized representative that the parcel will be accepted, and no extra postage charges are to be made for the second attempt to deliver in such cases. However, when the sender requests that such insured or C. O. D. mail be given renewed delivery service by carrier, each such request must be accompanied with postage at the local rate.

Where an insured or C. O. D. parcel which has not been unqualifiedly refused has been taken out twice for delivery by carrier, but not accepted, postage at the local rate must be paid for each subsequent attempt at delivery.

No local rate of postage is charged for renewed attempts at delivery of C. O. D. mail sealed against inspection and prepaid at the letter rate of postage. Any deficiency in postage at the letter rate, however, is collected on delivery.

(b) At offices not having carrier service.—At offices not having carrier service every means practicable is used to notify addressees that insured and C. O. D. parcels are on hand for delivery, and arrival notices are in each case placed in the general delivery or in the post office box if one is rented by the addressees.

(c) Star routes.—Insured and C. O. D. mail is not delivered by star route carrier unless the addressees expressly so request in written orders filed at the post office. In the cases where such orders are given, the carriers are regarded as the representatives of the addressees and the responsibility of the Postal Service ceases when delivery has been made to the carriers by the postmasters and the signatures of the carriers obtained. In the case of C. O. D. mail, delivery is not made to star route carriers until the amounts of C. O. D. charges are paid.

INSURED AND C. O. D. MAIL TO OR FROM MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES

ARMY MAIL

50. Places to which mailable.—(a) Insured mail.—Insured mail may be sent to or by personnel at military camps or posts situated in the United States, to Army or Air Force personnel at A. P. O.'s overseas, from A. P. O.'s overseas to points in the United States and its possessions, and between A. P. O.'s regardless of location.

(b) C. O. D. mail.—Matter intended for collection-on-delivery may not be sent to Army or Air Force personnel in Alaska or to other A. P. O.'s overseas, except official shipments or shipments to military agencies.

For conditions governing mail for Army or Air Force personnel overseas, see Article 83, page 35, of this Guide.

51. Inquiries.—Inquiries for insured or C. O. D. articles addressed to military personnel shall not be instituted until at least one month after the dates of mailing if the articles were addressed for delivery within the United States or if prepaid for transmission by air outside the United States, including Alaska, Canal Zone, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the island possessions of the United States. Inquiries for surface insured mail addressed to military personnel outside the United States shall not be instituted until at least two months after the dates of mailing.

52. Claims for indemnity—Liability for loss or damage—Army-Air Force mail.—Claims for insured or C. O. D. mail sent by or addressed to Army or Air Force personnel may be presented at local post offices. Under the terms of an agreement between the Post Office Department and the Department of Defense, registered or insured mail addressed to Army or Air Force personnel and not restricted in delivery to the addressees, will be delivered to authorized military mail orderlies, for subsequent delivery to the addressees. This agreement also provides that the Post Office Department will assume liability for such mail which is lost, rifled, or damaged while in the custody of the Postal Service, and the Department of Defense will assume liability for loss, rifling, or damage occurring after proper delivery of the mail.

NAVY MAIL

53. Places to which mailable.—While parcels conforming to the limits of weight and size and other prescribed conditions may be accepted for insurance to all officers and enlisted men of the Navy including personnel of the Marine Corps and Coast Guard, C. O. D. mail will be accepted only when addressed to such personnel at naval land establishments or receiving ships permanently located at particular points in the United States proper.

54. Inquiries.—(a) Domestic shore stations.—Inquiries concerning insured or C. O. D. mail addressed to Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard personnel at shore stations within the continental United States (not including Alaska) should not be instituted until at least 1 month after the date of mailing.

(b) Vessels and foreign shore stations.—Inquiries concerning domestic insured mail addressed to Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard personnel on board vessels and at shore stations outside the continental United States, including those in Alaska, should not be instituted until at least 2 months after the date of mailing.

55. Claims for indemnity—Liability for loss or damage—Navy mail.—Claims for insured mail sent by or addressed to Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard personnel may be presented at local post offices, which are in possession of current instructions on this subject. The responsibility of the Postal Service terminates upon delivery of insured mail in good condition to authorized Navy mail orderlies, addressees or to persons authorized by the addressees to receive the mail. The Post Office Department will assume liability for such mail which is lost, rifled, or damaged while in the custody of the Postal Service. Any claim for indemnity for loss or rifling of, or damage to, insured mail addressed to Navy or Marine Corps personnel after proper delivery by the Postal Service is referred to the Department of Defense, and any such claim involving Coast Guard personnel is referred to the Treasury Department for consideration.

INDEMNITY

(General conditions)

56. (a) Extent of liability.—Indemnity for domestic insured and C. O. D. parcels is paid for the actual value of lost, rifled, or irreparably damaged articles (or in the case of C. O. D. mail for failure to remit charges), within the limit provided for the fee paid, or for the actual, usual, direct, and necessary cost of repairing partially damaged articles, provided they were packed and, if required, specially endorsed in accordance with postal requirements. Postage when claimed, but not the insurance or C. O. D. fee, may also be allowed as part of indemnity in case of complete loss, irreparable damage to entire contents, or rifling of entire contents.

(b) Time limit for filing claims.—Claims should be filed within six months from date of mailing.

(c) Evidence of value.—When claim for indemnity is filed by the sender of an insured or C. O. D. parcel for which an individual receipt (Forms 3813-A, 3813-P, or 3813-B, for insured mail, and Form 3816 for C. O. D. mail) was issued, the claimant should be prepared to submit evidence of value in the form of receipted bills, cash sales slips, if available, or other suitable evidence of value. If any of the articles in the insured or C. O. D. parcel involved in a claim for indemnity were not new, allowance should be made for depreciation due to age or wear.

(d) Adjustment of claims.—With the exception of certain claims adjusted by the Bureau of Post Office Operations, Division of Mail Classification, claims for indemnity involving the loss or rifling of, or damage to, domestic insured and C. O. D. mail are adjusted by designated postmasters at offices in the States or sections in which the parcels were mailed.

57. Certain conditions under which indemnity may not be paid.—Indemnity may not be paid in connection with insured or C. O. D. mail:

- (a) If claim is not made within 6 months from date of mailing.
- (b) If the sender had been instructed prior to the date of mailing of a parcel damaged in the mails relative to proper packing and endorsement, and had failed to comply therewith, and it is apparent that the failure to comply with the instructions was the cause, or probable cause, of the damage sustained.
- (c) For damage to a parcel containing fragile or perishable matter which was not properly packed or endorsed, if the sender failed to inform the accepting employee, upon inquiry, as to the manner of packing or nature of the contents, and it is apparent that the improper packing of the parcel or the failure to have it endorsed to indicate the fragile or perishable nature of the contents, was the cause of damage or spoiling.
- (d) For spoiling of matter of a perishable nature, when the parcel could not possibly have reached the addressee in good condition in the ordinary course of the mails.
- (e) For the spoiling or deterioration of perishable matter because of delays beyond the control of the Postal Service.
- (f) For the freezing, melting, spoiling or deterioration of matter directly due to the temperature (natural or artificial) to which such matter may have been subjected while in the custody of the Postal Service, except that indemnity may be paid where such damage was directly due to the fault of the Postal Service.
- (g) For consequential loss, other than the actual value of, or the cost of repairs to, the article itself, resulting from the nondelivery, wrong delivery, damage, or delay in dispatch, transmission, or delivery of any article.
- (h) For damage to incandescent lamps, radio tubes, and the like, where the glass bulbs are intact (not damaged or broken) unless it is established that the damage was due to improper handling in the mails.
- (i) For damage to articles which are so fragile in their inherent nature as to prevent their safe carriage in the mails, regardless of the manner in which packed.
- (j) If the sender cannot submit the insurance receipt (Forms 3813, 3813-A, 3813-P, or 3813-B) issued at the time of mailing, or equivalent evidence of insurance.
- (k) For death of live baby chicks, honey bees, and harmless live animals, unless it is established that the death thereof is attributable to the fault of the Postal Service.
- (l) For abrasion, scarring, or scraping of suitcases, handbags, and the like, unless the articles were adequately wrapped or boxed.
- (m) For the loss or rifling of, or damage to, any matter which was not rightfully in the mails, or was not lost, rifled, or damaged while in the custody of the Postal Service, or for which other compensation or reimbursement has been made through the Postal Service.
- (n) For the loss or rifling of, or damage to, any matter exchanged between post offices in the United States and post offices in the Canal Zone, except in accordance with such stipulations as may be agreed upon between the postal administrations interested, unless the matter originated in and the weight of evidence indicates that the matter was lost, rifled, or damaged in the Postal Service of the United States.
- (o) For the loss or rifling of, or damage to, any article remained after proper delivery, unless the article was reinsured after delivery and the evidence established that the loss, rifling, or damage occurred in the Postal Service.
- (p) For the loss or rifling of, or damage to, an article before acceptance or after proper delivery.
- (q) For the loss or rifling of, or damage to, any matter mailed in the execution of any fraudulent scheme or enterprise.
- (r) For damage to shellac or wax phonograph records.

CERTIFICATES OF MAILING FOR DOMESTIC ORDINARY MAIL OF ANY CLASS AND ADDITIONAL RECEIPTS FOR DOMESTIC REGISTERED, INSURED, AND COLLECT-ON-DELIVERY MAIL

58. Domestic ordinary mail.—(a) Fee.—The law provides that the sender of domestic ordinary mail of any class may be furnished a certificate showing the mailing thereof. A charge of 1 cent is made for each article described on each certificate of mailing. Upon request, as many additional certificates of mailing as may be desired will be furnished to the sender for the same article upon payment of 1 cent for each additional certificate furnished for each piece of mail described. The fee paid does not insure the article against loss or damage, but merely furnishes evidence of mailing, and no receipt is obtained upon delivery of the article to the addressee.

(b) Forms to be used.—Form 3817 is furnished for use in obtaining an individual certificate for a domestic ordinary article containing matter of any class, and firm mailing books are furnished for use in obtaining certificates for three or more pieces of such mail presented at one time. It is preferred, when bulk mailings of such matter are presented at one time, that the mailers should obtain and use firm mailing books, Forms 3882-A (5 entries), 3877-A (15 entries), and 3881-A (30 entries), but it is optional with the mailers to obtain individual certificates for such articles on Form 3817. In cases where the number of domestic ordinary parcels for which certificates of mailing are desired justifies the action, firm mailers are required, as a prerequisite for the issuance of the certificates, to comply with the following instructions in order to facilitate issuance of the certificates:

1. When individual certificates are desired (either Forms 3817 or specially printed forms approved by the Department), they shall be consecutively numbered and fastened together, and the parcels described on the certificates lightly numbered to correspond with the numbers on the certificates.

2. When the parcels are descriptively listed on firm mailing sheets, the related parcels ordinarily shall be presented in the order in which they appear on the sheets. In the event this procedure is impracticable, the sheets shall be numbered consecutively by the mailers, and the total number of sheets clipped together or otherwise securely fastened. The parcels shall be lightly numbered to show the sheet and line number on which they are described.

(c) Particulars to be shown.—Certificates of mailing whether issued on Form 3817 or firm mailing sheets shall be completed by the mailer to show the name and address of both the sender and addressee and shall be presented with the mail at the post office. Certificates of mailing shall not show the amount of postage paid, or contain a description of the contents of the related articles.

(d) Method of payment and certification.—Uncanceled stamps or metered indicia to cover the fee for the certificates of mailing are required to be affixed to the certificates by the mailers and canceled by the postmark of the mailing office. Signatures or initials of accepting employees are not required on Form 3817, or on firm mailing sheets when used as certificates of mailing for ordinary mail, the postmark affixed to the forms showing the genuineness of the certificates.

(e) Example of charges.—If a sender presents 10 ordinary articles with request for 2 certificates of mailing for each article and the articles are listed on firm mailing sheets, 10 cents is charged for the 10 entries on the original firm mailing sheet and 10 cents for the 10 entries on the duplicate sheet.

59. Domestic registered, insured, and C. O. D. mail.—The sender of any domestic registered, insured, or collect-on-delivery article may be furnished as many additional receipts for the same article as may be desired, upon payment of a fee of 1 cent for each article described on each additional receipt. No charge other than the prescribed registration, insurance, or collect-on-delivery fees is made for the original receipts issued for domestic registered, insured, or collect-on-delivery mail. No objection is had to the appearance of signatures or initials on additional receipts issued in connection with domestic registered, insured, or C. O. D. mail, when the original receipts and additional copies are signed by carbon process at the same time. The fees shall be accounted for by means of uncanceled stamps or metered indicia affixed to the additional receipts and canceled by the postmark of the mailing office.

60. When requested by rural patrons.—When certificates of mailing for domestic ordinary mail or additional receipts for domestic registered, insured, or collect-on-delivery mail are desired by patrons residing on rural routes, the articles should be delivered to the rural carrier, payment being made at that time at the rate of 1 cent for each article listed on each certificate of mailing or additional receipt, in addition to the required postage and fees. The carrier will obtain certificates of mailing or additional receipts at the post office to which he is attached, affix stamps, cancel them by postmark, and deliver the certificates of mailing or additional receipts to the senders on his next trip.

CHAPTER XV

SERVICE IN POST OFFICES

1. Hours prescribed.—Post offices are kept open for the receipt and delivery of mail, the sale of stamps, and the rendition of the special postal services every week day during the hours when the principal business houses of the community are open.

2. Night service.—Ordinarily post offices are not open at night. However, when such service is needed, limited service has been arranged.

Lobbies of some post offices are open at night for the purpose of depositing mail matter and obtaining mail from lock boxes.

3. Holidays.—Holidays in the Postal Service are New Year's Day (January 1); Washington's Birthday (February 22); Memorial Day (May 30); Independence Day (July 4); Labor Day (the first Monday in September); Armistice Day (November 11); Thanksgiving Day (fourth Thursday in November); Christmas (December 25) and all other days set aside by the President of the United States as holidays.

Post offices are kept open on holidays such length of time as may be necessary to meet reasonable postal requirements of the public.

Service is suspended on rural routes on all legal holidays.

4. Information posted in the lobby.—Official notices, Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marine recruitment posters, weather bureau reports, Civil Service Commission and similar notices are displayed in post office lobbies, together with such other posters or printed matter of a public nature as may be authorized by the Post Office Department.

5. Display of unauthorized notices and advertising.—Advertisements, circulars, placards, handbills, cards, or notices relating to any private business, and pictures, cartoons, or other documents of a political character, or concerning any election or designed to influence an election in favor of any candidate shall not be placed upon the walls or elsewhere for public exhibition, within post offices or the lobbies thereof, or on any portion of post office premises.

Postmarking dies shall not be used for advertising purposes.

The Post Office Department is prohibited by law from printing advertisements on stamped envelopes, although they may be placed on the envelopes by the purchaser.

It is unlawful to place in any manner upon any vehicle not actually used in carrying the mail, the words "United States Mail," or any words, letters, or characters of like import.

CHAPTER XVI

MONEY-ORDER SERVICE

THE POSTAL MONEY-ORDER SYSTEM

1. Advantages.—The postal money-order system offers a safe, inexpensive and convenient method of making remittances. The practice of forwarding currency in ordinary mail is an incitement to theft. Money may be destroyed or lost in transit, but a money order may be duplicated from the records of the post office where it was issued. In addition, the purchaser of a money order is given a receipt showing the particulars of its issuance which should be detached and retained until the order has been cashed.

2. Classification of Money Order Offices.—All post offices, branches, and stations issue and pay domestic money orders, except a few post offices in the Territory of Alaska, which are indicated by an asterisk in the "State List" of post offices in this Guide, a few special stations attached to large post offices, and certain branches on board war ships. All post offices of the first-class and many second- third- and fourth-class post offices, are authorized to issue and pay international money orders. Changes affecting the transaction of money-order business are announced in the quarterly supplements to the United States Official Postal Guide.

(a) Domestic offices.—Domestic offices are authorized to issue money orders payable in the United States and its possessions and at certain offices in the foreign countries named in table No. 1, page 127 of this chapter, with which money-order business is transacted on the domestic basis at the same fees as for domestic orders. Domestic offices are likewise authorized to pay money orders issued in the United States and its possessions, and also in the countries transacting business with the United States on the domestic basis and enumerated in table No. 1. Domestic offices can not issue money orders for payment in, or pay orders drawn by, any country named in tables Nos. 2, 3, and 4, on pages 128 and 129 of this chapter.

(b) International offices.—International offices, in addition to the issuance and payment of orders on the domestic basis mentioned in the preceding paragraph, issue orders on, and pay orders drawn by other countries with which the United States maintains direct exchange of money orders on the basis of international agreements, using special money-order forms. These countries are named in tables 2 and 3. They also issue orders payable in certain countries with which there is no direct money-order agreement and pay orders issued in those countries, such orders being sent through an intermediary country with which an agreement for the direct exchange of money orders has been made. (See Table No. 4).

(c) Lists of international money-order post offices.—Lists of post offices in the several countries with which the United States transacts money-order business on the domestic basis (see table No. 1, p. 127 of this chapter) are not included in this Guide but will be found in the "International List," Form XIV, a separate publication.

DOMESTIC MONEY-ORDER BUSINESS

3. Domestic money-order form. The money order is in two parts, the order proper and the receipt to be detached and retained by the remitter. The money order should not be folded, spindled, or mutilated in any way.

4. Fees charged for domestic money orders.—

For orders from—

	Cents
$0.01 to $5.....	10
$5.01 to $10.....	15
$10.01 to $50.....	25
$50.01 to $100.....	35

5. Applications.—(a) Money orders are issued upon application made by the remitter or his agent showing the amount of the order and the names and complete addresses of the payee and remitter.

Business concerns will be furnished, free of charge, quantities of the regular money-order applications. These forms may be overprinted at the expense of the business concern or sent unchanged with advertising matter to their customers.

(b) Examination.—Money orders should agree in every detail with the applications therefor.

The purchaser of a money order should examine it carefully upon delivery and return it to the issuing clerk if any errors are found; otherwise payment may be delayed. The purchaser should not under any circumstances make any alterations, as alterations of essential entries on money orders are forbidden.

6. Funds improperly deposited in rural mail boxes.—Patrons on rural routes must not deposit money in their mail boxes for the purchase of money orders. Application should be made personally to the carrier and a receipt obtained from him at the time. Patrons who deposit money in mail boxes, instead of paying it to the carrier and obtaining a receipt, do so at their own risk.

7. Maximum amount.—The maximum amount for which a single money order may be issued is fixed at $100, but there is no restriction as to the number of domestic money orders which may be issued to the same remitter, except under unusual circumstances at military post offices.

8. Payment.—Within 1 year from the last day of the month of issue a money order may be paid to the payee, remitter, first indorsee, or the legal representative of either, at any post office or bank. A money order drawn in favor of a person residing on a rural route may be paid through the carrier, if entrusted to him for collection, accompanied by a written request addressed to the postmaster.

9. Use of money orders in the C. O. D. service.—Postal money orders are used exclusively in remitting sums collected on mail sent C. O. D., the addressee of the parcel being named as the remitter and the sender of the parcel as the payee of the money order.

Although he is named as the remitter, the money order issued for such purpose is not delivered to the addressee of the parcel and it can not be repaid to him unless indorsed to him by the payee. The money order is mailed in a penalty envelope to the sender of the C. O. D. parcel at the address shown on the C. O. D. tag.

10. Transfer and indorsement of money orders.—Money orders may be transferred by indorsement from one person to another; however, more than one indorsement will render the order invalid and payment can be made to the second or a subsequent indorsee only by means of a duplicate for which application should be made through the claimant's local post office. Bank stamps are not considered as indorsements, nor are signatures affixed to identify or guarantee the signature of the payee or indorsee. An order bearing two or more indorsements, but regular in all other respects, may be paid or repaid to the remitter, payee or first indorsee when properly receipted by him and the indorsements or signatures inconsistent with such payment stricken out.

11. Invalid money orders.—After 1 year from the last day of the month of issue a money order is invalid and may be paid only on application submitted through any postmaster.

12. Identification.—A person presenting a money order at a post office at which he is not known will be required to prove his identity. To assist in his identification when the remitter names himself as payee the issuing postmaster on request will prepare and send to the postmaster where the order probably will be presented an identification Form 6339, bearing the particulars of the order and the payee's signature.

13. Duplicate money orders—Valid orders.—A duplicate of a lost or mutilated order, or of one rendered void by too many indorsements, may be obtained from the Department at any time within 1 year from the last day of the month of issue of the original by applying through any postmaster. However, a duplicate will not be issued in lieu of a lost order prior to the expiration of the thirty-sixth day following the date on which the original was issued, unless a bond of indemnity is submitted on Form 6116.

14. Inquiries.—Inquiry concerning payment of a money order may be made at any post office, but preferably should be made through the postmaster at the office of issue. Such inquiries should not be made prior to 15 days after the issue of the order unless the remitter can exhibit a letter denying receipt of the remittance, written after the lapse of ample time for the payee to have received the order.

15. Money-order service for the armed forces.—

(a) Military (Navy and Army) money-order offices.—Money-order offices established on vessels of the Navy are listed as branches of the post office at New York, N. Y.

(b) Naval shore stations and military establishments in the United States are attached to the nearest post office and are treated as any other branch or station of the office.

(c) All A. P. O.'s outside the continental United States are established as branches either of New York, N. Y., San Francisco, Calif., Seattle, Wash., or New Orleans, La. All of them are authorized to issue and pay domestic money orders.

(d) Where applicants for payment are in the armed services and are unknown to the postmaster or paying clerk they should be identified by an officer of their organization.

16. Extent to which provisions for payment to members of the armed forces apply.—They apply to money orders issued at all United States post offices, including the A. P. O.'s located on foreign soil and the mobile branches on the high seas. They do not apply to Canal Zone post offices, which are a part of a separate postal administration.

17. Postal money-order business with other countries—Domestic-International money-order business.—Money orders to the countries named in table No.

1 below are issued on the domestic form and the fees charged are the same as those shown in article 4 of this chapter for domestic money orders.

The maximum amount for which a single international money order issued in the United States may be drawn is $100, but more than one order for the maximum amount can be purchased on the same day.

The maximum amount for which a single order payable in the Azores, Egypt, Iran, Madeira, Morocco, Portugal, Portuguese India, and Tibet through the Postal Administration of Great Britain can be drawn is £10, and only one order for that amount (or more than one order for a total not exceeding £10) may be issued on any one day for the same remitter.

Advices of all international money orders are held for a year from the date of issue awaiting presentation of the related order for payment.

(i) An international money order is payable only at the office designated therein.—The postmaster at an international office is not permitted to pay an international money order drawn on an office other than his own, unless he holds the duly certified advice corrected by the exchange office or the Department.

(j) Repayment of international money order.—A money order issued in the United States on the international form can not be repaid at the office of issue without specific authority from the Assistant Postmaster General, Bureau of Finance, Division of Money Orders, after either the order, advice, or coupon has passed beyond the control of the issuing postmaster or after the order has been reported issued in the postmaster's money-order account.

(k) International orders cannot be treated in the same manner as domestic. They may be repaid only after consent of the foreign administration has been obtained and the postmaster furnished with an authorization by the Department. When the remitter of an international money order desires repayment, the postmaster will fill out an application on Form 6759, attach the original order, if in his or the remitter's possession, and forward it to the exchange office to which the advice was sent.

(l) Duplicates of lost international money orders payable in the United States.—Applications for duplicates of lost orders payable in the United States which originated in any country named in tables Nos. 2, 3, and 4 should be filed at the paying office and forwarded on Form 6753 to the Assistant Postmaster General, Bureau of Finance, Division of Money Orders. Such notes or orders should be returned by their holders with request that the money be sent to them in this country by means of international money orders.

CHAPTER XVII

POSTAL SAVINGS

1. Uses and purposes.—The Postal Savings System was established to provide facilities for the deposit of savings at interest with the security of the United States Government for repayment on demand.

2. Depositary postal-savings offices.—There are approximately 8,260 postal-savings depositaries in operation, including practically all offices of the first class, more than 2,800 of the second class, about 1,500 of the third class, nearly 100 of the fourth class and more than 1,000 branches and stations. Depositaries are indicated by a small circle (°) in the State Lists in the Postal Guide, and changes in depositary offices appear in the quarterly supplements.

3. Postal-savings certificates.—Deposits are evidenced by postal-savings certificates issued in fixed denominations of $1, $2, $5, $10, $20, $50, $100, $200, and $500, each bearing the name of the depositor, the number of his account, the date of issue, the name of the depositary office, and the date on which interest begins. Postal savings certificates are not transferable or negotiable.

4. Minimum deposit; maximum balance.—No account may be opened for less than $1, nor will fractions of a dollar be accepted for deposit. No person is permitted to have a balance to his credit of more than $2,500, exclusive of accumulated interest.

5. Who may open accounts.—An account may be opened at any depositary office and deposits made by any competent person of the age of 10 years or over in his or her own name, without regard to the residence of the depositor. Except as provided in article 6 of this chapter, deposits are accepted only in the names of individuals and no account will be opened in the name of any corporation, association, society, firm or partnership, or in the name of any person as an officer or member thereof; neither shall an account be opened in the names of two or more persons jointly, nor in the name of one or more persons in trust for or on behalf of another person or persons. The account of a married person is free from any control or interference by the husband or wife. The account of a married woman must be in her own given name and not that of her husband. When a person usually signs by initials only, his full given name must be written at the top of the application form and he should sign the application twice, first using his full given name and then signing by initials in the manner in which he wishes his certificates issued. If an applicant signs by mark or in characters not used in the English language, his signature must be attested by a disinterested witness. A person may open a postal-savings account at any depositary post office, but no person may at the same time have more than one postal savings account either at the same office or at a different office.

6. Deposits of bankrupt funds.—Section 3 of the amendment of March 3, 1933, to the Bankruptcy Act reads as follows:

"In all bankruptcy proceedings the officers and agents in charge of the bankrupt funds are authorized to deposit the same without limit as to the amount in the postal-savings depositaries at the prescribed interest rate in all cases where local banks are unable or unwilling to give the required security. Such deposit or any portion thereof may be withdrawn as required in the bankruptcy proceedings."

When an officer or agent in charge of bankrupt funds applies at a depositary post office to open a postal-savings account, the postmaster will require evidence that (a) the funds involved are entitled to consideration under the above quoted amendment to the Bankruptcy Act, that (b) the officer or agent has been duly appointed, and that (c) local banks are unable or unwilling to give the required security. If satisfied, the postmaster will accept deposits in the name of the bankrupt corporation, association, or individual and deliver the certificates to such officer or agent, except that, if the deposit is by commercial check or draft, delivery of the certificates will be withheld until collection has been made.

When payment is demanded the certificates shall be endorsed by the officer or agent (or his successor, whose appointment must be evidenced by a decree of court) and, in addition, may be countersigned by another individual in his representative court capacity if such be the requirement of the referee having jurisdiction over the funds in question. As the amount involved is invariably large, such depositors are requested to give advance notice of contemplated withdrawals.

7. How deposits are made.—To open an account, the intending depositor should apply in person at a depository post office. If, because of infirmity or for other good and sufficient reason, he is unable to appear in person, application to open an account may be made through a representative. Any person residing in a community served by a post office not designated as a postal-savings depository may apply through his local postmaster to open an account by mail at a depository post office. After an account has been opened, deposits may be made by the depositor in person, through a representative, by money order payable to the depository postmaster, or in currency by registered mail.

8. Interest on deposits.—The rate of interest is 2 percent in all States except Mississippi where the rate is 1 percent. Interest, which will continue to accrue as long as a certificate remains outstanding, is paid upon the surrender of the certificate for full quarter-year periods, beginning on the first of the month next following the date of deposit.

Interest not compounded.—Compound interest is not allowed on an outstanding certificate, but a depositor may surrender a certificate and withdraw interest accrued and make a new deposit subject to the maximum limitation of $2,500. A postal-savings certificate which is issued in part payment of another certificate or to replace one surrendered for the purpose of collecting interest due thereon begins to draw interest as of the first day of the month in which it is issued, provided the surrendered certificate has earned at least 1 year's interest and the surrender is made in the first month of a quarter of the interest year. In such cases the new certificate is endorsed to show the date to which interest has been paid.

Taxation of interest on deposits.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has stated, under date of April 21, 1941, that under the provisions of the Public Debt Act of 1941, the interest credited to postal-savings accounts upon moneys deposited on and after March 1, 1941, is not exempt from income taxes now or hereafter imposed by the United States, but that the interest credited to postal-savings accounts upon moneys deposited prior to March 1, 1941, is wholly exempt from Federal income tax.

9. Payment of certificates.—A depositor may at any time withdraw all or any part of the deposits to his credit, with any interest payable thereon. Effective October 1, 1953, however, with respect to certificates issued on and after that date, if withdrawal is made within one month from the date of issue as shown on the certificate, there shall be a service charge of 10 cents for each certificate (regardless of denomination) surrendered.

When a depositor desires to withdraw the amount represented by a certificate, he shall present the certificate to the depository postmaster and be identified. After the postmaster has inserted in ink the amount of interest due, if any, in the receipt form on the certificate, the depositor shall endorse the certificate and surrender it; whereupon the postmaster will pay the amount of the certificate and the interest due.

10. Identification of the depositor.—Unless personally known to the postmaster or clerk, the depositor will be required to answer satisfactorily the test questions shown on the application to open the account before either the principal or interest is paid, and he may be required to furnish finger impressions.

11. Withdrawal through a representative.—When it has been shown to the postmaster's satisfaction that a depositor, because of infirmity or for other good and sufficient reason cannot appear in person to make a withdrawal of principal or interest, the depository postmaster will furnish to the representative of such depositor a blank order for the purpose to be executed by the depositor. Payment will not be made on such an order unless the postmaster is satisfied as to the identity of both the depositor and the representative and is certain the transaction is bona fide.

12. Withdrawal by mail.—When a depositor desires to make a withdrawal by mail he may apply at any depository post office and fill out an application blank requesting that the amount of the surrendered certificates and any interest due or only the interest due, be sent him by money order, less the money-order fee, or by check. The depositor shall forward the application and endorsed certificates, preferably by registered mail, to the postmaster at the office where the account is held.

13. Postmasters not to hold certificates for depositors.—Postmasters are not permitted to receive or hold issued postal savings certificates for safe keeping and should not be requested to do so.

14. Loss of certificates.—If a postal savings certificate is lost, stolen, destroyed, or improperly withheld, the depositor may obtain a duplicate, through the depository postmaster, by applying on Form PS 607. (Depositor's application for new postal savings certificate.)

15. Death or legal disability of a depositor.—Payment of the amount on deposit to the credit of a deceased, insane, or otherwise legally incompetent depositor will be made only after receipt of specific authority from the Assistant Postmaster General, Bureau of Finance, Division of Postal Savings.

If a legal representative of the estate is appointed, the certificate of appointment (or a certified copy of the letters testamentary, of administration, or of guardianship), must be forwarded, through the depository postmaster, to the Assistant Postmaster General, Bureau of Finance, Division of Postal Savings. If the appointment has been in force more than one year, the copy submitted must show that the appointment of the legal representative is still in full force and effect. If the administration of the estate has been completed and the appointee discharged, or other judicial action is taken in lieu of administration, a certified copy of the decree of final distribution or the particular decree issued, together with a completed Form PS 114, amended to conform to the circumstances in the case, signed by the applicant, must be submitted for examination and additional instructions if necessary.

If the depositor died intestate and no legal representative of the estate is appointed and if the amount on deposit is such that not more than $500 remains for distribution after allowing for the expenses of the funeral and last illness, one of the next of kin or other person claiming to be entitled to payment may apply on Form PS 114. If the funeral expenses or other claims for which the estate is liable under the laws of the State in which the money is deposited have not been paid, the undertaker or other preferred creditor may apply on Form PS 115. Where the amount on deposit is such that more than $500 remains for distribution after allowing the preferred claims, administration under the laws of the State in which the money is deposited will be required, unless the laws of the State provide otherwise.

OFFICIAL POSTAL MAPS

9. Postal maps are special-purpose maps published primarily for use of the Postal Service. Postal features are emphasized and the maps are composed to show postal information to the best advantage.

Although postal maps are official publications of the Post Office Department, it is provided by law that they may be made available for other uses at prices fixed to cover the cost of printing and handling.

(a) Post Route Maps.—Maps of the States, Territories, and island possessions published by the Post Office Department are known as post route maps. A list of these maps, giving the grouping of States, scales, sizes, and prices, is printed below.

Each of these maps shows all post offices within the State, indicates the method and frequency of mail supply and gives the intermediate distances on mail-supply routes. County boundaries are accurately delineated and each county is named. Townships are not shown. The principal drainage features are shown but contour is omitted. The lines of mail-carrying railroads (the only railroads shown) are carefully located, but the indications of other supply services are merely diagrammatic. The only highways shown on these maps are the routes of the Highway Post Offices.

A dated edition of each post route map is published about every 24 months. They are photolithographic copies printed in three colors on paper of a grade suitable for mounting. Mounted maps, however, cannot be supplied.

RURAL DELIVERY MAPS

(b) Every rural delivery route in the United States is shown either on a county or a local road map on which the roads traveled by rural carriers are plainly indicated. The sites of post offices are shown, and houses, schools, and churches are located from the latest survey data available at the time the map was originally drawn.

It should be noted by those contemplating the use of rural delivery maps for purposes other than that of determining the roads traveled by rural carriers, that no attempt has been made to keep other data on these maps up to date.

Copies furnished are contact prints of the original maps that are revised from time to time as changes in the line of travel are authorized. As it is not possible to keep all originals up to date at all times no assurance can be given that any map purchased will show the latest changes in service unless an "up-to-date map" is specifically requested.

(e) County maps.—There are 3,068 counties in the United States. Some counties have many rural delivery routes while others have none. Where much of the area of a county is covered by rural delivery service and adequate survey data are available, a county map showing all routes emanating from post offices within the county has been drawn. Such maps are available for 1619 counties, including all in Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa and Ohio. See "Index to Rural Delivery Maps" below.

(d) Local maps.—These maps have been prepared to show the rural delivery routes not included on any county map. Each local map covers the area served from an individual post office. Many of these maps are based on land surveys, but where such basic information was not available the maps were drawn from sketches furnished by postal inspectors, postmasters and other sources. See "Index to Rural Delivery Maps" below.

(e) Index to Rural Delivery Maps.—To determine which type of map is available for a particular county reference should be made to the County List beginning on page 597 of this Guide. One of the following symbols is given at the left of each county name:

(CM) This means that a county map only is available. All the rural routes in the county are shown on this one map. Each rural delivery post office is identified by an R (and number of boxes) in the list of offices.

(1L)(2L) etc. The L means that local maps only are available and the prefixed numeral shows how many for the entire county. The R (and number of boxes) following the name of a post office indicates that it has rural service and that a local map is available.

(X) This means that no post office in the county has rural delivery service and, therefore, no map of either type is available.

(f) Map scales.—Both county and local maps—with a few exceptions—are drawn to the scale of either 1:62,500 or 1:63,360 (1 inch equals 1 mile).

(g) Prices.—Rural delivery maps: County maps 55 cents per copy
Local maps 45 cents per copy

Note: All maps are folded for mailing unless unfolded maps are requested.

(h) Remittance: Payment for postal maps must be made in advance by money order, or check addressed to the "Director, Division of Postal Funds, Post Office Department, Washington 25, D. C." Postage stamps cannot be accepted in payment for maps.

CHAPTER XX

NONPOSTAL SERVICES

1. Civil service.—Information concerning civil-service examinations may be obtained from a designated post-office clerk in all post offices where civil-service examinations are held. Announcements concerning civil-service examinations are posted in the lobby of all first-class post offices and in many second-, third- and fourth-class offices.

2. Documentary stamps.—(a) All post offices of the first and second classes and such post offices of the third and fourth classes as are located in county seats have for sale documentary internal-revenue stamps.

(b) Denomination of stamps.—Documentary stamps of the following denominations are available: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 8, 10, 20, 25, 40, 50, 55 and 80 cents, $1, $1.10, $1.65, $2, $2.20, $2.75, $3, $3.30, $4, $5, $10, $30, $50, $60, $100, $500, and $1,000.

(c) Sales by mail.—Orders for these stamps received by mail will be filled, provided such order is accompanied with a remittance to cover the value of the stamps ordered plus return postage and registry fee.

3. Migratory bird hunting stamps.—Migratory bird hunting stamps of the $2 denomination are on sale at all post offices of the first and second classes and certain post offices of the third and fourth classes, and at the Philatelic Agency, Post Office Department, Washington 25, D. C.

4. Pensioners' oaths.—Fourth-class postmasters and rural carriers are required to administer oaths to pensioners and witnesses in the execution of pension vouchers, and have authority to receive from the pensioner for each voucher a sum not exceeding 25 cents.

5. Burial flags for deceased veterans and selectees.—Postmasters of the first-, second-, and third-class post offices and postmasters at offices of the fourth class located at county seats which may hereafter be requested by the Veterans' Administration to act as depositories, will cooperate so that, upon the death of a veteran or selectee, a flag to drape the casket will be issued upon compliance with certain rules.

CHAPTER XXI

DAMAGE TO PERSON OR PROPERTY

1. Whenever Government property of any kind is lost or damaged through the carelessness, negligence, wilfulness, or malice of a postal employee, the facts shall be reported by the postmaster to the proper bureau of the Post Office Department for determination as to whether such postal employee shall be held personally responsible for the value of the property so lost, damaged, or destroyed.

Whenever a postal employee is held to be personally responsible for the value of any Government property lost, damaged, or destroyed by him, the postmaster shall withhold from the employee any and all salary or compensation due him until he has paid over to the postmaster the amount of money the Department may determine to be the value of the property lost, damaged, or destroyed. The postmaster shall account for such money in his quarterly postal account as miscellaneous receipts.

The postmaster shall investigate and report to the Bureau of the Department concerned all the facts concerning accidents of any kind involving instrumentalities of the Post Office Department, with a recommendation as to the action which should be taken, including his opinion as to the negligence of the employee involved. Such report should be submitted in triplicate. If Government property was damaged through the fault of a private party, the postmaster shall collect the amount of such damage, if possible.

Where accidents of the character referred to in the preceding paragraph involve injuries to private persons or damage to private property, the procedure should be as follows:

In all cases of personal injury, as well as in cases of property damage in excess of $250, one copy of the postmaster's report and supporting evidence should be immediately forwarded to the post office inspector in charge of the division in which the office is located for investigation, and the two remaining copies, with supporting papers, shall be forwarded to the appropriate bureau of the Department. In cases of property damage not exceeding $250, all three copies of the report and accompanying evidence shall be forwarded to the appropriate bureau of the Department. In accidents occurring in the Postal Transportation Service, the reports herein provided for shall be made by the superintendent or other officer having immediate supervision over the employees involved in the accident. Reports of accidents occurring in Federal buildings under the jurisdiction of this Department shall be reported in like manner to the appropriate bureau of the Department, except that incidents occurring in Federal buildings, such as fainting spells, epileptic fits, etc., shall not be made the basis of requests for immediate investigation. However, reports of such incidents should be made in the same manner as reports of accidents to the proper bureau of the Department in triplicate.

Postmasters shall maintain on cards furnished them for that purpose an office record of written communications received by them from persons or concerns sustaining injuries or damage expressing a desire or an intent to file claim for such injuries or damage, which record shall include the name and address of the complainant, the date the communication is received by the postmaster, the name of counsel (if any) and such other data required by the record form as may be secured by the postmaster.

Report on all accidents in which persons have been injured or private property has been damaged, as well as reports of cases involving questions of the action to be taken against private parties to collect for damage to Government equipment or property, shall be promptly forwarded by the bureau of the department receiving such reports to the Solicitor for review.

Where accidents involving injury to private person or damage to private property result in civil suit against the Government or the postal employee involved, an immediate report shall be made to the post office inspector in charge of the division in which the office is located, accompanied with the supporting evidence available at that time, and two additional copies of such report, with the supporting evidence, shall be immediately forwarded to the Solicitor.

(For subsequent changes see quarterly supplements)

Consult the list of post offices arranged by States and counties (County List) for county seats, the number of boxes on rural and star routes and the number of post office boxes at offices not having city letter carrier service. The figures 1, 2, and 3 following the names of post offices represent the class, and those offices, excluding ratons and branches, without number, are fourth-class.

C. Offices having city delivery. G. Offices located in Government buildings. V. Offices having village delivery.
